California Chapter Meets Feb. 22

By Dorothy Bowes, Secretary

A small but enthusiastic group of Madisonites gathered at Clifton's Cafeteria in West Covina, Saturday night, February 22. It was felt that the California storms were responsible for keeping many people at home.

After dinner, each person introduced himself and related a personal experience (pertaining to his introduction to Madison, or an experience encountered while attending), or told about the influence that Madison had on his life.

In the business meeting which followed, time was devoted to discussion of ways and means to reactivate a larger response to Madison events. It was voted to (1) reactivate personal notices, if possible; (2) appoint persons in various localities and age groups to alert their classmates and Madisonites in their respective areas as to events; (3) as the financial project for the year to build up the alumni "kitty" to promote publicity; (4) to have a potluck dinner Sabbath, July 19, at La Sierra Park, and a dinner the third Saturday night in February of next year (location to be announced later).

Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowes were re-elected officers of the chapter for the coming year. After the business meeting, the guests enjoyed socializing and reminiscing with each other.

M.C.A.A. Committee Actions

1969 Homecoming Date Set, June 20, 21

At a meeting of the alumni executive committee on Feb. 10, 1969, the date and speakers for 1969 Homecoming was discussed. June 20, 21 has been decided on, so keep this date in mind, and plan to be with us. Classes of 25 years ago, 30 years ago, and all classes of 40 or more years ago will be honor classes. (1944, 1959, 1929 and before). Commander Robert Mole, distinguished Adventist Navy chaplain, of the class of '44, will be one of the speakers. Terry Brown '58 will report on his tour of duty in Biafra; and the Bowens will tell of their trip to Africa.

It is hoped that the new gymnasium will be usable by Homecoming time so we may have our meetings there, thus insuring a cooler, more comfortable place to assemble than last year. Please write us if you plan to attend, and we will try to arrange lodging.

In other actions of the committee, additional help was voted for the alumni office. Dorothy Mathews was asked to act as an additional assistant secretary; and William Campbell to give assistance in the treasurer's work for a few months.

Madison Hospital News

- New personnel at Madison Hospital include John Milton, public relations director; Ronald McKnight, formerly of Kettering, personnel director; Everett Coolidge of Greeneville, Tenn., purchasing agent; Carl E. Greenhill of Albuquerque, N. Mexico, controller; and Volney D. Dortch of Lancaster, Calif., assistant administrator. Mrs. Phyllis Ballew of Laguna Beach, Calif., is the new director of Volunteers at Madison Hospital. Both she and her husband, Dan, served as convalescent home administrators in California.

- Fifteen young women in the LPN course were capped, and one young man, Gary Foster, was presented with an insignia at Madison Hospital, Feb. 25, 1969. The exercise took place in Sutherland Memorial Chapel. The program is carried on at several places in Nashville, and Madison is one of the participating hospitals. Miss Martha Ray, coordinator of Health Occupations of Davidson County, was the chief speaker. Mrs. Thelma Pitt ('57) is the instructor.

Campus News

The Southern Accent (2/13/69), student paper of SMC, reports that SMC is the fastest growing S.D.A. college in the U.S. It has experienced the smallest loss and the largest gain compared with other SDA colleges during the school year of 1968-1969.

The same issue of Southern Accent shows a picture of 57 Associate of Science students of nursing enrolled in the two-year nursing course at SMC; and 27 students enrolled in the 4-year baccalaureate program. The A. D. students will be coming to Madison campus for their second year.

Janice Keller, of Pembroke, Ky., A.D. nursing student on the Madison campus, won the title, "Student Nurse of the Year" for district three in the T.A.S.N. for 1969. Eight nursing schools in Nashville comprise district three.

Joy Hemberger, another A. D. student on the Madison campus, is president of district three.

POTOMAC CHAPTER TO MEET APRIL 12

The Potomac Chapter in the D.C. area planned to meet on Saturday night, April 12, when the cherry blossoms are in season. It will be a potluck supper at six at Takoma Recreation Center. Write or call Homer Lynd, public relations director of the chapter, at C.U.C.

Bowens Visit Africa

Bernard and Dollie Bowen took off on another globe-trotting tour December 1, this time to Africa, and were gone six weeks. In their Christmas letter to friends, they give an account of their trip. They spent two days in Zurich, Switzerland, and from there to Nairobi, Kenya, in Africa, where they visited Eddie and Lydia Barton, both graduates of Madison College. Eddie is teaching in the Maxwell school and flying a little on the side. Lydia operates a clinic in the edge of the city.

At Salisbury, Rhodesia, the Bowens joined Elder Clyde Franz of the General Conference, and traveled with him until December 29. Later they joined Elder Theodore Carcich.

Highlights of their trip included Victoria Falls and the monument to David Livingstone, which stood at the head of the falls; the college at Rusangu, with its enrollment of about eight hundred; Yuka Hospital in Western Zambia, where a leper colony is located; Capetown, where they visited our publishing house; Helderberg College; and Maluti Hospital in South Africa.

Christmas was spent at Solusi College, near Bulawayo, Rhodesia, our oldest denominational mission station. The day after, they visited the grave of Cecil Rhodes, and a game park, seeing all the large animals except elephants. After a weekend at Malamulo Hospital and School, where they visited the leper colony and lunched with Elder and Mrs. P. J. Salhany, formerly of Tennessee, they headed for Ethiopia. At Addis Ababa they had the opportunity of seeing Emperor Haile Selassie lay the corner stone for a new hospital.

Concluding the report in their Christmas letter, the Bowens announced the marriage of their daughter, Rita, to Jerry Walker on April 26, 1968, in Pell City, Alabama.

