A.D. Nursing Program

Second Group Starts

First Group Finishes with Flying Colors

Twenty students of nursing registered at the Madison Extension Campus of S.M.C. on September 11 for their second and final year of the Associate of Science program in nursing.

These students completed their first year in nursing on the Collegedale campus on August 4. After spending the second year on the Madison Campus, they will graduate with the Class of '68 from S.M.C., the second class to finish this new program in nursing.

The first group to graduate, the Class of '67, numbered nineteen. Twelve of these graduated on May 29 and have already taken their State Board examinations. The remaining 7 graduated in August and will take the State Board in October.

State Board returns for those who took the test in June place the Madison group well above the national mean in a test taken by nurses all over the United States from four-year, three-year, and two-year programs in nursing. The enviously high scores earned by the nursing students testify to the quality of work given on both the Collegedale and the Madison campuses.

Whereas all the teachers share in the success of the first year of the program, special credit goes to Mrs. Del LaVerne Watson, Associate Director of Nursing, who has been largely responsible for the establishment of the program. Mrs. Watson has been granted a leave for this coming year to do graduate work at Columbia University. Mrs. Christine Shultz, from the Collegedale Campus, will act as associate director in Mrs. Watson's absence. Mrs. Shultz came to S.M.C. from New England Memorial Hospital, where she was director of the nursing education program for six years, and earlier she was connected with Walla Walla.

The new dean of women for the nurses is Mary Lou Cummings, whose husband,

Pastor Des Cummings, Nashville Youth Pastor, is director of the Nashville Youth Association, a new organization which sponsors social and religious activities for the large number of youth in the Nashville area. This organization will mean much to the nursing students on the Madison campus.

Other members of the Madison faculty are Elder Ray Hartlein, Bible teacher, and Miss Elizabeth Cowdrick, librarian. Two general education courses are also offered: Elder Hartlein's class in Prophetic Gift is open to the community on Tuesday and Thursday; the Physical Education class on Monday and Wednesday, taught by Barbara Botts.

Accreditation in Sight

A new school of nursing receives accreditation from the National League for Nursing only after it has graduated its first class and the students of nursing have taken their State Board examinations. An evaluating visit of the two year Associate of Science program in Nursing on the Collegedale and Madison campuses took place Sept. 18-20. The school expects to receive full accreditation in January, 1968. The faculty has been assured that it need have no fears concerning accreditation.

Southern California Chapter Meets at La Sierra, August 13

The guests assembled at the beautiful dining room in the La Sierra Commons for their summer meeting. During the supper background music was played by Dr. and Mrs. U. D. Register's daughter, Becky. Vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Rosa Navaroo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Henry Meisner.

An interesting and informative report was given by Alumnus W. R. Zollinger concerning the self-supporting academy, Sierra Pines, at North Fork, Calif. This small school in the beautiful high Sierras is doing outstanding work in rehabilitating and educating young people. Forty percent of the students were baptized last school year.

The speakers for the evening were Robb Roy Hicks and Dr. John Scharffenberg. Mr. Hicks, a chemical engineer, spoke on the state of medical affairs in Sacramento and Washington. Dr. Scharffenberg, acting health officer for San Bernardino County, pointed out that the billions we spend on health are not securing results. A new approach in health education is the answer—the Adventist philosophy of health. The diet which was recommended by this church over one hundred years ago is the best for health and for the pocketbook.

The new officers elected for the ensuing year were Mr. and Mrs. Jerold B. Crow, president and secretary. The Crows live in Arlington, Calif. Mr. Crow is on the staff of Loma Linda Foods.

It was decided that the next meeting would be in the Los Angeles vicinity, with the time and place to be decided later.

Future Plans for Southern Colleges

There appeared in Southern Tidings, July 31, 1967, an article of interest to SURVEY readers regarding future plans for SMC, the fastest growing college in the North American Division and probably in the world field. The article was titled "Future Plans for SMC," and read in part as follows:

"Southern Missionary College will limit its future enrollment to presently-planned residence hall facilities and community students, according to Dr. W. M. Schneider, president of the college and secretary of the Board of Trustees.

"Dr. Schneider explained that the reason for limiting SMC's enrollment within the foreseeable future is to permit better planning of academic facilities and student services to accommodate a determined maximum enrollment and to avoid student alienation that is often the result of large enrollments on a single campus.

"The residence halls, when completed, will house about 1,000 students. Approximately 400 community students will equal a maximum of 1,400. It is anticipated that this total will be reached in 1969-70.

"A committee of the board will study the feasibility of establishing, as the need arises, one or two extension campuses in the Southern Union. These campuses would serve as feeder schools for SMC and provide terminal curricula for students interested in two-year programs.

"Orlando and Nashville [Madison] may well serve as the enlarged future extension campuses. At these locations SMC already has facilities for its two areas of nursing." Page 20.

At an SMC Board meeting on June 27, 1967, the following action was taken regarding future educational plans: "Voted that in counsel with the Southern Missionary College Board the administration make a study in depth of the collegiate educational needs in the Southern Union, taking into consideration the possibility of extension campuses."

Madison Academy, 1967-68

Madison Academy got off to a good start for the 1967-68 term, with 183 students.

There are five Master's degrees on the teaching faculty. W. A. Sowers continues as principal, and there are only two new teachers, both in the Science Department—Paul Priest, formerly of Sunnydale Academy, and Alvin Morford, formerly of Oak Park Academy.

Mrs. Gladys Morrison, formerly of the diet department of Walker Memorial Hospital, Avon Park, Fla., is the new food service director of the school cafeteria. Charles Hesler is the new accountant in the academy business office.

Of interest to people here a few years ago is the fact that the faculty room under the library, later used temporarily for the grocery store, is now being used for E. S. Anderson's Mechanical Drawing class.

Madison Campus Church School

The elementary school opened August 28 with an enrollment of 160, which later increased to 167. Six full-time and six part-time teachers are employed. Don Keele is principal and has some 7th and 8th grade classes. Mrs. Iris Landa is the sixth grade teacher; her husband is the new assistant chaplain at Madison Hospital. Miss Diane Tennant teaches grade 5, Miss Vesta Lester, grade 4; Mrs. Sherrie Anderson, grade 3; Mrs. Mary Lou Tavares, grade 2, and Mrs. Elsie Tetz, grade 1.

Madisonites in Takoma Park

It was the privilege of the executive secretary of the alumni association to meet with Madisonites in the Washington, D.C. area in June, and attend the wedding of Harryette Good, former student and worker at Madison, to John Aitken, son of Elder and Mrs. James Aitken. On June 20 a group of former students, staff members, and graduates gathered in the Home Economics Department of CUC. Mrs. Dwight Wilson, chairman of the department, served punch. The group voted Bill Grover, '55, as president of a chapter to be formed; and Sue (Townsend) Potts, '51, as secretary. Bill is working in the Washington S-H lab. His telephone number at home is 588-2452. Sue's postal address is in Silver Spring. She may be reached by calling her husband's office (Dr. Douglas Potts) and leaving a message. A get-together was being planned.

