Foreword

AS YOU LEAF through this 1957 CUMBERLAND ECHOES, your attention will be invited by both picture and quotation to our basic theme, a conception of Christian education as the finest force for the development of leadership. With "a changeless purpose in an ever-changing world" as their motto, the students of Madison College have exemplified this conception throughout another year of preparation for their destiny as leaders of tomorrow. If this annual is to fulfill its purpose successfully, it must portray school life in all its phases. We have attempted to show how the acceptance of responsibility enables the student to make progress in collegiate living as he takes part in the varied activities afforded by the Christian plan of education.

It is the earnest desire of the 1957 CUMBERLAND ECHOES staff that, in the years to come, you will cherish the matchless memories of your college days as recorded in these pages.

HEAVEN NEAR.....

As our guides in Christian living, the administration and faculty have put forth untiring efforts to provide the best possible education and training by precept and example.

"He who with sincere and teachable spirit studies God's word, seeking to comprehend its truths, will be brought in touch with its Author; and, except by his own choice, there is no limit to the possibilities of his development."

To know Him and to make Him known; this is our business here.

The Christian education we obtain while in school prepares us to unit our lives with the Master in finishing the great work that lies before us.

Dear Mom:

I am writing to you today, telling you of the wonderful christian advantages that I have found here at Madison.....

As sincere, seeking youth, we find new faith in prayer, new strength in thanksgiving, new understanding in meditation, and new inspiration in singing. In morning and evening devotions, chapel programs, prayer meeting, vespers, and Sabbath services we as soldiers of the cross are well fitted with the world's best Christian armor and taught the most effective military techniques in wielding the sword of truth.

Take time to be holy, the world rushes on;
Spend much time in secret, with Jesus alone;
By looking to Jesus, like Him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct, His likeness shall see.

To God he goes in simple faith, at morn, at noon, at night. Though he may be surrounded with darkness, difficulties, discouragement and doubt, his soul spans the distance between the terrestrial and celestial and finds his God. - Acorn

Their noble lives have broadened our vision.....They bring to us the experience of years of service. They give to us the lessons of those years, lessons of love, courage, cooperation, and steadfastness, that Time alone knows how to teach. With sincere and sympathetic guidance the faculty of Madison College leads the students in plain paths.

"Tis education forms the common mind;
Just as the twig is bent the tree is inclined."

-Pope

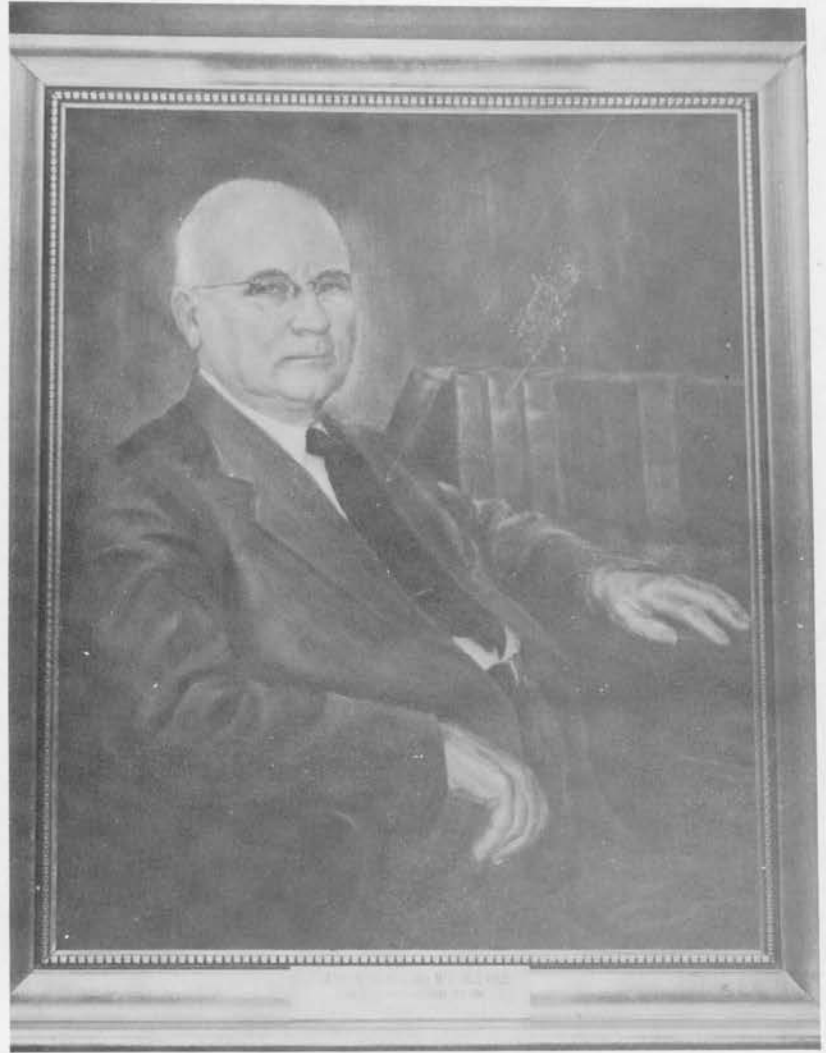

"They have achieved success who have lived well, laughed often, and loved much;.... who have filled their niche and accomplished their task.... who have always looked for the best in others and given the best they had whose lives were an inspiration, whose memory a benediction." - Mrs. A. J. Stanley

"I'm glad the day long,
For the gift of song
For time and changes and sorrow
For the sunset wings
And the world-end things,
Which hang on the edge of tomorrow."

In Memoriam

NOBLY HE LIVED . . . .
FAITHFULLY HE SERVED . . . .
GREATLY HE INSPIRED . . . .

If one word could sum up what was good and fine and challenging in so true a friend, it would be FAITHFULNESS--faithfulness in friendship, in his work in the church, faithfulness to all his standards of conduct and honor, and a magnificent faithfulness to Madison, the College and Sanitarium. He gave the best that was in his life.

Through the years the Alumni of Madison College have upheld the standards of our school at home and abroad and have maintained an uncompromising testimony for Christ around the world. Wherever they go, whatever they do, they are happy, enthusiastic, and dependable. Their lives display the result of excellent training and leadership.

Their unwavering faith, loyal devotion to the Gospel, and constant determination to go forward for God have been a blessing to students who follow, and a source of thanksgiving to the faculty who helped mold their lives. It is to these members of our College family—the Alumni—that we lovingly dedicate THE CUMBERLAND ECHOES of 1957.

In Tribute

WE REMEMBER and PAY TRIBUTE TO those of the student body who have served in the Armed Services, some giving their last full measure of devotion.

We, the students of Madison College, believe in our country because it is our own home. We can best serve this country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with our God."

A Tribute

Elder O. J. Mills and family have contributed much to the spiritual inspirations of all students. Every prayer meeting and Sabbath service he gives the students a message to guide them through the pitfalls and obstacles which they face in everyday life. Elder Mills has worked untiringly towards leading all men to a life centered with Jesus Christ. Thus we wish to express, in the small way that we are capable, our appreciation for our pastor's untiring interest in our spiritual and intellectual lives.

JESUS-----THE SON OF GOD

"His name shall be called

Wonderful,

Counsellor,

The mighty God,

The Everlasting Father

The Prince of Peace. "

Isaiah 9:6

Majestic sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Savior's brow;
His head with radiant light is crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

No mortal can with Him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

To Him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

Since from His bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be Thine.

-Samuel Stennett.

Dear Youth:

God has placed you in this Christian school, in a Christian environment, under the direction of Christian teachers.

We as Christian teachers are here to lead you and to direct you into paths of unselfish service and usefulness for the Master.

"The true teacher is not satisfied with second-rate work. He is not satisfied with directing his students to a standard lower than the highest which it is possible for them to attain. He can not be content with imparting to them only technical knowledge, with making them merely clever accountants, skilful artisans, successful tradesmen. It is his ambition to inspire them with principles of truth, obedience, honor, integrity, and purity, — principles that will make them a positive force for the stability and uplifting of society. He desires them, above all else, to learn life's great lesson of unselfish service." Education by White

We are determined to be the highest type of leaders and the truest type of teachers.

Yours very cordially,

A good teacher is one who so thoroughly enjoys her work that she makes it easy for her students to learn. Our own Church School teacher, Miss Dorothy Matthews, is an example of this. She finds pleasure and satisfaction in doing things for others. For service beyond the call of duty, the 1957 Cumberland Echoes staff would like to honor Miss Matthews, who through her years at Madison College has devoted her talents, her time, and her unselfish interest to serving the younger students of our elementary school. She seeks to guide them, as down the path of life they trod--truly a teacher sent from above, that lifts them up--to God.

RECOMMENDED SAFE PRACTICE FOR HOSPITAL OPERATING ROOMS

Nothing is impossible to the willing heart.

A course complete, a light in a dark world.

I believe that in the end the truth will conquer.

Whether ye eat or drink do all to the Glory of God.

Guard the heart.

A countenance, that warms and lights the heart of the beholder.

There are two ways of spreading light; to be the candle or the mirror that reflects it.

Administration-MCMS-Student Nurses

They seem to me ever by their work most worthy of admiration.

Learn to live and live to learn, little tasks make large returns.

Cherishing his heritage, honoring his tradition, forgetting not his commission Dr. O. R. Ramsay closely follows the pattern of the Divine physician. Therefore we express our appreciation for the night calls, after office hour appointments and personal interest which he has displayed in behalf of the students of Madison College.

And now our seniors are soon coming to the parting of ways, as graduation time rolls around once again. As a happy senior class they will share Commencement honors. They have gone to the same school with the same teachers and taken their classwork together. Now, they will separate and each will follow his special walk in life. Behind them will be Madison, classmates, and the place they took while being with us which we cannot fill. Ahead of them, determined efforts, hopes and dreams for the future. We who are here move through our days a little more seriously. . . . knowing that if faithful to our aims and objectives we will soon follow in their footsteps. Along with you, we, your classmates, end another school year together realizing that we shall never be together again as we have been on this earth, . . . except through the pages of this Cumberland Echoes.
