30 Academy Seniors Receive Diplomas

Board Discloses Plan for Million-Dollar Hospital Expansion

The Board of Directors of Madison College and Sanitarium and Hospital have voted unanimously to construct a new hospital building at an approximate cost of one million dollars. This is to be the first unit of a proposed long-range program envisioning the renewal of older facilities as they become obsolete.

It is proposed to build a three-story building embodying the latest developments in hospital architecture. The first floor will house a modern Physiotherapy Department, the waiting and entrance lobby, all of the administrative and business offices, medical records office and library, and possibly the X-ray Department. The second floor will provide beds and necessary facilities to care for fifty surgical patients. The third floor will house the surgical suite comprising four major operating rooms, minor operating rooms, recovery room, sterilizing and central supply rooms, and all the attendant services to make the surgical floor complete. A complete kitchen and food service will also be housed next to the Physiotherapy Department, but on a lower level in harmony with the contour of the ground.

Madison Sanitarium and Hospital has met and cared for the medical needs of the surrounding community for more than fifty years, offering surgical, medical, obstetrical, pediatric, geriatric, sanitarium, and psychiatric care.

Now that growing industry in this area has made the demands greater than the present 211-bed hospital can care for, the planned enlarging of the institution is a necessity.

The Madison Chamber of Commerce has established a hospital committee, which has indicated to the board of Madison Sanitarium and Hospital that it will be one hundred percent behind the task. According to the Chamber of Commerce, the entire community wants Madison Sanitarium and Hospital to construct this new building.

To show that this community cannot get along without a hospital, the following statistics were presented at a recent Chamber of Commerce meeting, showing the patronage at Madison Sanitarium and Hospital for the last five years:

Hospital admissions	33,787
Emergencies cared for (4 yrs)	10,887
Major surgical cases	4,424
Minor surgical cases	8,881
X-rays taken	39,430
Laboratory tests made	291,697
Physical therapy treatments	117,194

Fine Arts Exhibition Shows Student Work

The first joint fine arts exhibition sponsored by the ceramics, upholstery, and still-life drawing classes was held in the Nutrition Laboratory building from May 31 to June 2. The exhibit displayed the work done by the ceramics students of Mrs. Betty Harter, the upholstery class of Mrs. Felix A. Lorenz, and the drawing class of Mr. Victorio Rivera.

Ceramics students Mary Peek and Joyce Bowe displayed a lovely set of dishes. Mr. Morris's display was outstanding. The Morrises have purchased a kiln in which they fire their own pieces at home. According to spectators, Margaret Dixon's lion, which she fashioned by hand, looks like "Little Tyke."

The upholstery class, which exhibited renewed pieces of furniture, wishes it could show pictures of the pieces of furniture "before and after." The work showed a high degree of skill.

Mr. Rivera's class in still-life drawing exhibited black and white drawings. In this class the students are trained to interpret forms by means of measurements and proportion. They are taught to simplify Thirty academy seniors received their diplomas at the annual commencement of Madison College Academy held in Helen Funk Assembly Hall on Saturday night, June 6.

Elder Charles Edwards, pastor of the Memphis Seventh-day Adventist church, delivered the address, and Principal L. L. Dickman presented the diplomas.

Sophomores Present Fifty-star Flag

A nylon 50-star American flag will fly from the college flagpole by July 4, thanks to the Sophomore Class of 1959.

In a recent chapel period Sophomore President Bob McBride and Treasurer Bob Kurzynske presented Dean Byers with a check for $18.00 to pay for the flag, the class gift to the school.

Speaking for the sophomores, Bob McBride said during the presentation: "The Sophomore Class members are happy to give this flag to the college. Each day as Old Glory is unfurled on the campus, this flag will be a pleasant reminder of our loyalty to our school and our country."

Be Glad for Work

Most of us have come to Madison College because of the work opportunities it offers. Hence it may be easy to consider our work only a means for obtaining our education from books. Yet we know that a well-rounded education includes a knowledge of how to work with one's hands. We are told:

"All should go forth from the schools with educated efficiency, so that when thrown upon their own resources, they would have a knowledge they could use which is essential to practical life." Fundamentals of Christian Education, p. 228.

Here are a few maxims worth thinking about for those who wish to make their work experience a part of their education:

The human race is divided into two classes; those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit and inquire, "Why wasn't it done some other way?" Oliver Wendell Holmes

Some people are like wheelbarrows—they never go unless you push them.

Every man's work, whether it be literature or music or pictures or architecture, or anything else, is always a portrait of himself.—S. Butler

Let us not pray for a light burden, but rather for a strong back.

If you want to succeed in life, you must learn that you are not going to have your way all the time, and you must learn that things in life have to be paid for. Folly is the highest in price.