Medical Workshop

(Concluded from Self-Supporting Convention)

On Sunday morning at the self-supporting convention at Madison, Nov. 16, 1968, Charles Martin, Jr., from the Tennessee Hospital Association, spoke on ten areas of concern in health services. He said some factors in employer-worker relationships are more important than salary. In the scale of ten things workers want, wages fell to No. 7. They want recognition, job security, opportunity for advancement, good working conditions, appreciation, and chance for advancement, above money.

He also discussed the growth of labor union activity, and how organizers will come in; comprehensive area wide health planning to avoid overlapping of services; good accounting and bookkeeping records; public and personal liability and malpractice insurance; and licensing of nursing home administrators.

"Sutherland in the Southland" Series

We were so intrigued with the series of articles in the Journal of Adventist Education which appeared in early 1968 that we inquired of Zella J. Holbert how she came to write them. Mrs. Holbert is director of College Relations at CUC. This is part of her interesting reply.

"I had an assignment in one of my Maryland University classes to write on some noted educator. I mentioned this to Dr. Winton Beaven, and he said, 'Why don't you write about Dr. Sutherland?' This I did . . . After extensive research I prepared the materials you read in the three issues of the Journal of Adventist Education.

"I am so happy I had this experience. It gives me a much better understanding of our early education program and of our self-supporting institutions. I agree with you that there should be some school on the college level to train self-supporting missionary laymen. It was my privilege to visit Little Creek in March. How we need more schools like Little Creek! If Madison could be revived to continue its early program, what a blessing it would be!"

"Preparation for the Latter Rain"

This is a 32-page compilation from the Spirit of Prophecy, prepared by Elder B. E. Wagner. At Madison, Elder Wagner took the one-year nursing course, 1912-13, and had charge of the bakery and men's hydro. For many years he was associate secretary of the General Conference Publishing Department. He and his wife are now retired in Loma Linda. Elder Wagner is selling his brochure at just about cost: 25c single copy; 8 copies, $1.00. It has had the approval of our leaders and has been widely distributed. Order from him at 24978 Lawton Ave., Loma Linda, Calif., 92354.

• Central Heat Converted. After students and workers shoveled mountains of coal in the winter to keep people warm through the year, Central Heat no longer uses coal, and has converted to gas and oil exclusively. Heat is furnished to both the hospital and school.

• Remember the date for Homecoming June 20, 21.

Amy F. Weagle writes from Florida Living: retirement home, Forest City, Fla.: "I spent seven months at Madison and graduated from Nashville General in 1925, then spent three and a half years at Pisgah. I had the honor of helping start the first practical nurses training in our denomination, so you see a little of Madison rubbed off on me . . . For twenty years I ran a nursing home. When I closed, I was licensed for thirty-four patients. I have had about everything in the book since—hemorrhages from stomach ulcers, three transfusions, two broken hips, and heart surgery . . . and am now wearing a pacemaker. Presently I am retired in a three-room apartment and am able to do all my own work and wait on myself."

1928

Alice Hecox Dignan wrote from Ypsilanti, Mich., that she is still employed as a nurse at Eastern Michigan University. She was sorry she had not sent dues sooner, but said they were very busy. The three nurses in her department saw 150 to 190 students a day. The Dignans have three children.

Zoetta Nichols Hauser (N'28) has joined the Yerba Buena Hospital staff in Chiapas, Mexico.

Carolyn A. Port (N '29) leads a very busy life in Morganton, N.C. She writes that she often keeps her adopted daughter's children, cares for a woman who has Parkinson's disease, counsels a number of people who come to her on diet and health problems, and gives some treatments. She is also giving four to eight Bible studies a week, teaching an early teen class, helping in primary Sabbath School, tending bees, and doing gardening. She says: "So, although I am not actively nursing in an institution, I still may serve the suffering in simple ways . . . May we all be faithful and hasten the glad day of the great reunion in heaven."

1933

Vivian (Taylor) Hopp (N '33) is a consulting nurse in Stockton State Hospital, California.

1936

Alice Faudi Cross (N '36) sends her dues from Waco, Texas, and thanks us for the SURVEY. "I enjoy reading every word of it," she says. She has one daughter, Mrs. J. D. West. Alice had three brothers who graduated from Madison—Philip Faudi ('38) of Portland, Maine; Marvin ('36), Waco, Texas; and Otto ('41) of Murfreesboro.

1936

Louella Doub (BS '36) excels in hydrotherapy, nutrition, and natural means of healing. For a number of years she operated the Atlanta Battle Creek Treatment Rooms. In July, 1968, she connected with a group of doctors in Fresno, Calif., where she selected and supervised the installation of proper hydrotherapy equipment for a new building. The new clinic building, containing treatment rooms and doctors offices, was opened a year later. Mrs.

Doub has written a textbook to use training hydrotherapists.

Mrs. Doub's grandson, Arthur Berard (X-ray '64) is finishing his premedical at U.T. in Memphis.

Dr. James Van Blaricum (premed '37) is in the practice of medicine and surgery at Winchester, Tenn. He and his wife, Simone, have seven children. According to the Alumni Journal of LLU, Dr. Van Blaricum spent four weeks as relief physician at Davis Memorial Hospital, Georgetown, Guiana, last year.

On her Christmas card to Mrs. E. R. Moore, Viola Carleton wrote: "We are busy here at Hinsdale, and beds are at a premium. Vesta Piper Bishop (N '37) is still here and works part time. I see Irene Douglas Nygren (N '37) once in a great while. Her daughter, Shirley, works on O.B. twice a week."

Frances Lausten (N '38) became Mrs. Lewis John Thomas on January 26, 1969. The wedding took place in the SDA church in Knox, Indiana, where the couple are at home.

In a Christmas letter to Mrs. E. R. Moore from the Henry Knapps, Pauline (Burke) Knapp (N '41) wrote that in June she entered the hospital and was diagnosed as with a diaphragmatic hernia. She underwent surgery and was off work for over two months. In July the family vacationed in Texas. Son David is in the fifth grade, and Shirley in the tenth. "On January 4, Elder Stanley Harris will be starting evangelistic meetings in downtown San Diego."