We wish there were space to list all the Madisonites we saw in Takoma Park, and give news of each, but there is not.

One of the bright spots of the trip was a dinner invitation to the Peking Restaurant on Connecticut Avenue in Washington, D.C., by John and Rheva Liu, '42. In company with Bill and Marilyn Grover and their two children, we met around a large round table with Dr. and Mrs. Liu and their two children, Juanita and Alvin, and were served different and delectable Chinese foods. John told us that they now have a cannery for mock chicken and vegetarian steak. Also he said the two Peking Restaurants in D.C. are the only restaurants in the United States that cook all Chinese dishes that are cooked in China. They can prepare 350 different dishes.

National Association of SDA Nurses Second Local Chapter at Madison

Registered SDA nurses of the Nashville area met August 15 at Madison Hospital to form a local chapter of the National Association of S.D.A. Nurses which was organized in New York City on May 7, 1967. It is believed that the chapter here is the second to be formed, Texas being the first.

Miss Mazie Herin from the Medical Department of the General Conference, and executive secretary of the ASDA Nurses, was here the following week to meet the new officers and to give direction and counsel to the new chapter.

"Purposes of the Association," said Mrs. Jack Clarke, newly elected president of the Madison chapter, "are to provide opportunity for fellowship, and for discussion of SDA nursing and ideals around the world, to acquaint nurses and young people with opportunities and needs for SDA nursing in denominational work."

Mrs. Mary Jane Clark (R.N. from Washington S-H), president, is the wife of Elder Jack Clarke, pastor of the campus church; Mrs. Juliette Minner, president-elect, took her prenursing at Madison, but finished in Orlando; Mrs. Naomi Vaughan, secretary-treasurer, is an R.N. from Madison, Class of '32. Miss Naomi Gowan and Mrs. Brenda Riley were named members at large. Committee chairmen are as follows: Miss Mattie Darrell, Nominating; Mrs. Bessie Weir, Social; Bernard Bowen, Program.

The Nashville Chapter of NASDAN voted to have its meetings on the second Monday of each month. Meetings are held in the special dining room of Madison Hospital.

Nurses who do not live near a center where there are enough R.N.'s to form a chapter may join the National NASDAN by writing to that organization, care General Conference SDA, Takoma Park, D.C., 20012. The fee is $5 a year.

Officers and committee of the newly formed Madison Chapter of NASDAN: (Front row, 1-r) Mrs. Juliette Minner, president-elect; Miss Mazie Herin, executive secretary of the national organization; Mrs. Mary Jane Clark, president; Miss Naomi Gowan, member at large. (Back row, 1-r) Mrs. Thelma Snoddy, Miss Mattie Darrell, Mrs. Sylvia Seely, Donald Jennings, Bernard Bowen, Mrs. Bessie Weir, Mrs. Beth Smith.

Madison Featured in Southern Hospitals

Madison Hospital was featured in the August, 1967, issue of Southern Hospitals. A picture of the new building appears on the cover. A brief history of the institution by Robert W. Morris, administrator, and an illustrated description of its facilities occupies four pages. The first paragraph reads

"In 1904, a group of educators left the famed Battle Creek Sanitarium in Michigan to found an educational-medical institute in the South. This group was more interested in education, but in 1908 a prominent individual from Nashville came to the small educational institution and requested treatment for his ailment by the famed Battle Creek treatment method. After a month of this treatment, this individual returned home cured and referred, during the next three months, 12 more patients. By the end of 1908, the bed complement was increased to 12."

The number of beds has been increased from time to time until the hospital now has a capacity of 260.

Paramedical Courses at Hospital

Madison Hospital not only serves as the clinical facility for SMC for its Associate Degree in Nursing but also in Medical Records. Other schools operated by the hospital are X-Ray, Laboratory, and a School for Nurse-Anesthetists, all of which are approved by their various accrediting bodies.

LPN Course Started August 21

An approved licensed practical nursing course was started on August 21 at Madison Hospital in cooperation with Adult Vocational Metro Schools and the State Board of Vocational Education. The class started with a capacity enrollment of 20, and about that many more wanting to enroll. Thelma (Wetmore) Pitt, who earned her R.N. at Madison College in 1952, is the teacher.

Madisonites in Middle East Crisis

Leslie Morris Family Evacuated for Five Weeks

A letter from Leslie Morris '48 tells how he and his family had to leave Middle East College in Lebanon on a half-hour notice because of the Middle East crisis in June. They were taken to Athens, Greece, and later to Cyprus. After five weeks they are safely back in Beirut. Professor Morris was head of the Chemistry Department at Madison College before answering the call to become head of the Science Department at Middle East College.

Mr. Morris wrote that 3,000 Americans were evacuated. Among the Adventists was Ralph Davidson, former president of Madison College and now a General Conference auditor. He had just finished his auditing work and was scheduled to leave, but the airport was closed and he had to be evacuated with the others.

Elder Guley Goes Through Middle East

Another letter was received from Elder Norman Guley, Bible teacher at Japan Missionary College, and former Bible teacher at Madison College, telling of his trip from Japan to Scotland, where he is spending his furlough studying.

He also was caught in the Middle East crisis in Jordan on June 5. He tried in various ways to get out, and lived through very frightening experiences, including 14 air-raid warnings. He concluded his letter: "On June 11 we were evacuated under military protection to Teheran on Red Cross U.S. planes . . . Then to England to meet loved ones and friends, and finally to Scotland, where we are trying to get settled."

We wish we had space to quote more fully from these interesting letters.

Homecoming, 1968

At Homecoming next year we plan to honor not only the 25-year-ago class (1943), but also all graduates who were here 40 or more years ago (1928 and before). The date has not yet been set. At Homecoming this year we asked folk to write down their preference for Homecoming time. Many liked the same time as we have been meeting, or around the first of May. Several suggested having it during summer so children can come, and some specified having it right after campmeeting. Campmeeting in Tennessee is usually in early June. Let us hear from you as to your preference, especially those who will be in the honor classes.