The darkest hour of any man's life is when he sits down to plan how to get money without earning it.—Horace Greeley

If you want to cross over to success, hard work is the best bridge.

One Year Ago

Five weddings took place at the close of school. (Two thus far. Write-ups in next paper.)

Twenty-five academy seniors received diplomas. Elder Charles Edwards delivered the address. (Thirty graduated this year; Elder Edwards again gave the address.)

The DuPont Company gave $20,000 for the renovation of hospital rooms. (Six of the rooms are finished and others in the process.)

Petra Sukau, Class of '58, under appointment to Burma, was preparing to take a year's graduate course in Midwifery at Johns Hopkins. (She finishes next month and will visit Madison before sailing in July.)

Plans to take out the road in front of Williams Hall were announced. (Road is out, new walk is in, and landscaping is being completed.)

The TOT Club presented a mission map showing location of former students and teachers in mission fields. (This year the club presented the school with an oil painting of President Sandborn.)

Alumni News

Jesus and Opal (Lawry) Vega and three children bring greetings from former Madisonites at the Bella Vista Hospital, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. Jesus, Class of '54, who has headed the Laboratory and X-ray Departments at Bella Vista, is attending George Peabody College for Teachers, where he is working on his M.A. in Science. Since the Colegio Adventista in Mayaguez is soon to become a senior college, he is doing graduate work to qualify for teaching. He is an uncle of Rosa Ramos and is temporarily staying with the Ramoses. Following are some bits of news the Vegas have brought to us:

The Doctors Horsley: Dr. Ernie is now speaking Spanish. Of course Dr. Margaret already knew the language.

The Schwabs: Both Bill (Class of '51) and Ruthe (completing affiliation for graduation, Class of '59) Schwab are on the Bella Vista staff as anesthetists.

The Barons: Gerardo, Class of '56, is employed at the hospital. He has also done some teaching in the college. Inez, Class of '51, has been dietitian at the hospital ever since the Barons went to Puerto Rico in 1956.

Louis and Evelyn (Moore) Meyer and baby were campus visitors over academy graduation weekend. Louis, Class of '58, is a lab technician in a Marietta, Georgia, hospital, and Evelyn, Class of '57, is nursing.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy R. Bowes and family attended the 1959 graduation at the College of Medical Evangelists, at Loma Linda, at which time Dr. Bowes received his master's degree in surgery. Dr. Bowes finished his pre-medical course at Madison College, and Mrs. Bowes received her B.S. in Elementary Education in 1957.

Up And Down The Campus

The bright green campus finds this month of June full of new friends and old. . . . Lawn mowing takes on a brighter outlook for Verle Sosson, grounds superintendent, with the assistance of his son, Norman, here from a year at Walla Walla College. Norman will also assist Mr. Zeigler in the Science Department. . . . If you see two happy sisters walking together, it is Pat Adkins and her older sister, Mrs. Mary Jane Morgan, being "probies" together. They are due to be capped in July along with 18 other young ladies and 5 young men. Congratulations! . . . Friends are sorry to hear of the water skiing accident that broke Alice Martin's hip. Her parents, the Ralph Martins, are in the process of moving to Michigan. . . . A welcome back to the campus is given to Albert and Pansy (Barton) Parker. Albert plans a pre-dental course and Pansy will resume her elementary education studies. She reports that her mother is in better health. . . . Pat Silver, busy with summer school at Peabody, is "drumming" up players for the summer band. Her niece, Darla Mitzelfelt, attended the Spring Band Concert, May 30, when ten days old. Although Darla's mother, Carole, beat the drum, and her dad, Richard, played the clarinet, her Aunt Sylvia the alto horn, her Grandmother Mitzelfelt the tympani, her Grandfather Mitzelfelt the trombone, and her Great-grandfather Straw the baritone horn, Darla slept through all the "pretty" noise.

New Arrivals

Darla DeEtte Mitzelfelt, born May 20, weight 5 pounds, 14½ ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mitzelfelt.

Kathy Dianne Werner, born June 8, weight 7 pounds, 9 ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Werner.

Felicia Lynn Fragola, born June 9, weight 7 pounds, 13 ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Vito Fragola.

Choir Presents "A Choral Vespers"

The Madison College Choir, conducted by Professor F. R. Cossentine, presented the reverent and worshipful program, "A Choral Vespers," on Friday evening, May 29, in Helen Funk Assembly Hall.

With Mr. Norman Gulley, of the History and Bible Department, serving as narrator and Mr. George Walper as organist and accompanist, the program was based on the selections used by the choir on its many tours throughout the mid-South.