Doris Smith Bain (N '41) wrote Mrs. E. R. Moore on her Christmas card from Los Angeles: "I'm still working on surgical, nights. My youngster is in the sixth grade and is an active Pathfinder. I run into a Madisonite every now and then. We might have been a little 'corny' but our nurses are looked up to and know how to get up and move something besides a pencil."

Dr. Charles E. Michaelis has moved to Hinsdale, Ill., where he is in the practice of anesthesiology at the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital. His residency in anesthesiology was taken at the White Memorial Medical Center, Los Angeles.

Dr. Bryan A. Michaelis, brother of Charles, is in solo practice at Fredericktown, Mo. His wife (Myrtrude Pierce) is an R.N. and works in his office. She and her brother, Charles Pierce, head of the Music Department at CUC, were both students at Madison. They grew up at Pisgah in North Carolina.

Elder E. L. Marley '42 is now president of the Iowa Conference, exchanging places with Elder Kimber Johnson, who is now president of Kentucky-Tennessee.

1943

Miriam Kerr and her mother are living in Madison while she is enrolled at Peabody, looking forward to receiving her Master's in Library Science.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Greenhill have recently connected with Madison Hospital, he as controller. Previously, Mr. Greenhill served in an administrative capacity in Washington, D.C., New England Memorial Hospital, and Memorial Hospital in Beeville, Texas. At each of these places Mrs. Greenhill, nee Mary Nell Proctor ('43) worked as a therapeutic dietitian, and she has now joined the dietary department at Madison Hospital. The Greenhills have a married daughter (Mrs. Linda Wilson) and a son, Edwin, who is a student at C.U.C.

Dorothy Medlin Kellogg (N '43) sent pictures to the E. R. Moores and news of her son Donald's wedding on June 16, 1968, at Walla Walla, to Linda Jo LeFore. The young couple are at LLU, where Don is following in his father's footsteps and taking dentistry. Dorothy also sent a picture of the Kellogg family in ski clothes. They all enjoy skiing. She expressed regret that they were unable to be present for Homecoming and visit her sister, Evelyn, and their mother, who lives in Madison.

Verle Hamel Brown (N '44) sends a donation for the SURVEY and writes from Egnar, Colo., that her husband, Harlan, has been working on a neighbor's farm for three years. He graduated from Madison in 1952 with a B.S. in Agriculture. The Browns have seven children.

Emogene McBride (H.Ec'46) writes from Dallas, Texas: "Mother and I enjoyed the homecoming at Madison this past summer. It was a special event for us. Forty years ago, in 1928, my mother and I left our home in Texas, with little money but with faith and hope to go to Madison. She was accepted in the nursing class in 1928 and graduated in 1931. In 1936 Mother took a course in anesthesia at Baylor University Hospital. From that time she has worked as an anesthetist in Dallas hospitals, and retired January, 1969.

"I graduated from Madison College in 1964, and majored in Home Ec. I taught school two years. In 1951 I began working in the accounting department for Sears, Roebuck and Co. I am still with Sears.

"Mother and I have received many blessings because Dr. Sutherland and others accepted her for nursing. We both will/always be grateful."

Mrs. K. P. McDonald (BS '47) writes from Loveland, Colo., that she is in her fourth year of teaching in the church school at Eden Valley Institute. Her husband and Dick Forrester and Joe Fields are also staff members at Eden Valley.

Gladys Cook Rabuka (BS '47) sent a copy of her Christmas letter. Her father, who lived near her and her husband, Mike, on a farm near Springfield, Mo., died Nov. 22, 1968, at the age of 94. The grandchildren all came to the funeral—Mickey, from Phoenix, where he is administrator of Doctors' Hospital; and Madeline, from Panorama City, Calif.; and Madeline, from Nashville. Mr. Rabuka was still teaching full time but plans to retire after fifteen years at Drury College, and wants to go back to British Columbia, Canada. Gladys is teaching grades 1-3 in the nearby church school, Oak Grove Heights.

From the Review and Herald (2/20/69) we learn that Terry Trivett, Ph.D., is assistant professor of biology at P.U.C. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. James Trivett, of Portland, Tenn. His wife, Karen, is an R.N. from Portland S-H, and an instructor at P.U.C. Terry took two years of college at Madison, and went on to S.M.C. for his B.S. His Ph.D. was earned at Oregon State College. The Trivetts' second son, James, took X-ray at Madison and is now an instructor and technician in X-ray at Madison Hospital.

Lucille Burgess Cline (BS, N'50) writes from Aspinwall, Pa.: "Both Ralph and I are working in Veterans Hospitals. He (Ralph) has worked for V.A. since 1951, and I since 1962. Ralph works in psychiatry, and I in neurology. We are always busy trying to keep up with our four sons. We have been in Pittsburgh a year and a half, and enjoy it here. Ralph feels like he is almost back home and plans to retire to our farm in Jersey Shore, Pa., about two years from now.

"Our oldest son, Ralph, was nine months old when we went to Madison in 1946. He graduated from A.U. in 1968, and married Donna Sue Wharton. Both Ralph and Donna are teaching in California this year. Eldon A. was born in 1950 at Madison. He is a freshman at C.U.C., with a music major in mind. Edward D. is a junior at Mt. Vernon Academy. Richard is in the fifth grade at Pittsburgh Junior Academy."

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Durichek '50 have connected with Hinsdale S-H, where he is in charge of the laundry, and she is teaching in the L.P.N. program. Formerly, they were at L.L.U., where he was in charge of the laundry and she was teaching Public Health Nursing.

