PROGRESS AT MADISON FARM

By Frank Judson, Scottsville, KY.

May, 1983 has been the wettest of any in history for the state of Tennessee. This has caused the pastures and trees to be very beautiful but certainly was a serious problem in scheduling the plantings in the garden. Although the ground in field No. 1 had been broken for over one month and seed purchased for nearly that long, it was May 26 before we could do any planting. At the present time we have 12 varieties of vegetables seeded. Six varieties of tomatoes and two varieties of sweet corn make up most of the acreage at the present time. We have had two good rains since planting and although everything is very late, we feel we're off to a very good start. The four adults assisting in the program, including Mr. Dean Hunt, academy principal, and the students are very enthusiastic about the whole program.

Substantial progress is being made in readying the large barn, built in 1940. It is being used for equipment storage and a portion of the dairy side is being converted into a country store. The appearance inside and outside will be substantially improved and serve as an attractive market place for the produce. It is the purpose of this entire program to provide excellent quality fresh fruits and vegetables for the community, to train students in the production of food, and to provide additional income for the operation of the academy. We are all of good courage and sincerely appreciate the suggestions, financial contributions, and confidence that you have placed in this endeavor to reinstate agriculture in the program at Madison.

FIELD NO. 1

Assorted Vegetables planted 1983

Early Flat Dutch Cabbage, Green Comet Broccoli, Black Beauty Egg Plant, California Wonder Sweet Peppers, Hungarian Hot Wax Peppers, Chili Red Peppers.

Five varieties of Tomatoes — Rutgers, Early Girl, Golden Jubilee, Early Boy, and Bradley.

Black Zucchini, grey Zucchini, and crookneck squash, Silver Queen Corn, Hybrid Sweet American Gold Corn, Kentucky Wonder Bush Beans, Little Marvel Peas, Kentucky Wonder Pole Beans, Lima Beans, Emerald Okra, and Potatoes.

Madison College Homecoming June 17-19, 1983

Letters and phone calls are coming in from Honor Classes and others regarding Homecoming at the Madison Campus Church June 17-19.

PROGRAM. Friday night speaker is Julius Korgan, Ph.D., of Lacey Springs, AL. He is a brother of Wilma Gill '53, missionary nurse, who returned to Kendu Hospital, Africa, in April. His wife is the former Evelyn Beebe, daughter of the late Dr. Nathan Beebe, a good friend of E. A. Sutherland.

Dr. Korgan has served as teacher and administrator at Plainview Academy, S.D., Jamaica, Oakwood College, Southwestern College, as president of Adventist Seminary, West Africa, and teacher at Canadian Union College.

SABBATH SCHOOL. Marion Simmons of the Honor Class of 1943 has the missions feature. She has just returned from Guam where she did another stint of volunteer service.

SABBATH MORNING SERMON. Dan and Kay (Forrester) Collins of Amazing Facts, Frederick, MD. will have the Sabbath morning service. In constant demand, Dan has just finished a crusade in Jackson, MI., and before that they held two crusades in California. Amazing Facts literature and the book, My Son Dan, by Lettie Wheeler will be on sale.

SABBATH AFTERNOON. A tour through the Heritage House, reports from the Honor Classes, Vespers and the Business Meeting.

SUNDAY MORNING an agriculture, gardening, and rural living workshop is planned.

MEALS AND HOUSING. Two potluck meals will be served on Sabbath (dinner and supper). The hospital cafeteria is not open for breakfast, but does have a snack bar located back of the gift shop.

A limited number of rooms are available on first floor of the Campus Lodge (former Nurses' dorm). Most of these have been reserved, although a few are left.

(For the telephones and address of the alumni office and secretary, Mable Towery, see back page. Other numbers: Dorothy Mathews, 615-865-5350; Edith Johnson, 865-6076; Velma Jeffus, 865-8786; Katherine Marshall, 868-2133.

DOWN ON THE FARM

In spite of the setback of cold, wet weather, Frank Judson, of Scottsville, KY., Dean Hunt, academy principal, and co-laborers got a good start, even though late, in placing hundreds of plants and seeds in the eleven acres set aside as the first phase. Other fields will be developed later (see outline, Fields 1-5.)

Five fields have been designated for production of fruits and vegetables. This will eventually involve 25 to 30 acres of soil suited for this type of agriculture.

