Hans K. LaRondelle Papers

Collection 304

Scope and Content

Hans K. LaRondelle, was a leading Seventh-day Adventist theologian and scholar during the 2nd half of the 20th century. He was born in the Netherlands in 1929. Although a Roman Catholic, he received a Protestant education from the age of eight, and later began an earnest search for God and an understanding of the Bible. At the age of 20, he read himself into the Adventist Church through conviction and the studying of Ellen G. White's book, The Great Controversy. During this time, he was a law student at Leyden State University in Holland.

From then on, LaRondelle began to prepare himself for the ministry. He dropped his law studies and began a theological course at Utrecht State University in Holland and later continued his course work at the Reformed Free University in Amsterdam. It was here that he received a doctor of theology degree in systematic theology in 1971. LaRondelle served as a pastor, evangelist, youth leader, and teacher for the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the Netherlands from 1953–1966.

LaRondelle began his teaching career at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary in 1967, retiring 25 years later in 1991 with the title of professor of theology, emeritus. Hundreds of Adventist pastors who completed their studies in the 60s, 70s and 80s sat under his teaching. Colleagues, friends, and students of LaRondelle remember him as “a true soldier of the cross,” “one of the best systematic theologians in our church,” “a wonderful friend and colleague,” and someone who “could communicate his work to the everyday church member....”

An avid writer, he authored dozens of articles in church-related publications as well as ten books and chapters in many others. In February 2010, he was honored with the publication of a Festschrift, a book of essays noting his scholarship, titled, Christ, salvation, and the eschaton : essays in honor of Hans K. LaRondelle, edited by Daniel Heinz, Jiri Moskala, and Peter van Bemmelen.

Hans K. LaRondelle went to rest on March 7, 2011, in Sarasota, Fla., after fighting a two-month battle with anaplastic thyroid cancer. He was 81 years old.

The LaRondelle Papers contain a sampling of his correspondence through the years. It is doubtful this represents the full body of his correspondence. Presumably the rest has been lost. There is a large assemblage of his writings. Two binders [box 1 folder 32 a & b] purported to be the sum of his writings. Establishment of this fact was outside the scope of this work. There are many other copies of his writings beyond these binders in the collection. There is a partial bibliography in the Festschrift published in his honor. There are some files from his Seminary teaching years, but nothing from his pre-Andrews University time. The largest portion of the collection contains his topical files. These are divided by topics much the way he had them in his own filing system with many subfolders within the larger general topics. There is also a large collection of sound recordings of presentations by LaRondelle through the years on a wide variety of topics.

One interesting addition to the papers was LaRondelle's theological library. Reportedly, hallways and walls in his home were lined with book cases to contain all of his books. His brother-in-law, Peter van Bemmelen, also a systematic theologian at Andrews University, told the Center that when LaRondelle retired in 1991 and prepared to move to Florida that he gave away about half of his book collection to colleagues and students. Even at that his library when given to Andrews University totaled over 3,000 books.

The Center for Adventist Research worked through the library preparing a bibliography of what was in it. At the same time we made a subjective evaluation of the extent of marking done by LaRondelle in each book. This was on a scale of 0 to 4 with 0 being no marks and 4 being very extensive marks. Ultimately the Center retained in our book collection all books in category 4 and 5. The thought being that those studying LaRondelle's life would find his comments insightful to his thinking on particular topics.

A complete bibliography is included at the end of the collection. The retained books, around 600 titles, may be located by doing a Library catalog title search for "LaRondelle Library Collection." The bulk of the LaRondelle library was sent to the Adventist University of Africa, in Kenya, to build up their theology collection. A few titles were kept by the Andrews University Seminary Library Collection and a few were kept by Peter van Bemmelen, LaRondelle's brother-in-law.

Arrangement

During the processing quite a bit of rearrangement was necessary. Where possible the original sequence of topics was kept, but there was a limit on what could be done and still have an easily useable collection. The contents of the folders were generally not impacted. The overall arrangement can best be seen by reviewing the table of contents on the next pages. For greater details review the rest of this register or finding aid.

For a large collection it was fairly easily organized as the contents flowed into logical series. The contents were well maintained in their folders so only a little reordering was needed at that level.

Provenance

Barbara LaRondelle, the wife of Hans K. LaRondelle, donated this collection to the Andrews University Center for Adventist Research on June 9, 2011.

VII. Others

Bx 62 Plaques received by Hans K. LaRondelle

Bx 62 Bibliography of Hans K. LaRondelle's library donated to the Andrews University Center for Adventist Research. For more information see the comments in the Scope and Content portion of the register introductory text. It should be noted that there were extensive runs of journals covering a number of years. Many articles were extensively marked, but they were not retained or specifically noted. There are three printed copies of the bibliography.

- One is a complete list alphabetical by title.
- The second list is sorted first by category, 0 to 4, related to the amount of marking, and then by title.
- The third list is sorted by author and then by title.

Bx 62 Art prints (4) by Lee Greer, presented to LaRondelle. Also includes a biographical sheet. Title:

Dry Season Elephants, Sierra Leone, West Africa;

*Wandering Albatross, Antarctic Seas;
Clipper at Sunset;
When the Guns of War Are Silent.*

Bx 62 2 personal Bibles clearly used by Hans K. LaRondelle. The collection included more Bibles, but they did not appear to have been used to the same extent as these. These others are listed in the bibliography of LaRondelle's library.

- Dutch language. Old and New Testaments. No title page. Appears to have been rebound. Heavily marked throughout.
- English language. Revised Standard Version, 1946, 1952. Harper and Brothers. Heavily marked throughout.