Ralph P. Bailey (BS '50) writes: "Presently I am on an educational research assistantship with the University of Alabama, finishing a doctorate in educational administration and curriculum development. My wife, Dorothy, drives our son to Birmingham daily so he can attend church school. She attends Samford University while there. The Lord has been very gracious to us through the years since graduating from Madison. I have spent eighteen years in denominational work as principal, teacher, and pastor in the Southern and Lake Union Conferences. We are on leave from that work now.

"We are pleased to follow the whereabouts of friends through the eyes and ears of the SURVEY as they accomplish greater strides in the Lord's work. Educationally, we too are waiting for the junior college to be developed at Madison with prime emphasis on 2-year curricula and general development courses. The need appears especially great with the tremendous technological changes affecting education."

Annie Pearson Landreth (BS, N '51) writes from Caldwell, Idaho: "Lee W. Landreth and I were married in 1957, and I have been working at Caldwell Memorial Hospital since it opened in 1958, in the recovery room. We have been averaging around ten patients a day. Jean Pearson, my sister, who attended school there during the same time, is also an R.N., graduating from Paradise Valley S-H, National City, Calif. She is married to Ernest Fowke. They live at Hermiston, Ore. I was at National City with Jean about a year, then came back to Caldwell."

Doris Iles McClellan (N '51) and family have moved to Greeneville, Tenn., where her husband, John, is administrator of Takoma Hospital. Mr. McClellan has been assistant administrator at Madison Hospital since 1963.

Dorothy Fox (N '51) writes from Lawrenceburg, Tenn.: "For the past eighteen months I have been employed at the Maury County Hospital in Columbia, Tenn. My connection with Madison is that I not only graduated from nursing there, but I received all my education in Madison and its 'units,' except for two years at Collegedale.

"I recognize in the SURVEY names of students from the early thirties who came to Lawrenceburg as student nurses, or who came at the 'request' of Madison for a 'vacation.' It was a standard punishment in those days to be sent to a unit for a stay. I remember one boy who wrote 'Aunt Bessie' DeGraw to ask when he could return to Madison. Her reply was that Moses committed one sin and wandered in the wilderness for forty years. She'd let him know when he could return. . . . I am enclosing overdue dues, as I don't want to miss out on the SURVEY."

Kenneth Trussell (Ind. Arts '51) is presently assistant engineer at Paradise Valley S-H in National City, Calif. Prior to this he was employed as an electrician at Porter S-H in Denver and at WWC.

Velma Stewart Nixon (N '52) is director of nurses at the Georgian Villa nursing home, Douglasville, Ga., and husband, Loren (El. Ed. '56) is principal of the new Dog River Elementary School operated by the Villa.

Mr. and Mrs. Skip Devlin (1950-53) live in Jefferson, Texas. Skip is a builder, and his wife (the former Dalline Colvin) teaches piano at Jefferson Academy. The Devlins have four children. Dalline is a daughter of Dallas and Nora Colvin '31. Dalline writes that Charles and Edna Earl Myers (N '58) are also in Jefferson, where he teaches in the academy, and she nurses in a nearby hospital.

In her Christmas letter, Wilma Gill (BS, N '53) gives a glimpse of her activities of the past year. In June, Wilma's sister, Alberta, and family left Florida to work in the forty-bed Hays Memorial Hospital in San Marcos, Texas. In July, Wilma accepted a job in the same hospital, where she is operating room and O.B. supervisor and in charge of emergency room and central supply.

Albert K. Nielsen (BS '53) is the author of a meditation accepted for publication by The Upper Room (March, 1969), worldwide interdenominational devotional guide published in Nashville. Mr. Nielsen is a lab technician at Hardin County Hospital and also teaches English and math at Harbert Hills Academy. He writes that he has recently acquired a daughter-in-law (Susan Ward) by marriage to his son, Karl. His wife, Mabel, graduated from a two-year course at M.C. in 1954.

Mrs. John Williams '54 writes: "We bought a little house three miles below Punta Gorda, Fla. John is trying to get grass to grow in this sand, and we are setting out six citrus trees. We are sorry they closed the dorms there, but are glad Phyllis could go back for her senior year, because the other two girls graduated from the academy, and Johnnie is there for the second year of the nursing program . . . We have just become grandpa and grandma, as our daughter Joan (Mrs. Bill Chamberlain) had a baby girl. They live in College Place, Wash. Our son Shawn is now three years old and is keeping me busy . . . We have a nice new church with about 45 members in Port Charlotte."

Ben and Virginia Couillard have been in Brookhaven, Miss., ever since his graduation from anesthesia in 1956. He is doing anesthesia at the King's Daughter Hospital. Virginia is employed by a local surgeon as office receptionist. They have four children. The two older boys are students in Bass Memorial Academy. "We love Madison," they write, "and will always be grateful to Madison and Mr. Bowen for our training there."

1957

Leon Gray (N '57) is the anesthetist at the county hospital in Lawrenceburg, Tenn. His wife, Catherine, obtained her B.S. in Elementary Education at Madison in 1956, and taught four years in the church school here. The Grays and their children live on a farm and operate a small dairy. The oldest girl, Wanda Lorraine, is in school at Harbert Hills. The youngest boy, Douglas, was involved in an auto accident and spent seven weeks at Madison Hospital recently.

Jan Rushing, personnel director at New England Memorial Hospital, has been named president-elect of the S.D.A. Hospital Personnel Management Association. (R&H, 1/9/69) Jan's wife, Patricia, is a graduate nurse from Madison, class of 1957.

Alumni at Palatka, Florida

David Harvey finished X-ray and lab. at Madison in 1957 and is now working at Putnam Memorial Hospital in Florida where he is chief medical technologist and his wife, Joan Partridge, '57, is on the nursing staff. Also working in the hospital is John Donesky (X-ray and lab '57) and his wife, Mary ('58), a nurse. George Roach is chief technician in X-ray and his wife, Joan Perkins, is working as a nurse at the hospital. Arlene (Partridge) George '48 is on the nursing staff and Helen A. Smith '61 is afternoon house supervisor. David writes "Madison is well represented at our hospital."

