William Warren Prescott Papers Collection 143

Scope and Content

William Warren Prescott (1855-1944) was an educator and administrator in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He was educated at South Berwick Academy in Maine, and Dartmouth College in Massachusetts. He was president of Battle Creek College, Union College, and Walla Walla College. In 1901, he became vice president of the General Conference, chair of the Review and Herald Publishing Association board, and editor of the Review and Herald. In 1909, he relinquished the editorship of the Review and took charge of the Protestant Magazine. He was a General Conference field secretary from 1915 until his retirement in 1937. During this latter period, he engaged primarily in the church's educational work throughout the world.

The William W. Prescott Papers is a group of records which consists primarily of personal correspondences, course materials, sermons, and articles and manuscripts by Prescott.

Arrangement

The arrangement of the collection as shown in the inventory is such to maximize the accessibility of the materials. Each series is grouped by genre or topic and arranged alphabetically. However, in folders with a random collection of materials, no effort has been made to impose an order.

Provenance

This collection comes from the materials donated by Alice Perrine in May 1975 and Stephen Chilson in April 1988. Materials from both donors were integrated into the present format in November 1996. Original provenance of the materials is unknown.

Use

All users of this collection will be required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Record" and to observe the regulation specified in the "Patron's Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Citation for this collection:
