umberland ECHOES

"Lord, It is dark, the road is rough to go."

In such a world stands
Madison College,
with a two-fold gift
to groping youth:

A sure LIGHT,
and a marked WAY.

Here in this snow-laden is the record of one year.

A year of turning to Him who said,
"I am the light of the world;"

A year of putting on where He, who said
"I am the Way,"
has gone before;

A year of following-- sometimes afar off,
sometimes more closely,--
"IN HIS STEPS."

ECHOES

The President's Message

Hold your head up, throw your shoulders back, stand erect, and keep a level eye. You are a prince, the son of King Emmanuel. Royal blood is coursing through your veins. You have an honor, a mission, and a responsibility above that of all other men. You were born to live above the world, to be a leader of men, and to die for your King if necessary. Wave aloft the banner of your King, faithfully perform you mission as only a prince knows how. Dedicate your life to unselfish service for the subjects of your Father's royal kingdom. Stoop not to pecuniary gain, neither be swept away by the vain allurements of this momentary world. Always remember that you are heir to an everlasting kingdom.

William Sandborn, Ed. D.

The Dean's Message

Another school year has passed into the pages of history, and as we view these pages we realize more than ever before the many marvelous blessings that have been ours. We can never forget the inspiring weeks of prayer, the Ingathering of funds for the Lord's work, the socials of various kinds, the vesper hours, and the Sabbath services.

Yet the most important work of a Christian school is to lead the students to experience the power of an indwelling Christ. To this end the Staff of Madison College pledge their all.

At the close of this eventful year, we breathe a prayer for guidance and blessing for our students, that they may worthily justify the cause of Christianity at Madison by a sturdy devotion to its ideals and principles, and thus glorify God, honor Madison, and ennoble themselves.

G. H. Byers, M. A.

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED

to a very faithful teacher. To one who is loved by the faculty and students of Madison College. A person who has shaped the lives of so many who are living around the world. A lady who has the satisfaction of knowing that her work will stand the test of time.

To you Mrs. Marion S. Simmons, the students of Madison College dedicate this book.

May God continue to bless you as you constantly lead us in a deeper dedication to His service.

Madison College

The class of education given at the Madison school is such as will be accounted a treasure of great value by those who take up missionary work in foreign fields. If many more in other schools were receiving a similar training, we as a people would be a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. The message would be quickly carried to every country, and souls now in darkness would be brought to the light.

GOING PLACES?

When you doff that cap and gown, what then?

For most graduates, the end of college is only the beginning of life . . . a life for which you have spent many valuable years in preparation.

If your major is business or engineering, and if you are interested in connecting with a Christian (SDA) organization, may we suggest that you think seriously about ACE?

As a recognized leader in the machine tool industry, ACE is looking for above-average college graduates for well-paying positions of responsibility. Its international ramifications offer a variety of unusual and interesting opportunities.

A letter to the Personnel Director will bring you full information about openings in many parts of the United States and elsewhere.

Disclaimer on Physical Condition

By their very nature many older books and other text materials may not reproduce well for any number of reasons. These may include

- the binding being too tight thus impacting how well the text in the center of the page may be read,
- the text may not be totally straight,
- the printing may not be as sharp and crisp as we are used to today,
- the margins of pages may be less consistent and smaller than typical today.

This book or other text material may be subject to these or other limitations. We are sorry if the digitized result is less than excellent. We are doing the best we can, and trust you will still be able to read the text enough to aid your research. Note that the digitized items are rendered in black and white to reduce the file size. If you would like to see the full color/grayscale images, please contact the Center.