In a series of articles in Youth's Instructor (Dec. 1968), "We Are a Missionary Band," Carla Crase relates the experiences of twelve student missionaries from California, who went to Guatemala and helped in Clinica Vista Hermosa for four weeks. One of the students was Liz Bowes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Bowes ('40 and '57) of Santa Ana, California. Dr. and Mrs. Bowes went down for part of the time and their picture appears in the Youth's Instructor of December 24, 1968. Also, in the week before, Dr. Bowes is shown caring for a patient at the clinic.

Arthur Quance (BS, N '58) writes that he has been in Ortonville, Minn., since 1961. He is administrator-anesthetist at the city-operated, 30-bed, Ortonville Municipal Hospital. He taught in the academy while taking the nursing course at Madison, and his wife, Carol, worked for Nursing Education. "Carol does book sales part time, and also assists a local accountant during tax season. Daughter Debbie is at Maplewood Academy in Hutchinson . . . Our trip to Atlantic City and Washington, D.C., in 1968 for the A.H.A. convention allowed us to meet some former Madisonites in Kettering, Ohio, where we spent an enjoyable Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Duran. We hope that we may be able to attend the next homecoming and meet some of those we missed before."

Robert W. Eaton (El Ed '59) is vice-principal of Greater Baltimore Academy, teaching grades 5 and 6. He attended AU this summer, working on his Masters in School Administration. His wife is the former Ruby Seibert ('59). He wrote: "We are so thankful for those who made it possible for our education at Madison, and appreciate the encouragement we receive from reading reports from the SURVEY."

Sue Shelton Calhoun took Medical Records in 1959. She has been employed as a nurse aide at Madison Hospital.

Eddie Zollinger (Ed. '60) is at Laurelbrook, Dayton, Tenn., in charge of construction of the new wing of the sanitarium. He attended AU and worked on his master's degree.

Richard Kunau ('57) and wife (Carol Hilgers, '61) have moved to Denver where he is teaching fifth and sixth grade in Mile High Academy church school. Carol is working part time as a nurse at Porter S-H.

Zoe Estelle Cruzen (MR '60) is now Mrs. Tom Nelson. Formerly employed at the Miller Clinic in Nashville, Joe and her two children, Tony and Todd, are now living in Junction City, Kansas, while her husband is in the Army.

Henry Scoggins (X-ray '61) is the new assistant administrator at Washington S-H. He took his Medical Technology course at the V.A. Hospital in Nashville, and holds a degree of Master of Science in Hospital Administration from the University of Alabama. He was employed as an administrative assistant at Methodist Hospital in Memphis, just previous to the appointment in Washington. His wife, Marjory, is a graduate nurse from Madison, class of 1963.

The January Southern Tidings carries the thrilling story of "An Impossible Dream" about to come true. For seventeen years a lone believer in Columbia, Ky., had dreamed of a church. In 1960 a young Adventist couple, Charles Pires (Anes. '61) and his wife, and their two children moved to the town. In 1966, a church school was started in an old vacant farmhouse, with Mrs. Paul Felt as teacher, who donated her first year's salary. Mrs. Pires furnished transportation, driving her car twice a day, a forty-six-mile round trip. Now the members at Columbia are looking forward to the erection of a new church building. A $5,000 lot has been purchased and $3,000 has already been raised toward its construction.

● One of our readers wrote that her copy of the December SURVEY lacked the middle insert. You should have received eight pages. If anyone else was shortchanged, please write us.

Juanita Lanham Syvertson, R.N. '62, writes from Wayzata, Minn.: "We're living in beautiful Minnesota, where the lakes are many and the mosquitoes tiny but powerful. My husband is a side applicator. We have one 'future expense account' three and a half years old and two younger 'future fender benders.' They keep me busy but happy."

From the Little Creek Newsletter we learn that Wilma Jean Keller (N '62) was married to Donald Rasmussen in September, 1968, at Loma Linda, and they are at home there.

Lt.jg Steven Marlow (N '64) wrote that he would be out of his term of service in Naval hospitals on February 24, 1969. He was stationed on Guam, and wrote: "I am working part time in the Far Eastern Island Mission Clinic. It is very enjoyable. Because Guam is much like the States, it is similar to working in a Stateside clinic. They are really bursting at the seams. They hope to begin construction on a new larger clinic soon, which will be the first stage in a hospital construction. Both of these are badly needed."

Nellie Campbell (MCA '64) and Kenneth Killion were married at the Boulevard Church in Madison on Feb. 6, 1969. Both are employed at Madison Hospital.

1965

Rose Holverstott Coluidge '65 writes: "We have moved to Apopka, Florida, where my husband, Bill, is teaching History and Business for Forest Lake Academy, and I am working as an office nurse for Dr. R. T. Hoover. We enjoy our work and Florida . . . We do appreciate all the hard work and effort that you put into the SURVEY."

1966

In a Christmas letter from Bill and Nancy Tate, they spoke of the "highlight of the past year," which was the arrival of their three-week-old baby girl, Gayle Marie, on New Year's Eve, 1968. Son Mike, in the second grade, is an avid reader, reading anything he can get, including Reader's Digest, as of late. Daughter Louise is an academy sophomore. Bill (Anes. '66) still works at Dalton, Georgia, giving anesthesia.

1967

Glenn Belk (Anes. '67) and family have moved to Oklahoma, where he has joined the anesthesia staff of a hospital in Sweetwater.

1968

Jim and Caroline Shilling are working in a hospital at Hartselle, Ala. Jim is in anesthesia and Caroline is a supervisor. Caroline took part of the nursing course at Madison, and finished at Hinsdale. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Johnson, both graduates of Madison, who are connected with Pine Forest Academy, Chunky, Miss. Their daughter, Barbara, finished Anesthesia at Madison in 1968, and is working nearby in a hospital in Meridian.