MCAA NEWS

After graduation from the nurses' course in 1916, Earl Kutcher went to Cuba and helped establish medical work in a self-supporting school near Havana. Later on he worked at Stone Cave Institute, Cumberland Heights Clinic, and Wildwood Sanitarium. His wife, the former Anna Friedrichsen, died in 1946. He writes: "My first year I took Bible with Miss DeGraw as teacher. I was on the milking crew under Brother Brink, and had charge of the vineyard and orchard under Prof. Bralliar's instructions. The second year I had charge of a class of boys taking nursing, helped remove Old Plantation House and build the nurses' home building there, also helped construct several buildings . . . Brother Wallace taught carpentry, and Brother Pitcher had charge of the mules at the barn. I remember Jim Lewis, Lloyd Swallen, John Peters, Paul Stuyvesant, and the Austin sisters. I'll be glad to read of old-timers in the SURVEY and the place where I spent three happy years in the earlier part of my life."

1920

Harriet Shutt (N '25) visited Old and New Mexico this summer. She writes that Mexico "is a country of great contrasts, rich and poor, educated and illiterate, beautiful flowers, tropical fruits and desert cactus, fields of century plant and techila, all used in many ways. There is a wealth of silver and minerals. Farming is not modern and in the mountains Indians live in caves and do very little farming. Oxen are used in most of the country. Christianity is making progress as well as education." Miss Shutt moved recently from near the "White" to Loma Linda.

1922

Elizabeth M. Rush (N '22) is retired and lives in Pomona, Calif. After leaving Madison she did advanced work in psychiatry, worked at Harding Hospital, Worthington, Ohio, for 20 years, and did private duty nursing in California for 15 years. She has three children, Morris, Kathryn (Mrs. Sarate), and Mary (Mrs. Howard).

1926

Joe S. Haskell, M.D. (Premed '26) is in private practice in San Bernardino, Calif. He graduated from Loma Linda in 1931 and got his Master's in Public Health at Harvard in 1934. His wife is the former Ethel M. Andre, M.D.

Mildred (Boynton) Brueckner (N '26) is evening nurse at the University of Michigan Health Service in Ann Arbor, Mich. She owns a home and ten acres five miles north of town. She writes: "Thank you for the pictures of the old sanitarium and the new hospital. Naturally the 'old' Madison is the one I remember. My last visit there was 26 years ago. My stepfather was Professor W. S. Boynton, and Mrs. Bralliar was his sister."

1927

Robb Roy Hicks (Premed '27) is manager of Public Relations-West for Warner-Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., and lives in Redlands, Calif. He has been in executive position with them for 20 years. He is a member of the South-eastern California Conference Executive Committee and is currently active in LLU church as chairman of the board of deacons and church finance committee. He received his B.S. from Murray University in Kentucky, and in chemical engineering at the University of Southern California. His son, Robb, is a medical doctor connected with the Magan clinic, with practice limited to eye surgery. His daughter, Mary, is a nurse and is married to Arden Reynolds, Jr., a medical student. His wife, Lela, is also a nurse and helps in auxiliary work at the hospital in Loma Linda. He writes: "We are all looking forward to our Master's soon coming."

1928

Due to an accident in 1949, Ira Chalker (Agr. '28) was left crippled but he manages to do farm work with the use of a tractor. His parents and one sister passed away and he and his younger sister remain on the old home place. He writes, "I have been local elder of the Irons church for the past ten years. I am looking forward to the day when the lame man will leap like a hart."

1932

Naomi F. Vaughan (N '32) is evening supervisor at Madison Hospital. She has been on the staff of Madison Hospital since 1954, serving in various positions, and was the first director of the Hospital Volunteer Auxiliary.

1933

Patricia Hall Black graduated from Madison Academy in 1931 and attended Madison College two years. She received her B.S. at SMC in 1963 and Master's at LLU in 1965. From 1965-67 she was instructor in the School of Nutrition, LLU, and has recently moved to Angwin, Calif., where she is head dietitian of St. Helena S-H. She is a sister of Stanley Hall.

G. Lee Stagg, M.D. (Premed '33) is a physician and surgeon in Hartford, Mich. He practiced medicine in Ketchikan, Alaska, from 1938-1959 before locating at Hartford. His wife is the former Ione Wood, and they have three boys.

where he has been in general practice of medicine after a career in the U.S. Navy. He and his wife, the former Marie Collison, have two children, Patricia and Lyle, Jr.

McFarland—Foll

Announcement has been received in the Alumni office of the wedding of Patricia Anne, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wayne McFarland (Premed '34) to Llewellyn Eugene Foll, on August 27 in Philadelphia.

1936

Elder Joseph S. Imai is a minister in Los Angeles. The Imais have two children, Darlene and Dennis.

1937

Katherine (Beck) Marshall is working in the Madison Hospital diet kitchen as a diet aide. She had charge of the san kitchen at Madison in 1937 and often gave demonstrations, helped with cooking schools, and evangelistic meetings. She was food director for the college cafeteria 1951-53 and 1960-61. She is the treasurer of the Volunteer Auxiliary at the hospital.

1938

Margaret (Rice) Badzik (N '38; Anes. '66) writes from her home in Glendale, Calif., that her son, Bruce, has been home for the summer, and she has been very busy. She cheers us up in the alumni office by saying, "Keep up the good work."

Philip Faudi (N '38) is working at Beth Israel Medical Center in New York City. The family home is in Maine during the summer months. His son, Phillip C. Faudi, a ministerial intern, was married to Myrna Laurell in April at Kettering Memorial Hospital, where she had been working as a lab technician. Myrna is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Laurell '41, of Newark, Ohio.

Thomas A. Davis, D.D.S., former student in 1940, has been in private practice in suburban Philadelphia since 1953. He was elected president of NASDAD in 1964.

1941

Charles W. Kantzer (Premed '41) is an occupational therapist at White Memorial Medical Center, Los Angeles. Since leaving Madison he received his degree in O.T. He sent lifetime alumni dues recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Cyrus Kendall attended the graduation ceremonies of their youngest son, Robert, from LLU School of Medicine in June. All three sons followed in the footsteps of their father in their choice of life work, and all three graduated from the academy at Madison. Dr. Robert Kendall is interning in Pathology at Vanderbilt this fall. His wife is the former Rita Martz (M.R. '61). Dr. Douglas Kendall is now in his second year of residency at Baylor University in Texas; and the eldest son, Dr. Norman Kendall, is at the Naval Air Station, Los Alamitos, Calif. Dr. Cyrus Kendall has been chief pathologist at Madison S-H since 1936.

DeLayne Bowen Corich (N '42) is an Industrial Nurse for the Irving Bank and Trust, a bank with 75 employees in Irving, Texas. Her husband, Bernard, is connected with the Southern Bell Telephone Co. Mr. and Mrs. Corich went on a tour of Europe in early summer, 1967.

1943

Josephine (Mattson) Bengston (N' 43), wrote sometime ago that she had the pleasure of a tour through the new wing of the hospital. "How lovely it is! I'm glad for progress, but the missing landmarks sort of sadden an old-timer like me. I enjoy my free lance anesthesia work in Lincoln County Hospital." Jo will be in the honor class next year at Homecoming, and says she will be glad to contact the members of the class of '43. She will be writing "you-all" later. Her address is Rt. 4, Fayetteville, Tenn. 37334.

