Our Pledge To Service

*I'll go where you want me to go,
Dear Lord,*

*Over mountains,
or plains, or sea,*

I'll say what

you want me to say,

Dear Lord.

*I'll be what you want me
to be.*

60th

Anniversary

This year the Cumberland Echoes has tried to capture the kaleidoscope of memories of your life at Madison College in 1964 – an experience you have made which we hope has enriched you and made you a better person.

Many will go out from Madison to various fields of service – the missionfield, the homeland, self-supporting work, private enterprise – but all, we hope, in the Lord's service.

We are praying that He will

TEACH US
LEAD US
SEND US
BLESS US
USE US

as we fulfill our theme of service, going where He wants us to go.

*Your Cumberland
Echoes

60 Years of Service

A few of the early pioneers

We are proud of the heritage that is Madison's. Our hearts thrill of stories of Dr. Sutherland, Bessie DeGraw, Mother Druillard, P. T. Magan, and others — founders of our school.

They were not static, but men and women of vision, purpose, and with goals, ever pressing on to new heights, blazing trails in the frontiers of education.

We are proud of our faculty this year for they too are stalwart leaders and dedicated instructors who have within their breasts this same spirit.

May we, the ones who will take the torch, keep this vision undimmed, the light burning in the days to come serving our fellowmen whether here at home or in missions abroad.

MRS. E. A. SUTHERLAND (BESSIE DEGRAW)

MRS. E. G. WHITE

DR. E. A. SUTHERLAND

MOTHER "D"

Our School Song

O Madison, we hail thee here
For ideals that will stand,
We hail the school of friendship dear
Beside the Cumberland.

We'll hold the light and keep it bright
as did the pioneers;
Their vision we will keep undimmed
Through-out the coming years.

REFRAIN:
O Madison, by heaven blessed
Lift up the torch, be true,
And shine thy light until the right
Conquers the world anew.

DEDICATION

The Associated Students of Madison College dedicate our 1964 YEAR BOOK to truly a great man! One who is dedicated to the service of God and man, but during this year particularly to the students of Madison College.

He has worked with the same zeal and spirit as did the early pioneers. He has toiled both night and day to keep the light burning and the vision bright.

Thank you, President Beckner, for standing by us even when the road was rough. We salute you - yes, we honor you - in the only way we can.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

GOD'S MIGHTY CHALLENGE TO YOU

God's challenge to the students, graduates, and faculty of Madison College is found in Mark 16:15 and Matthew 28:20: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel" (make disciples or Christians); "And, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

This challenge is given to every Christian, and one's individual eternal destiny will be determined by the way he relates himself to the commission that Jesus has given to each of His followers.

As you face the untried future with all its possibilities, you must do so with faith and courage, knowing that "All things work together for good." The Bible admonition, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," tells us that we cannot think in terms of failure, and then succeed - in terms of weakness, and then be strong - in terms of fear, and then be courageous - in terms of doubt, and then have faith.

"We are to cooperate with One who knows no failure." (C.O.L. 363) "When God opens the way for the accomplishment of a certain work and gives assurance of success, the chosen instrumentality must do all in his power to bring about the promised result. In proportion to the enthusiasm and perseverance with which the work is carried forward will be the success given." (P.P. 263) It will be to your eternal welfare to cooperate with Christ, and then success will be yours.

Regardless of what happens to you in this life, the difficulties or problems that confront you, the situations that develop, or wherever or whatever your lot may be, God has made full provision to meet every need. "When real trouble comes, God will fit every meek and lowly one to bear it. When His providence permits it to come, HE WILL PROVIDE HELP TO ENDURE IT." (Testimonies, Vol. 2, p. 641)

If this counsel is followed, you will be assured of God's divine approval now, and a place with the redeemed of all ages in the hereafter.

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly:

To pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Foreword

Each school year is a step in the ladder of life. The victories achieved, the rewards gained are enhanced by the bonus of memories. It is hoped that in the future as you review this year at Madison Academy you will once again share the happy friendships, joyous occasions, the hustle and bustle of classes and work, and the inspiration of sacred hours.

Dedication

BECAUSE you have manifested a spirit of helpfulness to us,
BECAUSE you have made our interest your interest,
BECAUSE you have opened to us a fuller understanding of Science,
BECAUSE you have shown courage and enthusiasm in your day to day teaching, we, the ACADEMY STAFF dedicate this annual to you.

I have enjoyed my association with the students, parents and teachers this past year. Working together we have had a good school and can look back without regrets. Now we must look to the future.

Students, never be satisfied with a low standard. Strive always to improve. Search for knowledge as for great treasure. Keep uppermost a noble, holy object that you may be well fitted to serve your God and your fellow men.

Disclaimer on Physical Condition

By their very nature many older books and other text materials may not reproduce well for any number of reasons. These may include

- the binding being too tight thus impacting how well the text in the center of the page may be read,
- the text may not be totally straight,
- the printing may not be as sharp and crisp as we are used to today,
- the margins of pages may be less consistent and smaller than typical today.

This book or other text material may be subject to these or other limitations. We are sorry if the digitized result is less than excellent. We are doing the best we can, and trust you will still be able to read the text enough to aid your research. Note that the digitized items are rendered in black and white to reduce the file size. If you would like to see the full color/grayscale images, please contact the Center.