Jesslyn Ice Johnson (Anes. '68) started her nursing course at Madison finished at St. Thomas in Nashville, and took anesthesia at Madison Hospital. Her husband, Ed., a lab technician, is now taking the two-year nursing course at UT here in Nashville, and is vice-president of his class.

The Review of 1/30/69 features Bacolod S-H in the Philippines (Far Eastern Division's newest hospital, officially inaugurated Dec. 8, 1966). D. A. Roth writes: "Institutions often are built around men, and Bacolod Sanitarium and Hospital is no exception. Seventh-day Adventists of Negros Occidental in the Philippines have a hospital because of a mild-mannered, hard-working missionary physician, Dr. Willis G. Dick. He serves as medical director of the 50-bed, 60-employee hospital." Both Dr. Dick and his wife (Eleanor Sutton) are graduates of Madison, class of '36.

Cave Springs News

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pietz have recently joined the Cave Springs family, where Mr. Pietz is in charge of maintenance, and his wife, Elsie (Szonnell), is assisting Nellie Green ('59) with the Doman-Delacato crawl-and-creep therapy, which they are using to develop muscular coordination and mental abilities for selected teenagers. The Pietzes came to Cave Springs from Kettering, where they were on the staff of the hospital. They are both former students of Madison.

Cave Springs now has a physical therapy building and a swimming pool to use in their rehabilitation program. Fred Newhart, former student and worker at Madison, is taking the A.D. Nursing course at Murfreesboro State University, and is doing the electrical work on the new buildings at Cave Springs.

WILDWOOD SANITARIUM NEWS

From the Wildwood Newsletter (January, 1969) we learn that Fred Neal (X-ray '65) and family, formerly at P.F.A., Chunky, Miss., have connected with Wildwood. "What a blessing Fred is in the construction of the new sanitarium building at Wildwood, having just gone through a similar task at Pine Forest with their new hospital."

Joe Fields (BS, N'61) formerly helping in administrative work at Pine Forest S-H and Wildwood Sanitarium, has connected with Eden Valley Sanitarium, Loveland, Colo. His sister, Lorraine (Anes. '66) is on the Wildwood Sanitarium staff.

Dr. Joel A. Everett (pre dental '50) and family have moved from Florence, Miss., to join the group at Wildwood. He has his dental office in nearby St. Elmo. His office receptionist is Carol Cothren (M.R. '63).

Warner Family of Canada

Bertha E. Warner (EL.Ed. '57), who has been teaching in our schools in Canada, writes that she had to retire because of arthritis. She gives news of her children, who are former students of MC.

"I attended son David's graduation at Walla Walla. He finished lab at MC in 1959, graduated from the B.S. course with honors at WWC, and now he has gone with his family to Loma Linda to study dentistry. . . . My daughter, Christina, and her husband, Clinton Johnson (X-ray '51), were both Madison students. Clinton is in the X-ray department of V.A. Hospital in Boise, and Christina is operating a rest home. . . . My youngest daughter, Virginia (MR '58), is head Medical Records librarian in St. John's Hospital, Longview, Wash. . . . My oldest daughter, Lavina, is working at Branson Hospital."

● Again we are sorry that we cannot include all the interesting items on hand. Considerable copy has to be held over nearly every time, it seems.

LETTERS

Irma Rocke sent her SURVEY sub from Santa Marie, Calif. She came to Madison in 1924, finished high school and two years of college, taking dietetics. Later she took lab at the White, and worked twenty years for a research allergist and bacteriologist. She wrote: "My father, Alfred Rocke, and W. F. Rocke were brothers. Four of us children went to Madison. My oldest sister, Laura Rocke Winn, taught at Madison and was on the junior faculty. She lives at Keene, Texas, and is the author of the book, Margie Asks Why, published by SPA in 1963. My brother (N'29) nurses at Kings County Hospital in Hanford, Calif. . . . My aunt, Elizabeth Rocke, is now staying with her nephew, Elmer Busch, in Madison, and is 94 years old."

"I was only a fifteen-year-old when we went there. We had so much fun . . . During the 1920's we always had a big Christmas tree in Assembly Hall, and drew names. No gift was over 25c. The SURVEY with all the notes from alumni is a bright spot in my life, and I look forward to it. I especially enjoy the wit of Anna Sorenson. Her life was a real inspiration to everyone."

● Myrtle Wheeler was a student at Madison around 1912. In 1913 she married James M. McLaughlin, a nursing student. Later they went to Sand Mountain and started a school about 47 years ago. They both died. We have been in correspondence with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Anderson, of Aloha, Ore. She wrote that her mother loved Madison and "when she died in 1962, we sold her place and divided it among her three loves—Madison, Voice of Prophecy, and Faith for Today." After her mother's property was sold, a check of $732 was sent in April, 1962, as Madison's share, and she received a letter from R. M. Davidson saying the money was being applied to the printing school.

"I remember being there at a convention for a weekend about 1919, when I was two years old. It seemed I was the only baby and everyone wanted to (and did) pick me up."

● Mary Gammon Burkin and family are located in Willowdale, Ontario, Canada. Husband Robert is a nurse in the emergency room at Branson Hospital. Mary was a student of nursing at Madison in the early fifties, but received her R.N. at WMC (CUC).

● Mabel Howard, a former student of Madison, graduated from SMC in 1955. She taught nine years in Louisville Junior Academy, one year in Madison elementary school, and is now in her fourth year at AU Elementary School teaching fifth grade and supervising student practice teachers. She received a Master's degree from AU in 1965.

● Ruby Caldwell of Englewood, Calif., is a regular subscriber to the SURVEY, and says she reads it from cover to cover. Her husband, J. A. Caldwell, worked at Harding S-H 20 years. Ruby is a sister of Gladys Lowder (N'32) of Fletcher.