● Frank Judson's address is Scottsville, KY. 42164, Rt. 3, Box 140 (Tel. 502-622-6625).

● From time to time the question is asked, How much land is left at Madison? George Child, academy treasurer, says there are 140 acres in the school end of the campus, which includes land occupied by the school, three apartment houses, and quite a few single dwelling houses. (Forty acres tillable.)

● As of June 1, 1983, 146 Memberships came in for the farm program; with total income of $6,931. So almost seven thousand dollars was available for equipment, seeds, plants, etc. Madison College Alumni and SURVEY readers have responded well.

98 Tons on Two Acres

A news item in Adventist Review (5-12-83), under Trans-Africa Division, reports this astounding news: "The SAWS scientific gardening project at Solusi College continues to be successful. In 1982 a total of 98 tons of vegetables were harvested from the two acres."

New Madison Hospital President

(Release by Jim Closser,
P.R. Director, Madison Hospital)

James Boyle, former executive vice-president of Florida Hospital, Orlando, Fla., has been named president of Madison Hospital, replacing Robert E. Trimble who has accepted the position of executive vice-president of region IV for Adventist Health System/Sunbelt Health Care Corporation. Boyle joined Florida Hospital in 1969 and continued there in various administrative capacities.

In 1965, Mr. Boyle graduated from S.M.C., and in 1973 he completed a master of science degree in Business Management at Rollins College, Orlando.

● As executive vice-president of A.H.S./Sunbelt, Robert Trimble will be the corporation representative maintaining control and unity of the ten hospitals in region IV of Sunbelt encompassing the states of Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Trimble was named president of Madison Hospital in January, 1977, after serving as president of Hialeah Hospital, Hialeah, Fla. for 12 years. He previously was administrator of several hospitals in Oklahoma. He was assistant administrator of Florida Hospital, Orlando, from 1957-61.

● Mr. Boyle will assume responsibilities at Madison Hospital effective July 1, 1983.

30 Madison Academy Graduates

Thirty seniors graduated from Madison Academy May 20-22. Speakers were as follows: Elder Don Watson, Consecration service Friday night; Dr. C. B. Rock, president of Oakwood College, Baccalaureate sermon, Sabbath A.M. Dean W. Hunt, Madison Academy Principal was chosen by the students to give the Commencement Address Sunday morning.

Campus Visitors

● Since reported last, ROSS CLARK '60, principal of Elam Road Church School, Murfreesboro, TN., brought his students to tour the campus and the Heritage House.

● EDWIN and EUNICE BISALSKI of Bancroft, Mich., visited son Hammond, attended church services, and saw the Heritage House. Ed formerly was manager of the food factory. He said he prayed every day that Madison would open again.

● David Crittenden of Tullahoma, TN., visited the Heritage House. His sister REBECCA (Lowry) took two years of Nursing at M.C. She married Wayne Wolfe in 1982 and lives in the D.C. area. David's wife is an R.N. from S.M.C. and took part of her course on Madison Extension Campus (Jean Dickinson).

● CHARLES MARTIN of Florence, AL, and LOUIE DICKMAN of Savannah, TN., came by while in Nashville and saw the Heritage House.

● ICHIRO NAKOSHIMA, former M.C. student about 1941 and wife Ruth visited the campus church. He is employed in the Art Department of Pacific Press. He worked with Richard Rimmer on the SURVEY while a student here.

● Helen Kelly of Ridgeway, TN., came to see the Heritage House and brought her friend Lena Gosch of Madison. Helen's husband Larry a former M.C. student, is a pharmacist at Revco in Madison.

● JOHN DOVICH '61, of Holly, Mich., saw the Heritage House on a trip through Madison. He has accepted a call to the Adventist Academy of Uruguay to start an Industrial Arts Department. John has been raising funds for equipment. He has raised $12,000, but needs $20,000. If any more would like to contribute his address is Box 133, Holly, Mich. 48442. His two youngest children will be going with him and wife Luvamae. Son Steve graduated from AU

June 5 with a degree in Computer Science. Laurel completed her second year in Engineering at AU, and Sharon is a sophomore at CUC.

● MARY (WEST) HUNT, former student of M.C. 1949-51, visited her son, Dean Hunt, principal of Madison Academy, and family in June. She and her husband, Dr. Walter Hunt, live in Turlock, CA.