Outstanding selections performed by the choir included such compositions as Christiansen's "Lost in the Night," Shaw's "With a Voice of Singing," Bairstow's "Save Us, O Lord," and Ringwald's arrangement of "This Is My Father's World." Soloists with the choir included Mary Lou Sul-lins, Laura Mae Slattery, and Ruby Seibert. Mrs. Silver played Cesar Franck's "O Lord Most Holy" as a cornet solo.

In use by the choir for the first time on the campus were the new folding risers, designed and created by Eddie Zollinger.

1960 Music Festival To Be in Orlando

The 1960 academy music festival is well on the way to becoming a reality. So report Mrs. Betty Harter, choir director, and Mrs. Bob W. Silver, band director, who attended a meeting of the festival's planning committee on May 25 at Southern Missionary College.

Next year's festival is to be held at Forest Lake Academy, Orlando, Florida. It is planned for early spring in order to avoid the last-minute rush of the closing days of school. Academy musicians who attend will have a week's trip to the land of sunshine, oranges, and surf. Already expectations are running high in anticipation of this big event.

Since only 20 members will be chosen to represent Madison College Academy at the festival, the directors state that competition will be keen when it comes to deciding who will be the lucky ones to go.

fy all existing matter to its basic form, such as cube, sphere, cylinder, and cone. Among the 12 members of the class was a talented church school pupil, Mary Morris, daughter of Professor Morris. The more advanced students in the class were Alfred Fujita, Mrs. Paul Taylor, Mrs. Shirley Tucker, Betty Umali, and Mrs. Ayler Rodriguez.

Mr. Rivera, a top artist, graduated with a B.S. degree in fine arts from the University of the Philippines. After his graduation he became staff artist in the psychological warfare department in the office of defense and also in

Nature Club Holds Annual Outing at Fall Creek Falls

The Nature Club held its annual outing at Fall Creek Falls from Thursday till Sunday, June 4-7. Twenty students, Richard Rimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler, and Mr. and Mrs. Barham composed the group.

Hiking, swimming, going on bird walks, wading in the river, crossing the swinging bridges, and sun bathing were some of the activities enjoyed by the group. According to everyone, the highlight of the trip was the hike down around the Loop from Fall Creek Falls back to Caney Creek Falls.

Sabbath school and church were held in the out-of-doors. Fay Eller provided instrumental accompaniment on her flute for the singing. David Martin furnished special music on his trumpet. For the church service the entire group participated in a testimony and praise meeting, in which each one told of spiritual lessons gained from contacts with nature.

Saturday night around the campfire all became better acquainted by telling how they had become Adventists or how the Lord had led them in the past. A hike in the starlight down to the higher part of Caney Creek Falls ended the activities for the evening.

Each morning and evening taps and reveille were played by David Martin on his trumpet.

Plenty of flapjacks, beans, potato salad, and honey were enjoyed at mealtime.

The fun ended about two o'clock on Sunday as the sunburned, tired group pulled up tent stakes and headed back for Madison.

Following are a few of the many memories of the weekend:

The pouring rain on Friday afternoon that came through the leaky tents and soaked the bedding.

The giant pancakes that Fay Eller flipped without a turner.

Allen Kneller's spill when he skinned his chin as he went down the cable to the bottom of the canyon.

The time Mr. Zeigler lost his shoes in the river as he was hiking in the canyon and had to walk barefoot back to camp.

—Ruby Seibert

Spring Band Concert Is Well Received

Playing the familiar strains of Panella's "On the Square" march, the Madison College Band, under the direction of Patricia Mitzelfelt Silver, opened its spring concert on Saturday night, May 30, in Helen Funk Assembly Hall.

While the program featured several instrumental (cornet, clarinet and saxophone) trios and a variety of solos, including a vocal solo, "Bless This House," sung by Laura Mae Slattery with band accompaniment, the 20 members of the Junior Band seemed to steal the show with their renditions of such numbers as "Marines' Hymn," "Merry Widow Waltz," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Red River Valley," and "Band Boys March."

Some of the numbers performed by the college band were Buchtel's "Traveler Overture," Piernie's "March of the Little Lead Soldiers," Serradel's "La Golandrina," Thomas's "King Arthur," and Johnson's "Icarus." Marches included "Our Director," by Bigelow, "U.S. Air Force March," by Crawford, and the popular "Mister Touchdown, U.S.A." Over $30 was collected towards the purchase of a new bass drum.

Mrs. Silver states that a summer band will be organized and that interested would-be members should contact her at the beginning of the summer quarter.

Missionary Letters Heard in MV Meeting

At the last MV program of the spring quarter five faculty members read letters received by Mrs. Simmons from Madison students or teachers now serving in the mission field.