● Mrs. A. E. Deyo wrote: "I first learned of Madison and the SURVEY through friends in 1911. I knew the people who started the school. I have sent many a boy and girl to that school to gain an education and helped them with their expenses. My husband was a publishing department man for 40 years in the Southern Union. He went to his rest in 1958." Mrs. Deyo spends her winters with her daughter in Palm Springs, Calif., and her summers with daughter Nona in Cleveland, Ga.

● Thomas W. Steen, Ph.D., former president of M.C., writes: "At present we are almost completely retired here at Loma Linda. We live in a resident section of Heritage Gardens, which also has a convalescent hospital with over a hundred beds. We moved here because my wife wanted to give up housekeeping, and here food and housekeeping services are all furnished. I have part time use of an office, but am now doing very little professional work because my eyesight has become so bad . . . Otherwise we are in good health and happy here."

Frank Judson (Agr.'38), Escondido, Calif.

"The conference brethren asked me to serve as superintendent of Agriculture at Monterey Bay Academy as well as at San Pasqual Academy. These academies are located 500 miles apart with seven employees here at SPA and two up north. MBA Ag operating was deeper in the red than was Madison when I arrived there in 1964. It was necessary to bring in new personnel, and the problems have been legion. I have spent about half of my time up there, and we feel that we are making real progress.

"Sometime ago I was contacted by the principal of Highland Academy and chairman of the board in regard to supplying students with work in agriculture. I discouraged them in some of their plans and recommended some others. I strongly felt that the farm up there and what was left at Madison could be made a successful combined operation. I also outlined the very challenging possibilities of combining all of the Ag program in the Southern Union and using the different soil and weather conditions to provide food for all our institutions in the region. I personally feel that such a program is merely transposing the instructions in the Spirit of Prophecy to space-age civilization and technology. I was asked to direct the program at Madison and at Highland, but I felt that the work at the two academies in California was just as urgent and not yet strong enough for me to leave . . .

"Joe Becker, who was a student at Madison ten years ago, is on our SPA Ag staff. He is deeply impressed with our Ag program here. He was not aware just how scientific it has now become. We are very pleased with our dairy herd, and Joe never ceases to marvel at the amount of milk that our cows are producing. We are proud that it is the highest producing herd ever owned by the S.D.A. denomination anywhere in the world in all of its history. We are now getting over one thousand gallons of milk per day from 150 cows. Our chickens are also doing very well. Egg sales for the one month of December, 1968, exceeded $14,000.

"Velda and I have temporarily, at least, joined the 'childless' set. Jeanette, our oldest daughter, was married recently to John Kuni-gonas and now lives in Boulder, Colo. Donna was married over a year ago to Roy Washburn and lives about 25 miles from San Pasqual. Marilyn, our youngest, is now a junior at Newbury Park Academy . . . Our hearts are still with Madison."

To SURVEY Readers Overseas

We urge our readers in countries outside the U. S. to keep in touch with the alumni office. Let us know if you receive the SURVEY each quarter and if you want to keep it coming. This is important as it is extra trouble and expense to send the paper to Canada, Mexico, and overseas. So unless we hear from you occasionally, we may discontinue your SURVEY. Also we would urge our Madison missionaries to notify us when on furlough in the States, giving your Stateside address, and visit us at Madison when possible.

Are You Delinquent?

Are you delinquent on dues and donations? When you meet M.C. graduates and friends of Madison, ask them if they are getting the SURVEY and keeping in touch with Madison. If they say No, urge them to write the alumni and SURVEY office and send their dues ($3.00 a year; $50 life) if a graduate. SURVEY subscription alone is $1.00 a year. Keep your SURVEY subscription and dues up to date. Don't be a delinquent. It may be more important than you think.

• Correction. We don't know how it happened, but on page 1 of the December, 1968, SURVEY, Elder W. M. Abbott is said to be ASI sec. of the Potomac Conference. (False!). On page 3 he is said to be ASI secretary of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference. (True!)

ARTHUR ALEXANDER JASPERSON

Arthur A. Jasperson passed away January 25, 1969, at Madison Hospital at the age of 82. Interested in rural school work, he came to Madison from Wisconsin in 1910 and enrolled as a student. In 1912 he married Marguerite Millar, a Wisconsin classmate who preceded him as a Madison student. After four years of teaching at Pisgah Industrial Institute, Candler, N. C., the Jaspersons connected with Asheville Agricultural School and Mountain Sanitarium at Fletcher, N. C., in 1920, where he became president and business manager, and his wife principal of the academy.

In 1952, after serving over thirty years at Fletcher, he became president of Madison College, which office he held for five years. Marguerite Jasperson died May 21, 1965. In 1955, upon the death of Dr. E. A. Sutherland, Mr. Jasperson became president of The Layman Foundation. The Jaspersons had two sons: David, who died of polio in 1949, and Robert, who survives.

On February 26, 1967, Arthur Jasperson, then president of The Layman Foundation, and Florence Fellemende, secretary-treasurer of the same organization, were married. At the time of his death, Mr. Jasperson was executive secretary of the Foundation and also a member of the Madison Hospital board. The following tribute to Mr. Jasperson was given by Roger Goodge at the funeral service in Madison:

"The life of Arthur A. Jasperson, or 'Papa J,' as he was affectionately known to his friends and associates, is an epitome of the Madison College concept of true self-supporting work. The stamina which marked his entire life of hard work and leadership stemmed no doubt from his Danish extraction and from his environment in the agrarian state of Wisconsin. Farming, dairying, gardening, building, colporteur, riding horseback and sharing the simple life with folks on Cowee Mountain in North Carolina, managing vegetarian cafeterias, operating treatment rooms, teaching school, working day by day with students—all these activities and more occupied the time of this versatile, unselfish man. To be constantly employed and never asking "What shall I do?" was his key to happiness."