● SIDNEY and ETHELWYN (Glatter) BOSKIND, of Costa Rica, visited their son Dr. Andrew Boskind and family of Hendersonville, TN., and attended the Campus Church services. Mr. Boskind told this editor something very interesting. He said he and his wife had given their property of 5,000 acres to the General Conference, the transaction being made through Elder Folkenberg. The Boskinds believe firmly in the principles of Madison. We hope their wishes will be carried out in Costa Rica.

● TOM and JESSIE HOLDER, former workers at Madison, visited Madison on their way to campmeeting in Portland. They are now retired in Reliance, TN. They also visited their friend, Margaret Brown who has returned to her little house on campus for a time to attend Campmeeting and Homecoming.

New Periodicals

"Self-Supporting Worker"

Copies of numbers 1 and 2 of a new periodical titled, "Self-Supporting Worker," have been received recently. About 25 self-supporting "units" are covered in articles and pictures. Editor of the paper is Linden McNeilus, who is director of the Minnesota Bible Study Association. If you would like a sample copy, or would like to have your "unit" included, write Linden McNeilus, Box 623, Dodge Center, MN. 55927.

"Breakthrough"

A new periodical titled "Breakthrough" announced the birth of a new self-supporting college, Hartland Institute near Culpepper, VA. Hal Mayer, a first graduate of Weimar Institute, was the moving spirit who spearheaded the movement to start a self-supporting college in the East.

Breakthrough, a quarterly, is issued as a health bulletin from Hamburg, Pa. (Rt. 3, Box 670), but presumably will soon bear an address in Virginia.

● Black Hills Health and Education Center is another new self-supporting college which emerged in 1982 in the Black Hills of South Dakota. Address of BHHEC is Box 1, Hermosa, S.D. 57744.

QUESTION: With Weimar in the west, Hartland in the east, and Black Hills in the midwest, why can't we have a self-supporting college in the south again?

More Heritage House Gifts

● ROBERT SUTHERLAND presented a copy of the book, "60 Years of Progress — Walla Walla College" to the Heritage House. This 400-page anniversary history of WWC includes pictures and information on Bob's grandparents, Edward and Sally Sutherland, and other relatives — E. A.'s brother, Walter Sutherland, George and Lydia Droll, Floyd Bralliar, and Bessie DeGraw.

● Mrs. Everett Coolidge sent a 16-page brown cover, "Hand Book" of the old N.A.N.I. It is one of several handbooks and bulletins printed so early that no date appears, so we would guess it came out around 1905 or 1906. We have others without date or number, and almost complete file from just before 1910 and on.

● If you have any old Handbooks or college bulletins or Peptimist Criers (predecessor of the Madisonian), or Southland Bulletins, or Madison Food Messengers, please send or write to MADISON SURVEY, Box 1303, Madison, TN. 37115.

● MARJORIE (Wood) ROUSE (N'33) sent a delightful assortment of items for the Heritage House from Clifton, Colo., which she said she "pulled out of her memory book." These included a program of the graduation of the Madison S-H School of Nursing, which was held on the lawn by the san parlor; also a program, a place card and favor, (a miniature pair of rubber gloves), at the banquet. Also a graduation program of the class of 1932; which included names of nurses, pre-meds, normal and high school; a little folder with snapshot of Violet Wille, head nurse, and Edith Moore, assistant head nurse, and an interesting Christmas day menu folder of 1931.

● Bernard Bowen brought two clippings from the regular feature, Madison College News, in the Community News. In addition to news items there was a picture of the students who took over the staff positions at college and hospital, also taught classes. The two clippings of annual student day, with pictures, were for April 1954, and April 1955.

● Derwood and Jean Chappell of Takoma Park, MD., visited their friend Dorothy Mathews, and Dorothy showed them around the Heritage House.

From the Editor

● In order to confine this June SURVEY to four pages, a number of items had to be left out. What with all the extra work of Homecoming, and trying to get out the SURVEY, in addition to all the regular work, and still not enough help, this has been a stressful time for the editor. Providence, health, and time not preventing, tentative plans have been made to attend the retirees convention at LaSierra a week after Homecoming. On Sunday, June 26, the California Madison Chapter has scheduled a reunion at the LLU Medical Center Cafeteria 11:30 to 2:30, which I hope to attend.

