for the freshmen,

new horizons—

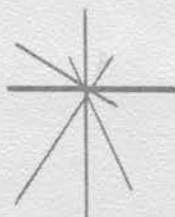

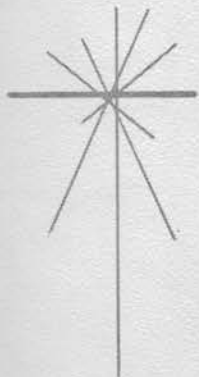

A Closer Walk with God

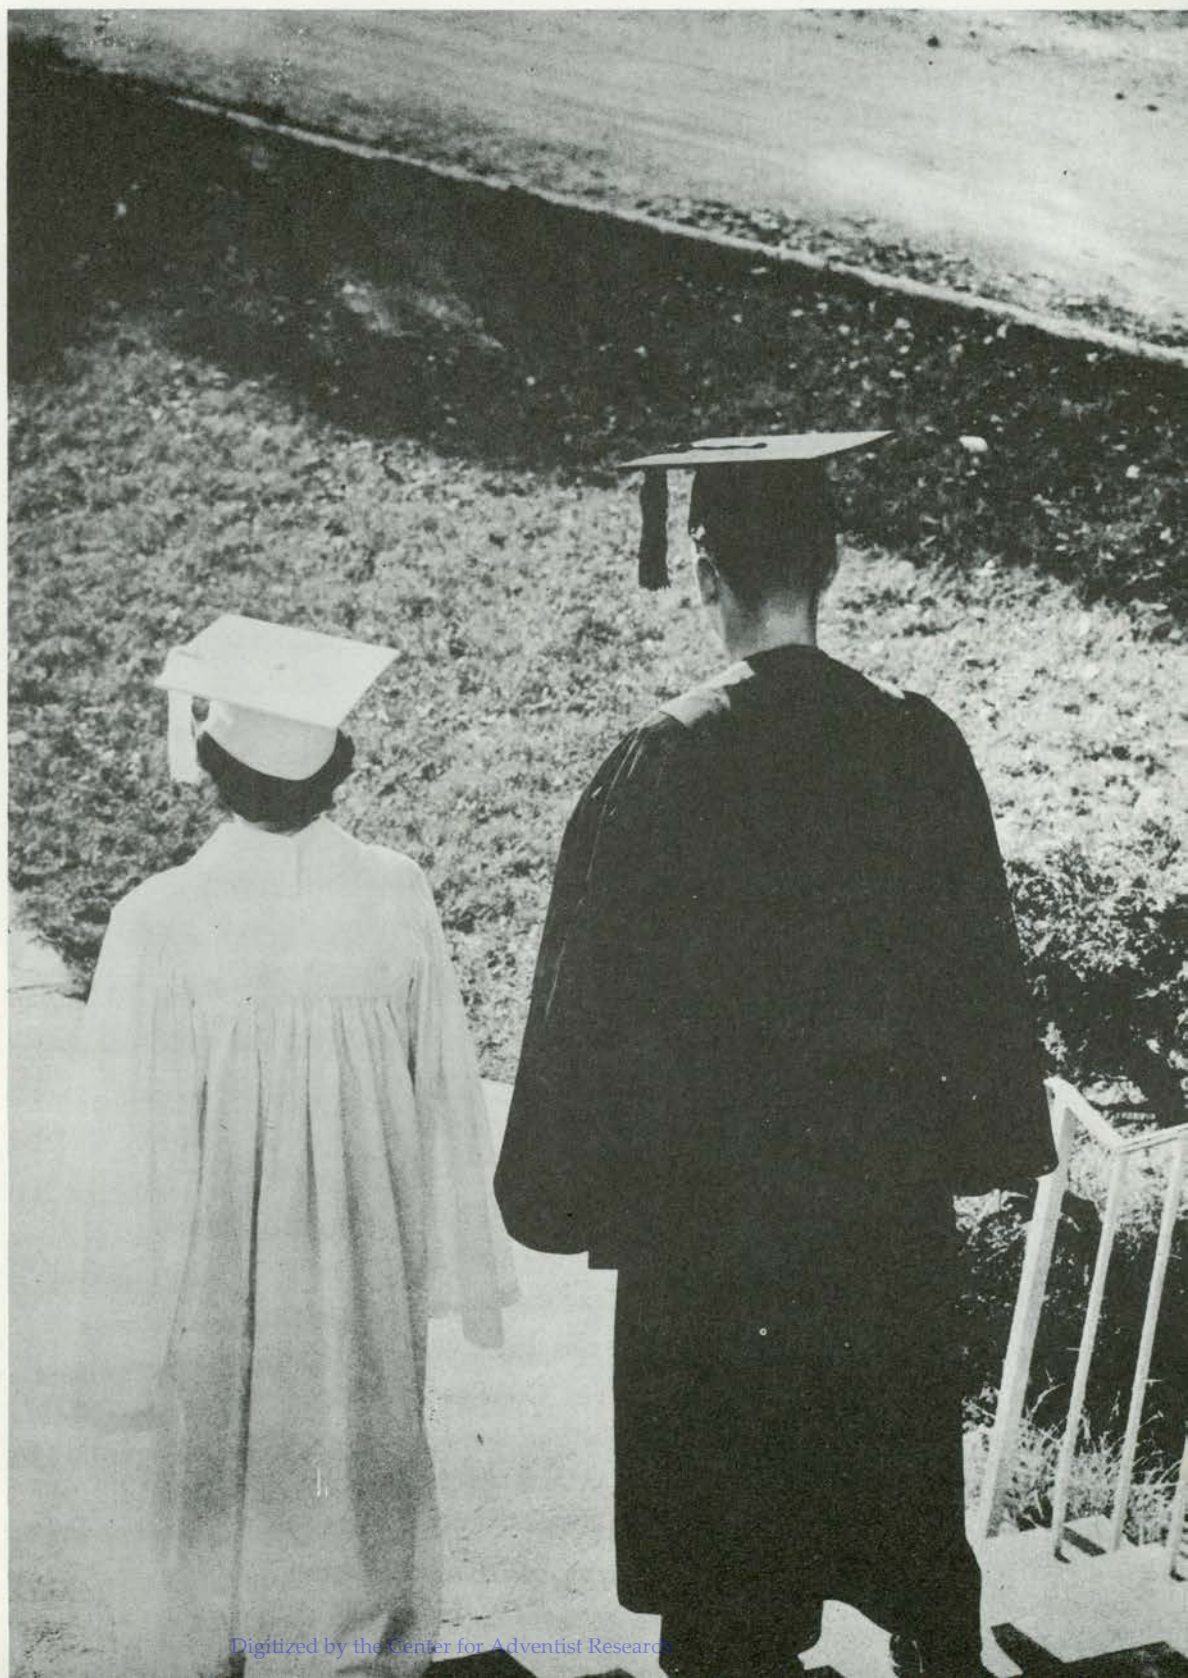

In the 1963 CUMBERLAND ECHOES, the staff has sought to capture the spirit and feeling of the student body of Madison College. This has been a very special year in that the students, realizing as never before the time in which they are living, have endeavored to make this year the best MADISON has ever had — both scholastically, spiritually and socially. This has been a beginning year of which will mark a milestone in the history of MADISON COLLEGE.

THIS IS YOUR BOOK! The staff has endeavored to preserve for YOU a few lasting and treasured memories, depicting some of your joys in the classroom under Christian teachers; a bit of your fun as you associated with Christian fellow-students; and some of the happiness which comes from unselfish service both to God and to your fellowman. A CLOSER WALK WITH GOD has been our theme this year.