Isabelle Miller (N '43) is a Lt. Col. in the Air Force Nurse Corps. She joined the service in 1944, first as a 2nd. Lt. in the Army Nurse Corps, and later was selected to go into the Air Force Nurse Corps. She graduated from Anesthesia School in 1951 and did anesthesia for the Air Force 12 years. She writes, "I have served in Air Force hospitals overseas in England, France, and Germany and just recently returned from a two-year tour in Spain. At present I am chief of nursing service at 4510th Hospital Luke A.F.B. in Arizona. I have the responsibility of 20 military nurses, 14 civilian R.N.'s, 14 L.P.N.'s, and 73 corpsmen in Nursing Service. It is a challenge to train, motivate, and supervise the young, inexperienced people coming into the service."

Wilfred Newell, student at Madison, 1941-43, has been connected with the State of California for 18 years as a psychiatric technician at Modesto State Hospital. Previously he worked at Takoma Hospital in Greeneville, Tenn., Washington S-H, and St. Helena S-H.

P. William ("Bill") Dysinger, M.D., (M.C.A. '45), son of Paul Dysinger, is assistant to the dean of LLU's School of Public Health and Chairman of the Department of International Health. His wife, Yvonne, is a sister of Mrs. Norman Gulley and a daughter of Elder E. L. Minchin.

1946

Ethel Overdorf (N '46) visited the alumni office in August and handed us a check for her Life Membership. She has been working as an anesthetist at Riley Hospital in Meridian, Miss., since 1950. Before going to Meridian she worked two years in Dr. Fred Cothren's clinic. She took her anesthesia training at Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Vera Jensen ('46) was elected president of the Madison-Old Hickory Business and Professional Women's Club. She is working on her doctorate (Ed.D.). She worked in Madison Hospital this summer as patients account manager.

Ruby (Hilburn) James (N '48) visited Madison in August. After graduation, she was office nurse for Dr. Fred Cothren four years and staff nurse at Forsythe Memorial Hospital in Tallahassee, Fla. She is presently employed at Tallahassee Convalescent Home. Mr. James is a pressman at Rose Printing Co. After returning to her home in Tallahassee, Ruby wrote: "I think you have a beautiful hospital there now, but I'm still proud of my old alma mater as was. I spent many happy days there."

Dr. and Mrs. William Knight have moved to Ft. Fairfield, Maine, where he is in charge of the Arvoostook Mental Health Clinic, and teaches at Arvoostook State College, a branch of the University of Maine. Mrs. Knight (N '48) is teaching at Ft. Fairfield. Their daughter, Bunny, a former student at Madison, is a graduate of the University of Chattanooga, and has taught two years in Ringgold, Ga.

James and Marjorie Campbell (N '49) are living in Madison, Tenn., where he is doing private duty nursing and she is working in the historian's office at Madison Hospital. The Campbells have five children.

1950

Henry and Pauline (Burke) Knapp were featured in Volume 9, Number 5 of the Paradise Valley Progress-News (organ of the Paradise Valley S-H); and the San Diego Union Newspaper (11/27/66), under title "National City Couple Form Nursing Team." The Knapps are both nurse anesthetists and provide 24-hour coverage for maternity at the Paradise Valley S-H. They both took their nurses' course at Madison and later finished the nurse-anesthetist course at Norwegian-American Hospital in Chicago.

The article in the San Diego paper stated, "Now males are coming back into the nursing picture—not to replace women, but to work with them to meet the overall shortage in medical fields."

Violet (Rook) Martella (N '50) is living in Hanford, Calif. She received her B.S. from the University of California at Los Angeles (U.C.L.A.) June, 1961. The Martellas have three children, Ella Louise, Stephen, and Carol Sue.

1951

Gloria (Frye) Hall (N '51) lives in Bloomfield, Indiana, and works one shift in O.B. at Davies County Hospital, Washington, Ind. She has one boy, Steven.

1952

After reading the SURVEY, Edna Atkin Pepper (Sec Sc. '52) writes from National City, Calif. "I have read the latest from my alma mater with interest. I do wish I could attend all reunions, but reading about them is next best." Edna works at Paradise Valley S-H two days a week in the sewing room and is busy with Dorcas, housework, writing, and Sabbath School work the rest of the week. Her husband, Stanley, works in the hospital.

David V. Killion (Anes. '52) is director of the Mennonite Deaconess Home & Hospital in Beatrice, Neb. This is in addition to his anesthesia duties, and setting up in-service training classes. Before moving to Beatrice, David was anesthetist at V.A. hospital in Lincoln, Neb., for a number of years. His wife is also an anesthetist. They have three children, Karen, Kelley, and Kent.

We learned through a classmate, Betty Leforte, that Dora Jeanette Vernon married Roy Taylor soon after she finished the nurse's course here in 1954. The Taylors live in Memphis and have two boys.

Roy C. Wilkin (Med. Tech. '54) is a dentist practicing in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He finished lab at Madison in 1954, received his B.A. from PUC, and graduated from LLU in 1962. He attended U.T. Memphis Center Dental School in 1964. The Wilkins have four children—three boys and little 4-year-old Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Boyer (both '54) visited the alumni office this summer. He has been teaching at the Goshute Indian School at Iapah, Utah. Mr. Boyer obtained his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri in 1958. He is married to the former Josephine Browning. Presently Mr. Boyer is teaching in the new Jay church school, Jay, Okla., and Mrs. Boyer is working in the Jay Memorial Hospital.

Betty (Clark) LeForte (Anes. '66) has moved back to the campus from Farmington, Mo., to be an instructor in the School of Anesthesia. Betty and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Clark, finished nursing at Madison in the same year (1954), Betty graduating as an RN, and Mrs. Clark as LPN. Mrs. Clark now lives in Lowndes, Mo.

Chester Villemain (Anes. '55) wrote Mr. Bowen, his former teacher, that he was retiring at Avon Park, Fla., and sent some of his books for the School of Anesthesia library. He has been anesthetist at Walker Memorial Hospital, Avon Park, Fla., since 1964.

Eddythe Faust Downey (N '53) sends her dues from Endwell, N.Y. She became a victim of bulbar polio in 1955. Now she is a respiratory patient, and has lost use of arms, hands, one lung, and diaphragm.

Mrs. Doris Thomson (B.S. '57) is a nursing supervisor at Florida S-H. She received her nurses' training at St. Anthony's School of Nursing, Terre Haute, Ind. She has one daughter, Janice Lee, who is an instructor of nursing at S.M.C.