● ROBERT DANNER worked in Housekeeping at Madison Hospital 16 years (1961-77), and came back from retirement to work 6 months in 1978. After the new Madison Campus Church was built he kept his pledge to do the janitor work for many years without pay. He lived in the old brick apartments. After retirement he became ill. His sister, Mrs. Martha Burlow, of Muncie, IN., came and put him in a local nursing home. Later she had him transferred to Parkview Nursing Home in Muncie so he could be near her.

ALUMNI NEWS

1932. Dr. and Mrs. Harold Graves sent a newsletter dated March 1953. Guess what? They were back in Guatemala doing Medical missionary work. Their letter told of their efforts to put up a building for use as office and home, also reports from lay preacher. The letter ended by suggesting that those who wish to send money to help the lay preachers and supply literature, send it to Pastor Julio Juarez, Apartado 22, Huehuetenango, Huehuetenango, Guatemala, C.A.

The Graves planned to leave Guatemala for the states at the end of March, then go back to Guatemala in October before cold weather. Their address: Dr. and Mrs. Harold Graves, Rt. 5, Box OHC, Apt. 2, Harrison, Ark. 72501.

● A graduation program has been received showing the name of Roby (Hirst) Sherman among the graduates from the School of Medicine of Montemorelos University in Mexico. A note from Bill and Roby stated: "How we have appreciated your faithfulness in keeping us on the MADISON SURVEY list. We're glad you're able to do it. The Lord bless you. This has been a "miracle" of four years finishing medicine here at Montemorelos is the culmination of a lifelong dream. . . Will be at Glendale, starting July 1 for LLU Fifth Pathway program for foreign medical graduates. Our future is in his hands."

Bill and Roby were students at Madison in 1968.

1969: RON WYATT (Anes. '69) has made several research trips to Bible lands. He was interviewed twice on the Les Jemison radio talk show, WLAC, Nashville, in the spring of 1983, regarding his quest to find Noah's Ark.

He said he was available for speaking engagements and offered his 40-page book, "Noah's Ark Found," free by calling him or writing him at Box 931, M.C. Sta., Madison, TN 37115. There was great interest on the part of the listening audience, and many called in.

DALLAS AND NORA COLVIN Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Dallas and Nora (Parsons) Colvin of Jefferson, Texas were married by Elder A. G. Haughey on Nov. 25, 1932, in the original Berea Community Church, later used as an auditorium and classrooms for Jefferson Academy until just recently.

Mr. Colvin is a retired 30-year teaching veteran, and Mrs. Colvin is a nurse. Beginning his work in elementary schools in Texas and California, Mr. Colvin continued with terms at Jefferson, Madison, Mt. Pisgah, Valley Grande, and Sandia View Academies. At one time he was assistant manager of the broom factory at Collegedale.

The Colvins have two children, Dalline Devlin of Corrales, and Lonnie of Houston, TX.

The Parsons and Colvins families were pioneers in the school and church work in Jefferson, TX. Over 100 friends and relatives honored the couple at an open house on Thanksgiving day, 1982.

Lester and Linda Culpepper 50th Wedding Anniversary

Lester and Linda Culpepper were married in northern Alabama on May 26, 1933. They became S.D.A.'s through the "Words of Life" radio program. They moved to Madison in 1945 where he picked fruit, and got up at 2:00 o'clock each morning to milk cows. He became head of the fruit and garden department, taking care of acres of beautiful peaches, grapes, and strawberries. He worked long and hard 15 years for the school, then went to the purchasing department of Madison Hospital in 1976 where he worked 18 years.

Mrs. Culpepper loved to write. She wrote many poems and stories for her children and grandchildren, some of which were

MARY (Irby) WEEKS

Mary (Irby) Weeks, was born in Macon, GA in 1923 and died June 24, 1980, in Baptist Hospital, Atlanta, GA. She graduated from the dietitian course at Madison in 1943, and worked in the diet office at Baptist Hospital in Atlanta, Dekalb County Hospital and South Fulton Hospital and was director of food service at Oxford Branch of Emory University. She is survived by her husband, Jack Weeks, son Jack Weeks, Jr., of Atlanta, GA.; her sister Marilyn (Mrs. Tracy Cantrell) of Portland, TN.