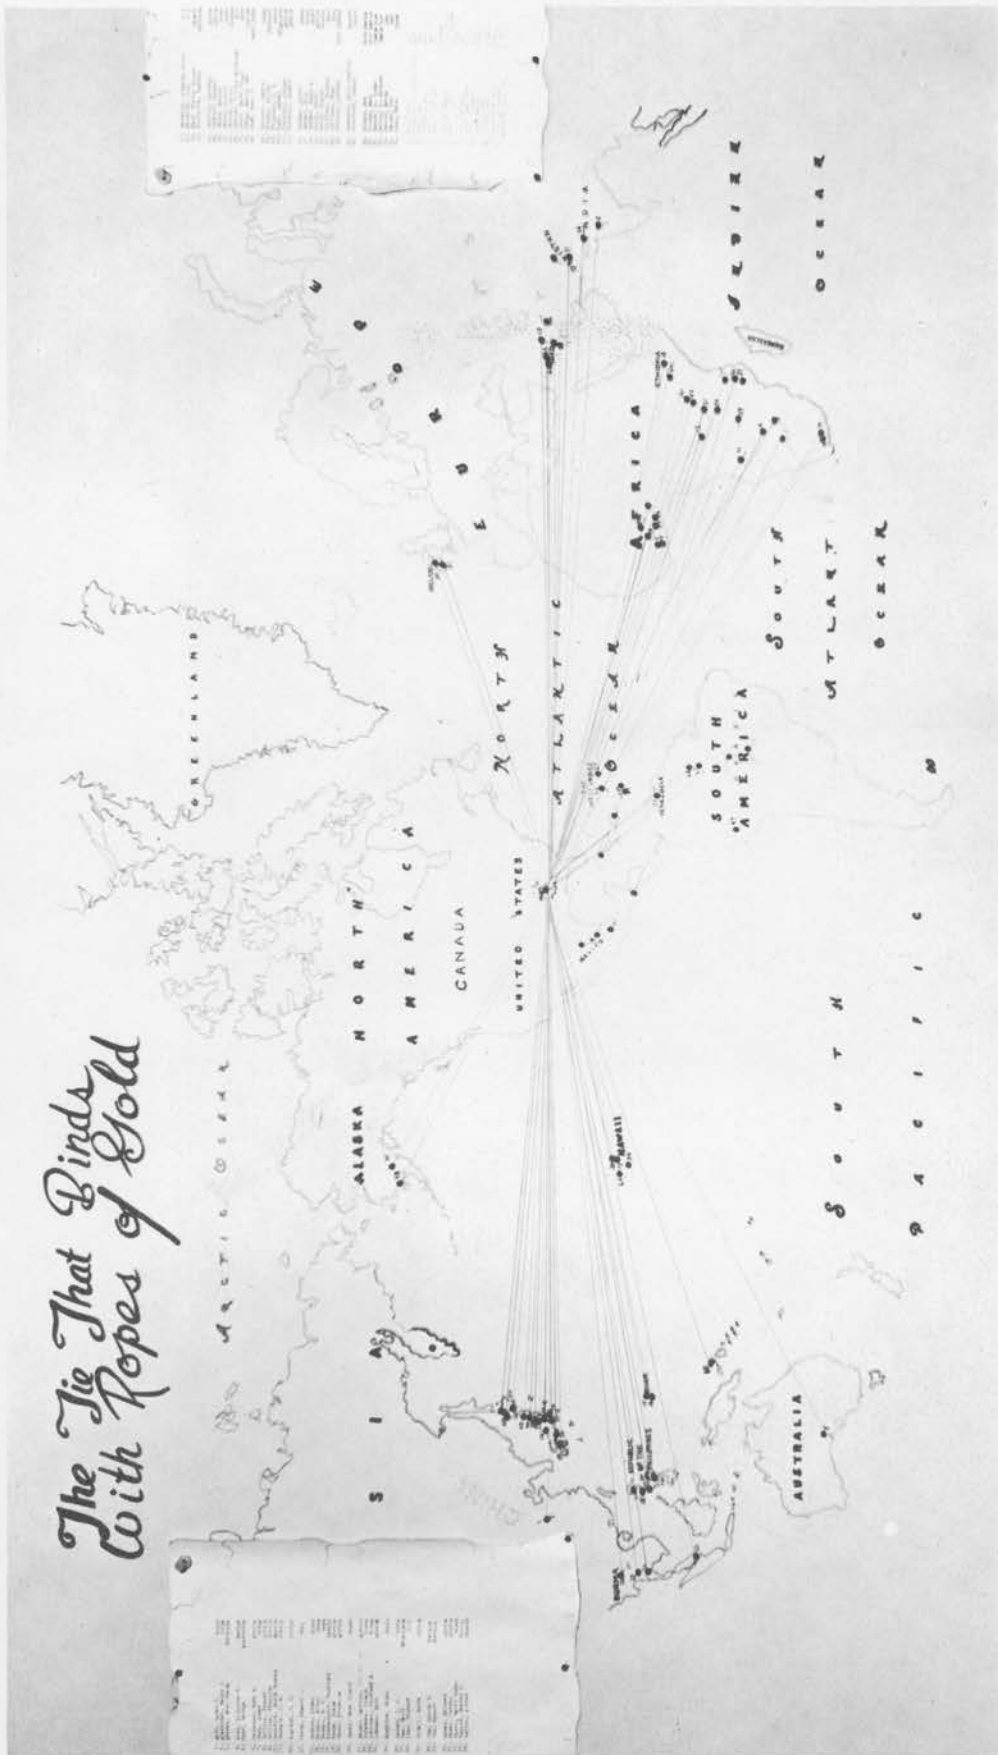

*for the seniors,
a sense of achievement—*

*for all, happy memories
as our thoughts turn to the future.*

*The Tie That Binds
With Ropes of Gold*

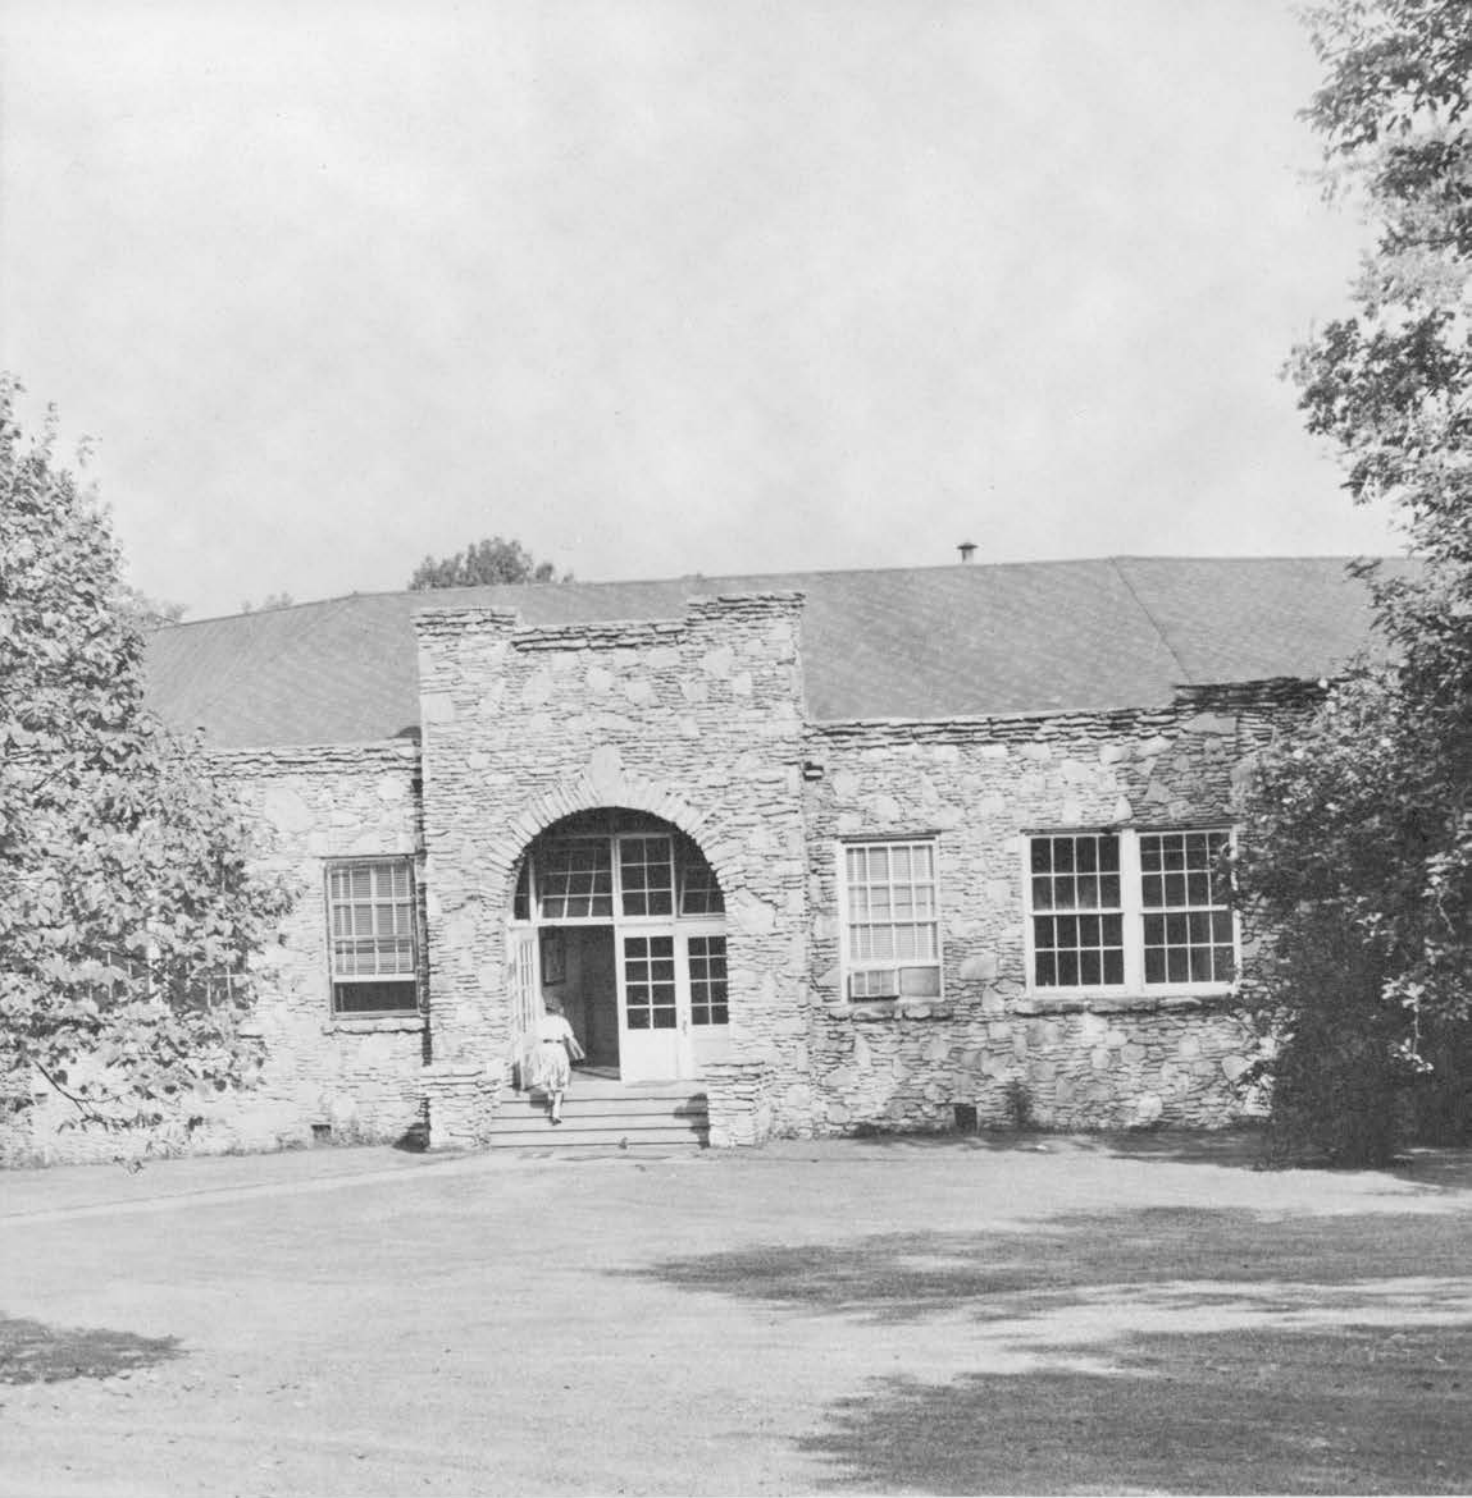

THE GOLDEN CORDS OF TRUTH BINDS MADISON COLLEGE THROUGH STUDENTS, WHO HAVE GONE AS MISSIONARIES, TO ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD; BRINGING A CLOSER UNITY WITH FOREIGN LANDS AND STUDENTS.

Dedication

President Davidson:

You have been an outstanding Christian leader here at Madison. Your mild manner and humble ways have been an inspiration to many. In your classes you have put forth extra effort to inspire your students not only to improve their minds scholastically but also spiritually.

Because of your busy program we are unable to see as much of you as we would like; nevertheless your presence is always felt as a guiding influence.

Madison has experienced a great many trials and you have faithfully stood by to guide her through.