Services were conducted at Madison Funeral Home in Madison January 26, by Elders Clarke and Laue and by Roger Goodge. Two days later services were conducted by Elder Jack Williams and Don Kenyon at the Fletcher, N.C., church. Interment was at Shepherd Memorial Park, Hendersonville, N.C.

Elder Jack Williams, president of the Fletcher institution, invites friends and relatives of Mr. Jasperson to participate in a memorial fund, sending gifts for the new administration building at Fletcher, which will be named for Mr. Jasperson. Contributions may be sent to M.C.A.A. or direct to Fletcher Academy, Fletcher, N.C. 28732.

Survivors are Florence Fellemende Jasperson, Madison, Tenn.; Robert Jasperson, Glendale, Calif.; and three grandchildren: Vicki Jasperson, Birmingham, Ala.; John and Carol Ann Jasperson, Glendale, Calif., who are also grandchildren of Gertrude Peters '18, Glendale, and the late Dr. John Peters.

BURTON MANLEY COMSTOCK

Burton Comstock, son of Ray B. and Marie '35 (Graham) Comstock, of Yerba Buena Mission, Chiapas, Mexico, met death December 9, 1968, as the result of a head-on crash with a truck that suddenly shot out into his lane near Wilhows, Calif. At the time of the accident he was in California working on his pilot's license.

At the age of five, Burton accompanied his parents to the mission field in Central America. When he was fourteen, he went to Chiapas, Mexico, with his parents and sister to help found the Yerba Buena Mission. In 1956 he returned to the States, where he attended school, returning to Chiapas in 1958. While attending school at Colegio Linda Vista, he met Manuela "Nela" Lopez. They were married in 1959.

The Comstock family—Burton, Anita, and their parents—settled in Chiapas in 1953 for the purpose of opening a small training center for the Chamula and Zoque Indians of north-central Chiapas. In the newsletter sometime ago from Yerba Buena, the Comstocks wrote: "Burton and wife Nela are helping carry the load here at Yerba Buena. Nela, although busy with her home, has charge of our little store, and is now assisting with deliveries and teaching the O.B. class part time. Burton, our only son, a third-generation 'self-supporting' missionary (Marie's father was a self-supporting missionary in Honduras in the first decade of this century), is filling a very important place in the work here at Yerba Buena. He has charge of all the working men, is a member of the construction committee, work committee, and general operating committee."

Surviving are his parents; one sister, Anita, premedical student at LLU; his wife, Manuela (Nela); and three children.

A short time ago, a check for $100 was sent to Yerba Buena Mission, Chiapas, Mexico, from the M.C.A.A. through Wildwood Sanitarium, Wildwood, Georgia. This represented a number of gifts. Marie Comstock requested that a note of thanks be placed in the SURVEY to each one who had part in the gift, and for the sympathy of kind friends.

In a bulletin from Yerba Buena Mission and Hospital (Yerba Buena, Chiapas, Mexico), this announcement is made: "Anyone desiring to express an interest in the work to which Burton had dedicated his life may wish to know of the Burton Comstock Memorial Fund. Tax deductible receipts are available upon request." (See money through the alumni office or through Wildwood Sanitarium, Wildwood, Georgia 30757.) The bulletin also said that the Comstocks might be contacted through Marie's father, H. H. Graham, 25085 La Mar, Loma Linda, Calif., 92354. She planned to be there for some time.

MARGOT HERLINGER WAGNER

Margot Herlinger Wagner, wife of Richard Wagner (Anes. '55), Warrenton, Va., died Feb. 3, 1969, after surgery. She was born in Wuppertal, Germany, in 1926. She suffered from cancer for sixteen long months, her husband wrote his former instructor, Bernard Bowen. "God gave Margot 42 years of life, and 19 years to be a helpmate to me." Their three sons survive.

WINIFRED GODSHALK JOHANNES

Winifred Johannes, wife of Dr. Joseph C. Johannes '29, died January 3, at St. Helena, Calif., following a long illness. With her husband, she had spent over thirty years in mission service in India, Pakistan, Burma, Ethiopia, and more recently Korea and at the Taiwan S-H. She was one of the very early graduates from the nurses' course at Madison, class of '17. Dr. and Mrs. Johannes had no children of their own, but they assisted a number of young people in securing education. Dr. Johannes survives.

THORNTON LUTHER HILL

Luther H. Hill wrote from Napa, Calif., telling of the death of his son, Thornton Luther Hill ("T.L."), in an automobile accident caused by a head-on collision with a drunken driver while on his way for a weekend visit to his parents. "Our boy had drifted from the church and was very much in the lime-light locally, as he was member of 'Hell's Angels Motorcycle Club.' I like to think he was having a change of heart, because he had had his hair cut and was clean shaven for a few weeks before his death. And I did find Christian literature in his personal belongings." He and his wife (Mary Graham) separated last year. She and their two sons, Martin Lloyd, age six, and Graham Brent, age five, survive.

Luther gave news of himself and wife, Eula, and two other Madisonite families. In November the Hills moved to a two-acre place on the outskirts of Napa. Since last July he has been doing special duty nursing, having resigned from State service as a psychiatric nurse. His wife is still at the Sonoma State Hospital as a senior psychiatric nurse.

Recently at church in Napa he saw Doctors Merle and Margaret Godfrey ('26 and '24) who have returned from their special assignment in Japan, where they served for a year as radiologists at Tokyo S-H. They both looked real well, he said.

"Two of our local friends who were of much comfort to us were Mr. and Mrs. Purvis Orso ('53 & '59). Kanekola was in our nursing class but had to drop out for a while, and finished a year or so later. She is working in the Queen of the Valley (Catholic) Hospital here. She was at the Veterans Home at Yountville for four or five years. Purvis is with Kaiser Company as a welder. Their children are growing fast. They remember Madison with much love."