LOUIS MARVIN CROWDER

Louis M. Crowder was born Dec. 3, 1887, and died March 14, 1983 in North Carolina. He had been living at the Pisgah Estates. He was married to Sarah Amen Crowder who preceded him in death.

In 1925 he and wife came to Madison from Fresno, CA. He was in charge of the steam laundry for one year. They relocated in Knoxville and operated a cafeteria. Later a farm of 185 acres was purchased on Lowe's Ferry Pike eleven miles from Knoxville. The Crowder family lived on the farm along with the R. A. Lovells and operated a cafeteria, bakery, and treatment rooms.

One son, Henderson, died in 1977. Survivors are Amos E. of Brighton, CO.; Ivan T. of Okinawa, Japan; four grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

ALICE NAOMI (GLASS) GOBER

(Beth Gober Carter sent the following obituary of her mother from Progresso Vocational Health Institute, a self-supporting "unit" in Belizo, Central America. Beth is a 3-time graduate of M.C. — Nursing and College 1961, and Anesthesia 1962. She and her husband, C. D. Carter, have served at Lawrenceburg and Laurelbrook in Tenn., and Wildwood San in Georgia, before going to Belize where Mr. Carter is director of P.V.H.I.)

Alice Naomi Glass Gober was born in 1902 and died Dec. 13, 1982, at 80 years of age. She was alert and primarily self care until 4 days before her death of respiratory complications of emphysema. Mrs. Gober attended Madison Academy 1918-20 and went on to become an R.N. at Loma Linda.

Surviving are her two sons James E. Gober of Collegedale, Henry A. Gober of Dayton, TN., and a daughter Beth (Edwards) Carter, of Belize, CA.

HATTIE (Barber) BRADY

Mrs. Hattie Brady, died Nov. 16, 1982 at Madison Hospital at the age of 73. She started Nurses training at M.C. in 1928 and after two years dropped out due to her health. In 1945 she took state board and received her L.P.N. degree. She worked as a nurse at Madison Hospital and Bordeaux.

Survivors are her husband Vernon L. Brady and son Louis Steve Brady both of Madison, two sisters Beulah Hodges and Jennie Parker of Portland, TN; and one brother Oscar Barber of Texas.

Mr. Brady has a long period of service at Madison College and Hospital — 6 years in dairy, 2 years on the bread truck for the bakery, driving truck to Nashville for the hospital 2 years, also in the laundry 23 years making a total of 33 years. He retired in 1976.

HENRY H. HOLLIMAN

Henry Holliman was born in 1904 in Carthage, TN. and died Jan. 8, 1983 at Madison Hospital. He worked at Dupont Company in Old Hickory for 40 years and retired in 1965.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby Holliman, of Madison, TN., two sons, James Holliman of Murfreesboro, TN and Floyd Holliman of Dallas, TX; three daughters, Jean Hooper of Marshall, TN, Shirley Pyron of Madison, TN., and Sue Hudson of Hendersonville, TN.

For 25 years he was a faithful member of the Madison Campus Church. He loved Ingathering and served as deacon and head deacon for several years. Jack Clark and Robert Hunter conducted the services.

MRS. FANADA PROCTOR

Fanada (Livengood) Proctor was born July 24, 1886, at Georgetown, Texas. She died July 23, 1982, at Keene, TX. On Dec. 9, 1906, she was married to Hugh L. Proctor in Oklahoma. He died in 1938.

In 1940 Mrs. Proctor came to Madison College to be with her daughter, Mary Nell, who was a student at the time. She worked here until October, 1943, then moved to Loma Linda, CA., and worked at the hospital. Later she did home nursing. When she retired she helped with the Children's Story Hour and the Dorcas work.

In 1971 Mrs. Proctor moved back to Madison for six years. She spent the last years of her life with her daughter Mary Nell and son-in-law, Carl Greenhill, in Phoenix, AZ. She read her Bible daily and spent much time in prayer. She was homesick for heaven.

She is survived by one son, Paul Proctor, of Longview, TX., and a daughter, Mary Nell Greenhill of Phoenix, AZ. and three grandchildren — Linda Wilson, Carl Edwin Greenhill, and Steve Proctor.