For all things we thank you; and to you,
PRESIDENT DAVIDSON, IS DEDICATED THE 1963 CUMBERLAND ECHOES.

The Annual Staff

PRESIDENT - Ralph M. Davidson

Digitized by the Center for Adventist Research

"He who is following the divine guidance has found the only true source of saving grace and real happiness, and has gained the power of imparting happiness to all around him. No man can really enjoy life without religion." (M.Y.P. p. 264)

It has been the endeavor of Madison College through the years to provide an environment for such an education: An education that will lead men and women to seek after divine guidance; an education that will mirror Jesus Christ in our lives; an education that will radiate happiness to all with whom we come in contact.

If these traits of character have been developed within you during your stay here at Madison, then when you leave this college you will by such characteristics attract others by the life you live. You will be a living sermon—a sermon you will preach every day of your life. You will be carrying out the commission given us by our Saviour—"Go ye. . ."

Let us turn to Him in our preparation for service in His vineyard. Shall we not come out of the world so that the world may see Jesus in us? It is only by this method that we educate for the kingdom of heaven. This is the education Madison College is seeking to instill in each of you.

It is through Jesus that every excellence may be developed. It is through Him that every deficiency of character is supplied. Let each of us determine to overcome all deficiency in our lives, to excel through Jesus our Saviour.

My Guide

By Blanche Palmer

Across the threshold of the day I walked,
And with my dearest Friend and Guide I talked.
I thanked Him for protection through the night
And for the blessed gifts of sound and sight.
I put my hand in His and heard Him say,
"Walk gently, child; I'll guide you all the day.
The path ahead you cannot see; I can.
I know each detail, for I made the plan.
If you're uncertain, you shall hear My voice,
I'll point the way, but you must make the choice.
You're frail, my child, but oh, I love you so!
And what you need to do I'll let you know."

And so we walked together all the day.
My Lord was right—I did not know the way.
The road was rough; the hills were hard to climb.
The day was short; there was too little time;
But oh—the flowers were sweet; the birds were glad;
The hills with living green were gaily clad.
The little brooklet sang a lovely song,
And though my feet were weary, I was strong.
And when the day was ended I well knew
I wished to walk with Him my journey through.

MY DAILY PRAYER

Help me to live, dear Saviour,
A life before all men
That will to Thee give honor.
Thy cause and truth defend.
Help me to live a clean life,
A life above all sin,
That men beholding my life
May Thy salvation win.

Help me in all I do, Lord;
Thy grace I daily need;
Alone, I can but falter,
With Thee I will succeed.
Help me to choose the right, Lord,
In every word I say:
In all my recreations
Help me Thy will obey.

When Satan comes to tempt me,
Be near to hold my hand,
Nor let me enter thresholds
Where Christians should not stand.
Help me to be more kind, Lord,
To those with whom I live.
Help me to serve Thee better.
The world, Thy truth to give.

And when the work is done, Lord,
And Jesus comes again
To take His faithful children
That they with Him may reign.
May I be found among them,
And join the victor's song,
Ascribing praise and honor
To Thee, whom praise belongs.

"I AM A YOUTH"

I am a youth! Swift through these veins of clay
There surges youth's red blood afire, aflame!
Ablaze for God! To burn till that glad, better day
When every tongue shall bless His holy name.

I am a youth! God's work demands my all;
The best I own is not too much to give.
I dare not shrink! Man's need commands my all—
To labor on that sinners lost may live.

I am a youth! Deep in this youthful heart
There wells a love for Christ, my righteous King.
I am His own. I dare not dwell apart from Him who Makes my very soul to sing.

I am a youth! God calls me now to stand
In all my youthful vigor, zeal, and strength.
To Him I bring courageous hands, clear mind.
A will to follow Him to any length.

I am a youth! What glorious privilege mine—
To live, to toil, in God's triumphant hour!
I must not fail, nor trust in hopes supine,
When He would fill this youthful life with power.

I am a youth! God calls me to endure
While others round about me rock and reel.
I must be firm—yield not to sin's allure,
Nor turn youth's ear to worldly gain's appeal.

I am a youth! Stern trials lie in wait.
But come what may, I now resolve to see it through;
And though a thousand prisons be my fate,
This now I promise—by His help I will be true!
—Robert H. Pierson

A WINTER TOKEN

Joan Elaine Schmidt

He makes the earth so peaceful
On this cold and wintry night,
And in the darkest corner
He sends a beam of light.