Eleanor Eichstedt sends her dues and SURVEY donation, and writes that she is doing anesthesia at Hinsdale S-H.

Gilbert Jorgensen (N '57, Anes. '58) has transferred from the V.A. Hospital in Beckley, W.Va., to the V.A. Hospital in Sioux Falls, S.Dak. He writes: "We are both well up to our necks with work for the church. Olive takes the burden for the kindergarten and I am helping with the earlitesens. We recently saw a picture of the new Madison, and are proud of its accomplishments. May God continue to bless Madison and for what it stands."

1958

Terry H. Brown (B.S., N '58) is head nurse in the Emergency Room at Madison Hospital.

1959

Selma Irene Mohr (El. Ed. '59) is the wife of Elder Teddric Mohr, a pastor in New Albany, Indiana. Mrs. Mohr got her Master's degree at Louisville University and has been teaching grades 3 and 4 in Louisville Junior Academy. The Mohrs have two children, Ted and Jo. Both attended S.M.C. last year.

Janet (Martin) Freeland (M.R. '59) is teaching grades K, 1, 2, 3, and 4 at Moorefield, Nebr. After graduation at Madison she attended Union College two years, majoring in elementary education.

Robert and Ruby (Seifert) Eaton (E. Ed. '59) are living in Ev-Mar Mobile Village, Laurel, Md., and Ruby's sister, Laura Mae Slattery, lives nearby. Robert has been teaching in the Potomac Conference since 1961, and he plans to take the ministerial course at CUC.

Abigail (Fields) Turner is a staff nurse at Madison Hospital in medical wing. After graduation in 1959, she worked in Louisville and Pewee Valley. Her mother, Alma Fields, is an L.P.N. at Madison Hospital.

Gerald Kelley (MCA '59), son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley, received his D.D.S. degree at commencement exercises of U.T. Medical Units in Memphis June 11, 1967. He graduated from M.C.A. in 1959 and got his B.A. in Biology in 1964 at S.M.C. He will be located one year at Virginia Public Health, Wise County, Va.

Ishmael Combs (El. Ed. '59) is principal of Ft. Wayne Junior Academy in Indiana. After graduating from Madison, he worked one year in the maintenance department, and taught four years in the elementary school before he went to Ft. Wayne. He received his M.A. from Andrews University. His daughter, Carolyn, graduated in 1961 from Medical Records, and is a technician in the Medical Records Department of Ft. Wayne Training School for the State of Indiana.

Woodrow and Lucille Ek ('60) are both on the nursing staff of Hinsdale S-H, Ill. Lucille works part time as a supervisor, and Woodrow is assistant charge nurse in the Psychiatric Department. Their two girls, Diana and Dale, are eleven and four years of age. Diana recently received a citation for superior performance in piano. Woodrow requested that we keep sending the SURVEY by all means.

1961

Vestal—Becky

Sue Vestal (N '61) became Mrs. Frank Backy on April 23, 1967, in the First Church in Nashville. They are at home in Littleton, Colo. Dr. Backy is field engineer with Burroughs Corporation, and she works part time at Porter S-H.

Grace Bottsford (N '61) and husband, Dr. Elmer E., are in Montevideo, Uruguay, headquarters of the South American Division, where he is medical secretary. She writes that she is helping at the mission hospitals where the need is greatest, and is also translating from Spanish to English for the South American Bulletin. "We enjoy this interesting country very much. The food is similar to Tennessee in abundance of fruit, especially, and a large variety of vegetables. We just got back from our little jungle hospital in Bolivia. We were busy as bees, seeing from 20 to 50 patients every day. Donna Jean is studying in our college in Brazil. We always enjoy the SURVEY and especially here in the mission field." In conclusion Mrs. Bottsford expresses a wish for letters. Address: Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Bottsford, Casilla 286, Montevideo, Uruguay, S.A.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dovich (Ind. Arts '61) attended the summer Institute of World Missions held at Andrews University. They are pictured in the Review and Herald of August 17, 1967, with a group of students. John is under appointment to teach industrial arts at Vincent Hill School, Mussoorie, India.

Audrey (Hill) Myers (N '61) is a staff nurse at OB at Madison Hospital.

Helen Smith (B.S. '61) is director of nursing service at Memorial Hospital in Beeville, Texas, and her husband, Wilbur, is lab technician.

Richard Sutton ('61), recently in charge of Central Heat, is now in charge of grounds at the hospital. His wife (Patricia Neely) is a graduate nurse, Class of 1961.

David and Sharon (McHenry) Martin are living in Takoma Park, Md., where David is stationed at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research in Washington, D.C. He works as a research assistant in the biophysics department, conducting experiments in mechanisms of chemical protection against damage to living tissue from radioactive exposure. He graduated from the academy at Madison in 1961, and got his B.S. in chemistry at PUC in 1964.

Jo Ann Jones (Anes. '67) is working in the Anesthesia Department of Volunteer General Hospital in Martin, Tenn.

Campus Visitors

An unusual number of visitors called at the alumni office or were seen in Madison this summer. We urge Madisinites to call the alumni office when passing through. We have a large collection of pictures, annuals, and other items for you to look over, and many of the pictures can be had for the asking. We invite local and out-of-town Madisinites to drop in the alumni office and see if they can find themselves in these pictures of former days. Following is a list of the visitors who came this summer. (Hope we haven't missed any names.)

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Ramey, M.D. (N '24) of Northridge, Calif. He wrote before coming, "A day I've anticipated for a long time has almost arrived. I hope to pay a short visit to Madison on August 17."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kohler ('55) of Poplar Bluff, Mo. Mrs. Kohler is the former Josephine Fralick, a niece of Dr. E. A. Sutherland.

Homer Lynd, director of admissions at C.U.C., Debbie, and Mrs. Lynd (N '51) were on vacation, visiting her sister, Betty Steinmuss (N '53). Mr. Lynd was formerly registrar and dean of Madison College, and Mrs. Lynd was O.B. supervisor at Madison Hospital.

Crashi Mitoma, M.D., and wife (Mary Imaoka) and daughter, Terri. Dr. Mitoma is in general practice in Sacramento, Calif. After attending Madison College in 1943-44, Dr. Mitoma graduated from the theological course at W.M.C. in 1946, and from the medical course at CME in 1958. Mrs. Mitoma had most of her nursing course at Madison, and finished at Florida S-H.

Mr. and Mrs. Kasser King. Mr. King is with the Park Service at Grand Canyon. While at Madison, Mr. King worked in maintenance, and Mrs. King worked on Medical Wing as a ward secretary. Their daughter Carole married Richard Mitzelfelt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kunau of Enterprise, Kans., visited the campus and daughter, Mrs. Jackie Small, and family. Mr. Kunau was formerly head of the maintenance department at Madison and is now a salesman for Worthington Foods, covering nine states. He is an enthusiastic booster for Madison and the SURVEY wherever he goes. Son Richard and Carol (Hilgers) Kunau, of Colorado Springs, Colo., also visited on campus at the same time.

