Frederick Griggs Papers (Collection 15)

Biographical Information

Frederick Griggs (1867-1952) was an early Adventist educator who taught at or headed several Adventist secondary schools and colleges. From 1890 to 1899 he was the principal of the preparatory school of Battle Creek College, establishing the first denominational teacher-training schools there in 1896. From 1899 to 1907 he was principal of South Lancaster Academy, and from 1910 to 1914 he was president of Union College. From 1918 to 1925, he served as president of Emmanuel Missionary College. From 1938 to 1949 he was chairman of the board of trustees of the College of Medical Evangelists.

Griggs also served as secretary of the department of education nine years, 1904 to 1910 and 1915 to 1918, some of his work overlapping with his administration of South Lancaster Academy. He served overseas as field secretary (1925-1930) and then president of the Far Eastern Division and of the China Division (1936-1938).

In 1892, he married Blanche Eggleston who died in 1939. In 1940 he married Mabel Shaffer Murrin.

Provenance

The Frederick Griggs Papers were given to the Heritage Room in the James White Library, Andrews University in October 1979 by Dr. Emmet K. Vande Vere. According to Dr. Vande Vere, the papers were found by students in the first Administration Building of Emmanuel Missionary College just before the building was torn down in 1953. The students gave the file to Dr. Vande Vere who was the history teacher.