God gives us strength and courage
And blessings from above,
He sends each tiny snowflake
As a token of HIS love.

I Love the Mountains

I love the mountains
With snowy peaks and canyons deep;
The air is chill, the night is still,
I reach to touch a star -

I love the mountains
With Winding trails and peaks to scale,
The rippling stream of which to dream,
The pine tree's dizzy height
Where weary birds may rest from flight.

I love the mountains
When God is near and bends His list'ning ear
To hear my bit of woe,
And bids me not to worry so,
For as I kneel in prayer I am enfolded in His care.

"THE CLASS OF EDUCATION GIVEN AT THE MADISON SCHOOL IS SUCH AS WILL BE ACCOUNTED A TREASURE OF GREAT VALUE BY THOSE WHO TAKE UP MISSIONARY WORK IN FOREIGN FIELDS. IF MANY MORE IN OTHER SCHOOLS WERE RECEIVING A SIMILAR TRAINING, WE AS A PEOPLE WOULD BE A SPECTACLE TO THE WORLD, TO ANGELS, AND TO MEN. THE MESSAGE WOULD BE QUICKLY CARRIED TO EVERY COUNTRY, AND SOULS NOW IN DARKNESS WOULD BE BROUGHT TO THE LIGHT."

My Heart Finds Rest

by Mark Bullock

It is in nature's loveliness I find
The things belonging to my peace of mind.
A woodland way invites my heart to share
The calm that brings forgetfulness of care.

A brooklet's murmur is a melody
That fondly brings a sweet content to me.
The gentle winds that whisper hold a charm
That stills my soul and drives away alarm.

It's comforting to look up at the sky
And watch the silver clouds drift slowly by.
On every hand the earth is kind to greet,
And every path is friendly to my feet.

There seems to cling a hallowed atmosphere
About the scenes of beauty far and near,
For with His own dear presence God has blest
These lovely ways that put my heart at rest.

DEDICATION

IN DEEP APPRECIATION of the faithful service as instructor of Bible and History, and for the tireless effort of leadership in the Academy Temperance Society, the student body wish to dedicate their portion of this annual to Mr. L. A. Watson.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

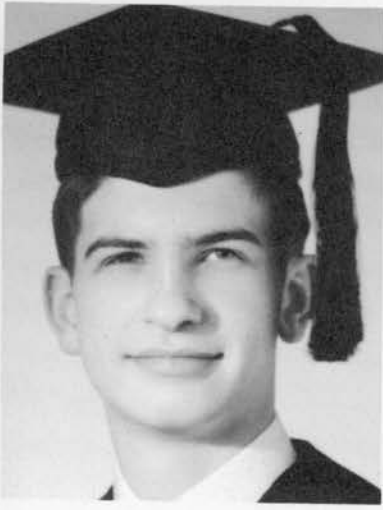

It is the privilege of the student of Christian education in our Madison Academy to awaken fully to the realization that God has given him a mind that is capable of the highest degree of cultivation and excellence. To be associated with Christian teachers and students in this awakening process, is a constant joy.

Your principal,

W. Warren Oakes

Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

This document may be protected by one or more United States or other nation's copyright laws. The copyright law of the United States allows, under certain conditions, for libraries and archives to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction to scholars for their private use. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research. This document's presence in digital format does not mean you have permission to publish, duplicate, or circulate it in any additional way. Any further use, beyond your own private scholarly use, is your responsibility, and must be in conformity to applicable laws. If you wish to reproduce or publish this document you will need to determine the copyright holder (usually the author or publisher, if any) and seek authorization from them. The Center for Adventist Research provides this document for your private scholarly use only.

Disclaimer on Physical Condition

By their very nature many older books and other text materials may not reproduce well for any number of reasons. These may include

- the binding being too tight thus impacting how well the text in the center of the page may be read,
- the text may not be totally straight,
- the printing may not be as sharp and crisp as we are used to today,
- the margins of pages may be less consistent and smaller than typical today.

This book or other text material may be subject to these or other limitations. We are sorry if the digitized result is less than excellent. We are doing the best we can, and trust you will still be able to read the text enough to aid your research. Note that the digitized items are rendered in black and white to reduce the file size. If you would like to see the full color/grayscale images, please contact the Center.