Leon Pleasant was a campus visitor in September and took many colored and moving pictures. His home is in Lynchburg, and his barber-shop is in Arlington, Va. He says he learned barbering at Madison, taking over the school barbering from Joe Sutherland who was the campus barber at the time. He was in school in academy and college at Madison from 1924-28.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Ulloth ('25) visited Dr. and Mrs. Cyrus Kendall and called at the alumni office. Dr. Ulloth has been in general practice at Fletcher, N.C. since 1942. Mrs. Ulloth is a former student at Madison. She served on the junior faculty, and was Miss DeGraw's secretary for several years. The Ulloths have five children, all married.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stern of Toledo, Ohio. He took premed at Madison, and his wife (Mary Nemunis) studied Dietetics (1939-41). Mr. Stern is now in public relations work for United Auto Workers.

Dr. and Mrs. Victor Seino of Santa Monica, Calif., he of the Honor Class of '42, didn't make it to Homecoming in May because their three boys are in church school, but the whole family called at the alumni office this summer.

● "The message came to me from a Madison student . . . We raised up several new churches during our six years in dark county evangelism work around McMinnville, while aided by Madison students and faculty, including Dr. Sutherland.

"Just before retirement in the Arkansas Ozarks the Lord gave us in our dark county evangelistic program here (as in Tennessee) four new churches in four dark counties in four years. And now we are locating in retirement in the midst of five more dark counties where we pray with the assistance of some good self-supporting laymen or retired workers, that we can raise up five more new churches. We would appreciate hearing from missionary-minded Adventists with the old Madison pioneer spirit."—Elder E. A. Lemon, Batesville Rt., Mt. View, Ark. 72560.

● Elder G. C. Mowry is Book & Bible House Secretary of the South Dakota Conference and lives in Pierre, S.Dak. Although not a graduate of Madison, his sister, Mary Mowry Wilson, is, and he likes to remain on the SURVEY list. At one time he was a student and worked at Lawrenceburg S-H.

● Elder T. J. Kroeger, former worker in the Kentucky Conference in 1926, is now retired and is living in Ottawa, Ill. He sends a donation for the SURVEY and writes that he has been receiving the paper for about 40 years.

● James and Freda Zeigler and James' 90-year-old father are living in Collegedale, Tenn., where Mr. Zeigler is assistant professor of biology. He writes: "We are happy for the newsy SURVEY and are very conscious a lot of work goes into making it so newsy and meaningful to all of us. We are all three—Freda, James, and Dad—keeping quite well and enjoying Collegedale."

● After working in the denomination for 26 years, Ilka Reis Marmon, former student and dean of women at Madison, answered a call to teach in Pasadena High School and Pasadena City College. She teaches five subjects to foreign students. She planned to spend the summer in Europe brushing up on French.

● Elder H. R. Beckner sent two "Wanted Addresses," dues, and donation from Reading, Pa., where he is busy with the Stewardship work of the Pennsylvania Conference. Mrs. Beckner is doing part time work in the conference office. He writes: "May the Lord richly bless and direct in the work of the alumni of our beloved Madison College."

● Jessie Mae (Gray) Burgess (MCA '51) had two years of the nursing course at Madison College. She is helping her husband, Dale, a building contractor, in his office work at Puyallup, Wash. She writes: "I would like to see the college continued with practical courses."

● L. A. Hansen of Orlando, Florida, is a regular subscriber to the SURVEY. He has been associated with S.D.A. work since 1886. He and his late wife began the work in Nashville in 1897, opening the first treatment rooms in the denomination. "Had we followed the suggestion of Sister White," he says, "we would have taken our Nashville work out to Madison . . . It was finally absorbed by Madison." He was one of the founders of Florida S-H, and the first Southern Union medical secretary. For 28 years he was connected with the General Conference Medical Department, 24 of which he served as editor of Life and Health. Elder Hansen, is 96, but still alert and active in writing. His manuscript, "The S.D.A. Work in the South," has been accepted for publication by the S.P.A., and contains chapters about Madison. He was associated with Dr. Kellogg in Battle Creek, and Dr. George Heald on Life and Health.

● Paul Dysinger, former staff member at Madison, writes from Calimesa, Calif., "We are very much interested in the SURVEY . . . I believe the Lord wonderfully blessed the work at Madison over the years . . . I am working at the new University Hospital, Loma Linda. We were happy to have our children from Saigon with us for a few months (Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris). They are returning to their mission field soon. Our son Bill is carrying a heavy load of work at L.L.U."

● Mrs. Edna E. Fisher sends her SURVEY subscription from Loma Linda. Her husband, Harold, who died in 1963, was a former worker at the Madison Rural Press in the early forties, and Mrs. Fisher worked at the college cafeteria and diet kitchen at Madison. The Fishers spent 15 years in our publishing house in Brazil before coming to Madison. After leaving Madison, he was called to work at the Voice of Prophecy in California.

• Daisy (Stringer) Anderson writes: "I do all of the Physical Therapy at Niles Medical Group, Bakersfield, Calif. I have two daughters and sons-in-law in the mission field: Dr. and Mrs. Saleem Farag in Wabag, New Guinea; and Elder and Mrs. Helton Fisher, Malamulo Mission, Africa. My son, Marvin Anderson, is maintenance man at Platte Valley Academy, Shelton, Neb. My youngest daughter, Mrs. James Nix, is a teller in the Bank of America, Glendale."

• "My husband and I were students at Madison years ago. We were there only six months when they asked us to join the group at Louisville, which later became the Pewee Valley Sanitarium. My husband was secretary-treasurer of the group at the time the property was purchased. Ruth Hess, Riverside, Calif.

• "We have never been students at Madison, but our cousin, Lorraine Ehrhardt Everett, sent us the SURVEY when a student there at Madison and we find it very interesting. Our work has been at our medical institutions for many years." Mrs. Bill Bender, Loma Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Messinger

• After teaching for 40 years, and most recently at Pine Forest Academy, Chunky, Miss., Emil Messinger '42 and wife Marie have now retired and are living at Charlotte, N.C., near their son, Dr. Harold Messinger, where they have a little piece of land and a garden. "We are still trying to carry out the traditional 'Madison Idea,'" Emil writes.

Following is the letter Mr. Messinger wrote to Mrs. Harp as a member of the Honor Class of '42. The letter was held over from the June issue for lack of space.