Mrs. Simmons, who was in charge of the program, had previously written to the missionary families, asking for letters in return to be read at this MV meeting.

Those who sent letters, the countries where they are working, and the faculty members who read the letters are listed as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins, Africa, Mrs. Temples

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Comstock, Mexico, Miss Virginia Davidson

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibbons, South America, Mrs. Thomson

Mr. and Mrs. Althea Turnbull, Africa, Mrs. Stearns

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Williams, Iraq, Miss Cowdrick

Each letter was different, but all were vivid in descriptions of their work and conditions existing in the countries where they are working.

Other faculty members who participated in the program were Mr. and Mrs. George Thornton, who played a clarinet and violin duet, Mr. Harold Keplinger, who, accompanied by his daughter Linda, sang a solo, Mrs. Betty Harter, who played organ music, and Miss Florence Felleme and Mrs. H. E. Mitzelfelt, who sang a duet. A guest soloist was Mr. Norman Davidson, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin, who sang "The Love of God" for the vesper meditation number.

An offering of $31 was given by those present and this will be sent to the missionaries who wrote the letters. Any who wish to contribute to this fund may do so by contacting Mrs. Simmons or her office secretary, Extension 232.

Cafeteria Project Is Well Under Way; Ceiling Completed

A visit to the college cafeteria shows that the ASMC project is well under way. The attractive fluorescent lights and acoustical tile ceiling have been put in place and the center wall has been completely paneled.

Painting, paneling, and trimming are the big jobs yet to be done to improve the appearance of the student center, which will be separated with folding doors from the remainder of the cafeteria.

The asphalt tiled floors, folding door, and furniture will be left for students to strive for next school year. This will not necessarily be a student body project, but will be only if the students vote to finish what they have started.

It is estimated that $1850.00 was raised of the goal of $2000.00 which was set at the beginning of this student project.

Ed and Beecher Zollinger, John Dovich, and Mr. Cossentine have spent almost full time working on this project to make it a success. Thanks is due them. They urge that the students come and put in a few hours of work on their project.

the public relations department. He was also staff artist for the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization during a series of conferences in the Philippines. He has painted the portrait of the president of the Philippines and is now painting the family portrait of the Consul from the Philippines, in New Orleans. He has won several awards on different occasions.

Mr. Rivera is a medical technology student here and is also teaching art.

Elementary Education News

TOT's Present Gift to Sponsor

Members of the Teachers of Tomorrow Club presented Mrs. Simmons, their sponsor, with a beautiful piece of luggage, in appreciation for her guidance and direction in the activities of the club during her stay at Madison.

The presentation was made in chapel on June 1 by Pedro Ramos, club president, and Mr. Homer Lynd, of the Education Department.

Not only are the Teachers of Tomorrow aware of the important place Mrs. Simmons has filled during her four years here at Madison College, but all who know her, especially the many students who have been fortunate enough to be in her classes, value her instruction and have been influenced by her inspirational life.

As one has expressed himself: "Although she leaves us at the close of the summer, her work and her influence in our lives will live on."

Teaching Appointments

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barham have accepted positions at Wytheville, Virginia. A new 12-grade academy is being started, and Alvin will be teaching in this self-supporting school, which is being named Echo Valley Academy. His wife Ramona will join the Wytheville Sanitarium and Hospital staff on the same campus.

Kay Eller is to be the elementary teacher at Pine Forest Academy next school year. Glenn Ferguson, who had previously accepted the position, will be remaining at Madison College to complete his degree.

Fatherland Campaign Sees Two Baptisms

The youth campaign under God's direction has been able to contribute to two baptisms which took place at the College Church on Sabbath, May 30. Mr. Shirtzinger, the first candidate, was contacted through the "It Is Written" work by Mary Alice Mathis, and was brought to the meetings. He was already under conviction concerning the Sabbath, and accepted the rest of the message as it was presented both in the Fatherland and War Memorial meetings. It was this personal contact of a student which proved to be the most important link in the chain which led to the baptism. Mrs. Jones, the other candidate, was baptized as a result of the personal work of her newly-wed husband and friends.

Four others have accepted the Sabbath and have joined the baptismal class. There are also three other families in whose homes Bible studies are being conducted.

Plans are afoot to have another campaign this summer. Twenty-six students are enrolled in the Evangelism class which begins June 28. Let's all pray that the interests from the spring meetings may be brought to fruition.

Academy Choir Sings

The Academy Choir, directed by Betty Harter, presented a program of sacred music at the Madison Boulevard Church on Sabbath, May 30. As a part of the church service the choir sang such selections as "Jacob's Ladder," "Go to Dark Gethsemane," "Be Thou Not Still," and "Go Not Far From Me."