To the Class of '42 and Assembled Guests at Homecoming:

It seems difficult to believe that twenty-five years have elapsed since that evening of Aug. 31, 1942, when we received our diplomas. Who would have thought that we would still be in this world at this late date? A few, we know, have left and we do not know when the final summons will come to the rest of us, but may we be ready, watchful every moment.

To reminisce a bit, the day after graduation, I left for Augusta, Georgia, to act as pastor-teacher. From there, we went to spend a short time at the Reeves unit, and then proceeded to Deer Lodge, Tenn., where I taught a ten-grade school. After a summer at Worthington, Ohio, we went to Pisgah Institute in North Carolina where we spent five years—my wife as a nurse at the sanitarium, and I taught in the academy and carried on the work in the men's treatment room.

We next moved to Cumberland County, Tennessee, where we planned to retire, but circumstances prevented. My wife (Marie Worrell) found work in neighboring hospitals, and I went into public school work, first as principal of a small school, and then for over ten years, serving as teacher for the Homebound of Cumberland County. I traveled from fifty to a hundred miles a day in order to instruct crippled children in grades 1 to 12 who were unable to attend school. Besides the regular instruction, I was able to read to the children from Uncle Arthur's Bedtime Stories, as well as to enroll the parents in our Bible courses.

For additional training to help me in my homebound teaching, I commuted to Knoxville for three summers and took my Master's degree from the University of Tennessee in 1954, at the age of sixty-one. Four years ago, we "retired" again, because at seventy, retirement is mandatory in the public school system. Since then, we have been here at Chunky, teaching and nursing. We hope to still be active in the future, though necessarily in a more limited fashion than in the past.

• Elder B. W. Brown, former president of Kentucky and Georgia-Cumberland Conferences, and former member of the Madison College Board, is retired and lives in Lodi, Calif. He sent a donation for the SURVEY recently.

Violet (Sprague) Dirksen '31, Dinuba, Calif.

"I came to California, nursed for about fifteen years, and then we settled down on the ranch and I have kept house, been Pathfinder leader, press secretary, and held other offices in the church, but I have not done any nursing since 1949. We have raised three adopted children.

"The hospitals here are having a hard time getting nurses for special duty, and I would like to inquire how I could get another institutional pin. When our house burned we lost everything.

"The picture of the new hospital shows a great improvement over the old one. When I was there we nurses had to run all over the place caring for patients. I would surely love to visit Madison once again."

Marvin Meeker, Candler, N.C.

"My father, grandmother, a brother and a sister (now Mrs. Ioma Connell), went to Madison in the fall of 1924. My first class there was Old Testament History under Elder N. C. Wilson, before he went to Africa. In those days we had the on-and-off plan—a class six weeks, and full time work six weeks.

"I spent about ten years on the Madison campus and my wife about seven. The last year and a half we were at Madison I had charge of central heat. The rest of the time I worked at the old shop and service station near the dairy barn. In 1937 we went to Broadview, where I had charge of heating and maintenance for five years.

"I am now working in a machine shop in Asheville. I worked for a year in the spring shop on the Mt. Pisgah Academy campus. Margaret is teaching church school at Clyde, 18 miles away."

Marvin's wife is the former Margaret Coffin, graduate from the two-year Normal Course in 1931.

Masanga Leprosarium Oversupplied with Bandages

A letter dated August 16, 1967, from Althea Turnbull, '57, Masanga Leprosarium, Sierra Leone, West Africa, reads as follows: "Since your letter of January 31, 1967, when you inquired as to our further needs here at Masanga Leprosarium for the knitted bandages, the interest and response has reached unbelievable proportions . . . Thus, because we would like to share with other needy institutions, we are now requesting that all who wish to continue this type of work to contact the General Conference Lay Activities Department (Takoma Park, D.C. 20012), who in turn will assign a particular institution which has needs to be filled. Thus by this means there will be equal distribution throughout the world field . . . I appreciate so very much your interest in our work here. It is still a gigantic task, which would overwhelm us if it had to be done by human power alone."

A. L. Magnussen, medical director of the Masanga Leprosarium, writes in the Review and Herald (12-29-66) under title "First Baptism at Masanga Leprosarium": "On October 15, B. S. Christensen, president of the Sierra Leone Mission, baptized seventeen people in a muddy African river. This was no ordinary baptism, for it represents the first fruits of our work among the lepers of Masanga. The candidates, from a baptismal class, taught by G. W. Turnbull, were all lepers, and the event was witnessed in great wonderment by most of the 250 remaining patients. We have the only leprosarium for the whole of Sierra Leone (population two million). Patients are coming from every corner of the country for treatment."

Gerald Turnbull, mentioned in the item, is a nursing graduate of Madison, class of '57, and his wife, Althea, is also a nursing graduate, same class. Gerald is superintendent of the Masanga Leprosarium.

• Mrs. C. H. Dye, Yucaipa, Calif., writes: "We were workers at Madison from 1930-35, then went to Paris, Tenn., where we did medical work at the Parvo Sanitarium and Treatment Rooms. We had many wonderful experiences. With real sadness we had to leave the work in 1943 because of health reasons."

Memorial Scholarship Fund

In past issues of the SURVEY, we spoke of our Memorial Scholarship Fund and our Book of Remembrance, listing those who have memorialized loved ones and the names of those memorialized. So many names came in memorializing Mrs. Augusta Baird that we are unable to list them, but they are all included in the Book of Remembrance. Other names that have been memorialized since we last reported are:

In Memory of Johanna Stougaard—Given by Mrs. Josephine Bengston.

In Memory of James Simmons—Given by Mrs. Marion Simmons.

In Memory of Bessie DeGraw Sutherland—Given by Connie K. Throckmorton and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Lowe.

One or more persons may memorialize a name by sending a dollar or more to the Alumni office. Names of relatives or friends who have died recently or years ago may be selected.

In the June issue, "Ye Editor" expressed anxiety over our space limitations. Madisonites are making so much news that it seems almost impossible to get all the material in. One way of squeezing more copy in is to use smaller type. In spite of this, every quarter some items must be held over or omitted altogether.

Campus News

● At the time the Madison College branch post-office was moved from its former site of the old "King House" to the new shopping center, all the box numbers were changed. In general, box numbers were increased by 800. This was to avoid duplication with box numbers at the main post-office in Madison.

The old King house has now been torn down, and the area has been selected as the site of the new church building for the campus.

● Mr. and Mrs. Verle Sossong accepted a call to Andrews University, where he is in charge of maintenance in Food Services, and she is supervisor in the same department. The Sossongs came to Madison ten years ago. He has been in charge of the grounds department, and more recently was the official locksmith at the hospital. Mrs. Sossong has been a secretary in personnel, food service director of Madison College, and supervisor of dietary service at the hospital.

Origin of Name "Williams Hall"

Elder David Manzano and wife, Eileen, visited his parents at Madison in August and he preached on Sabbath. He stated that the widow of the Williams for whom Williams Hall at Madison was named, was a member of his church at Apopka, Florida. We asked him for more information and later we learned that E. A. Williams, the donor of the memorial gift to Madison, was at Battle Creek College when Dr. E. A. Sutherland and M. Bessie DeGraw were there, all as students. He and his wife got some money from an oil well in Bradford, Pa., and he donated money to build Williams Hall. After the death of his first wife, Hattie, in 1938, E. A. Williams married Elsie in 1939.

E. A. Williams died September 3, 1951, leaving a brother, Ray, who lived near Madison. Of his children only one son is still living, Burt Williams of Melbourne Beach, Florida. Williams Hall has been used for years as a girls' dormitory at Madison.

LOIS MAY CAMPBELL MORRIS

Mrs. Lois (Campbell) Morris died as a result of an auto accident near Wells, Nevada, August 20, 1967, at the age of 38. The family was returning from a vacation in California and the others were injured but recovered.

She married Robert Morris in 1948, and to this union were born four children (James, Lynn, Connie, and Debbie). In 1956 the family moved to Chicago while her husband attended Northwestern University to complete his Master's Degree in Hospital Administration. In 1960 they were invited to connect with Madison Hospital, and Mr. Morris became administrator. Through the years Mrs. Morris carried out her responsibilities faithfully as a wife, a mother, and a loyal church member.

Funeral services were conducted in Galt, Calif., by Elder T. N. Neergaard of Galt and Elder J. W. Clarke, pastor of the Campus Church at Madison. The parents of Robert Morris returned from Galt, Calif., to stay with the bereaved family for a time.

FRANK ARTRESS

Frank Artress died July 14, 1967, and was buried near his home in Bon Aqua, Tenn. Mr. Artress and his wife Lenore came to Madison to take the treatment room course in 1924-25. After awhile Mrs. Artress changed to the nurses' course. Before the end of the year they moved to Knoxville so he could build the cafeteria there.

They had three of their five children with them at Madison—two of them in church school. Of their five children, all four sons became doctors. (Lynn and George are medical doctors, Edwin and Val are dentists.) Their daughter Juanita married Freeman Quimby. All five children and Mrs. Artress survive.

Mrs. Artress was Lenore Heald before marriage. Her father was Dr. George Heald, first editor of Life and Health. Before becoming editor of Life and Health in 1904, Dr. Heald was editor of Pacific Health Journal in the West, while Dr. Kellogg was editor of Good Health in the East.

LOTTIE DICKERSON DICKMAN

Lottie Dickerson Dickman died at the age of 68 at her home in Clinton, Missouri, April 27, 1967, following a lingering illness. Lottie finished normal training at Southern Junior College in 1930 and taught church school for several years. She then did practical nursing until 1946, when she entered nurses' training at Madison College and finished with a B.S. in Nursing in 1950. At one time she was a charge nurse at Madison S-H, a supervisor at Pisgah S-H, and an office nurse for Dr. Louis Waller at Pisgah for almost ten years. In 1963 she was united in marriage to Henry Dickman, who survives.

ROBERT ELDRIDGE MOORE, JR.

Robert Moore was found dead in his car near De Land, Florida, August 10, 1967, while on his way to work at Halifax Hospital X-ray Department, Daytona Beach. Services were conducted by Elder W. N. Wittenberg, pastor of Kress Memorial Church and former pastor of the Madison College Church.

Mr. Moore was a former student at Madison.

Among the survivors are his younger brother, Donald, a former student at Madison and his mother, Mrs. Jean Ryder, now of Longwood, Florida, who was a worker for a number of years at Madison, serving as a secretary in the food factory and later as credit manager in the sanitarium.

ROBERT B. THOMAS

R. B. Thomas died at Madison Hospital on August 31, at the age of 78. He had been in ill health for several months.

He was married in 1915 to the former Edith Overman, who survives. Mrs. Thomas, now retired, worked at Madison Sanitarium for fifteen years as a nurse aide and fourteen years as a clinical instructor and supervisor, then decided to take the nurses' course and graduated in 1953.

Mr. Thomas was an excellent carpenter. He had done construction work in Florida and Iowa before coming to Madison in 1930, where he helped build many of the houses and one wing of the old sanitarium.

Elder Arden C. Mote, pastor of the Madison Boulevard Church, officiated at the funeral. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Garden, Goodlettsville.

The Thomases have one son, Dr. Allen G. Thomas, an ENT specialist, in Arcadia, Calif. He took his premed at Madison and graduated in 1940. Allen's wife (Geraldine Bond) is also a graduate of Madison, class of 1945.

ALSTRUP N. JOHNSON, SR., M.D.

Dr. Alstrup Nordahl Johnson, '25, died May 1, 1967, at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, Oregon, at the age of 66. As a young man he became acquainted with Adventists through the late Dr. William T. Thornton, who supplied him with our literature and encouraged him to become a member of the church.

He attended Madison College, received his B.A. in 1929 from P.U.C., graduated from C.M.E. in 1935, and continued his medical training at the University of Minnesota, receiving his M.P.H. degree in 1941. He took further work toward his doctorate in public health at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. He received his Ph.D. in P.H. in 1942.

In 1941 he entered the U.S. Navy as medical officer at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Bremerton, Wash. He went overseas as senior medical officer with the 115th U.S.N.S.B., served in New Guinea and the Philippine Islands, and participated in the Lingayen Gulf invasion in 1945. While in the Philippine Islands, he served as base public health officer and medical officer in charge of the Naval-Civilian Hospital at Olangap, Zambales. For his military service he was awarded the Defense Medal, U.S.N., and two Bronze Stars, the Asiatic Pacific Ribbon with one Bronze Star, and the Philippine Liberation Ribbon with one Bronze Star. He was made an Honorary Lt. Col. in the Luzon Guerrilla Forces. In 1945 he was awarded the Distinguished Certificate of Service by Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal.

Dr. Johnson began his practice in Roseburg, Ore., following his release from the Navy and was in general practice there until his death. He was active in community affairs and was a member and officer of the Roseburg S.D.A. church. He leaves his wife, the former Esther M. Olson, a graduate nurse, and his son, Dr. Alstrup N. Johnson, Jr.

Dr. Johnson was a life member of the M.C.A.A. He wrote sometime ago that he had fond memories of the time he spent at Madison, and often thought of the days he spent here working in the laundry, in the dairy, on the farm, and at the cafeteria in Nashville.

● Elder J. O. Marsh died at Madison Hospital Feb. 22, 1967. He was a conference worker for many years in the South. His wife, who survives, is the former Gertrude Hopper, sister of Ruth Hopper Haugen '34, former director of nursing at Madison.
