Three Major Events — New Book, Homecoming, and Sutherland House

During the first half of 1987 three exciting events took place. (1) The new Madison book came off the press. Bob and son Mike and Bernard Bowen went with trucks to Clarksville, TN on the last Monday in April and brought back half of the 1000 books ordered from Jostens printing plant. (2) The Sutherland House Celebration, with Open House and weekend program June 12 and 13 at Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI. (3) The Madison College Homecoming June 19-21, 1987.

Each of these events took much of the SURVEY editor's time. When I was invited and urged to go to the Sutherland House Celebration, which was just one week before Homecoming I felt at first I could not spare the time and knew it would put me behind with the June SURVEY. It was a difficult decision, but I did go. That is one reason the SURVEY is late.

Much could be told about each of these three major events, but for expediency we will make it brief this time and try to give fuller coverage in the September SURVEY. Fortunately two good people helped — Connie (Rimmer) Tiffany on the Sutherland House celebration, and Nita Rea (on the 25-year Honor Class of 1962). The latter sent a delightful report on Homecoming as she saw it. I'll make some additional comments first.

Homecoming June 19-21, 1987

In his welcome Friday night M.C.A.A. president, Bob Sutherland welcomed all back home at Madison. The week before he and his family, Shaen Sutherland and his family, Barbara (Brunie) Jones, daughter of Yolanda Sutherland Brunie, and her two sons were all there from California to watch the cutting of the ribbon by Eddy Sutherland III (son of Shaen and Mavis Sutherland) to attend the banquet Friday evening, the Sabbath services and a most enjoyable weekend as arranged by Mrs. Elsie Buck, talented Chairman of the committee to restore the Sutherland House.

In his welcome Bob also said he had been reading Mother Earth News, and we are told we need to learn to use animals instead of machinery to till the soils . . . Ellen White calls for us to get out of the cities. Out of the cities is present truth. The new farm manager at Sequatchie Valley Farm School, Dunlap, TN, wants to teach people to use animals to work the soil.

Bob spoke with appreciation for those who were to take care of the Sabbath meal (Opal Brock, Eva Campbell, and helpers). He also paid tribute to Mable Towery for her interest and perseverance in helping get out the new Madison history book and to Dr. Ira Gish for the long hours he put in as chief editor of the book.

Henry Scoggins, Friday Night Speaker

Henry Scoggins finished X-ray at M.C., got his B.S. at Peabody in Nashville, and attended the University of Alabama. He has had work experience at Madison Hospital, Washington Adventist Hospital (assistant administrator); administrator of the S.D.A. hospital in Ethiopia, and president of Hackettstown Community Hospital, New Jersey, before going to LLU Medical Center as executive vice-president. He and Marjorie (Hancock) have three children — Jeffrey at S.C., who met his parents here; Ginger who plans to go to P.U.C. next year; and Thomas who plans to enter Andrews University this fall.

Henry's address was titled "Looking Back to the Future." He reminisced on his days at Madison, and spoke of the necessity to have a plan in regard to starting a new Madison type school.

- Tapes of Friday night and Sabbath morning sermon by Ed Reid will be available. Send $5 for each tape to the MADISON SURVEY, Box 6303, Madison, TN 37116.

- On Friday night Mable Towery, who has served as executive secretary of the M.C.A.A. for over 26 years unburdened her heart. The word "Mission" is being used frequently now. Now that the new book is out, what is our mission? She spoke of lack of enough help; no successor in sight, and feeling worn out at times. She threw out the challenge of starting a new Madison type school, suggesting joining with the Sequatchie Valley Farm School.

SABBATH SCHOOL at HOMECOMING. Dollie Bowen was S.S. Superintendent of the day. Dr. James Trivett of Wildwood and Dr. Roy Bowes of Santa Ana, CA had the lesson study. Mavis Sutherland had the special feature, "Reflections on the Sutherland House Celebration." Due to failure in getting tapes transcribed we'll have to hold this and other reports over to next time.

"The End of an Era" Sermon by Dr. Ed. Reid

Ed Reid, his brothers and mother Elsie were all here taking school work in the early 60's. Ed has gone on to get degrees at S.M.C., A.U., and L.L.U. School of Health (M.P.H.), and the latest, a lawyers degree — J.D. at Georgia State University. He has been in pastoral work, teaching health education and administration, and in conference departmental work.

- There was much interest in Ed Reid's sermon, and a great demand for tapes. Tapes may be obtained at $5 each by writing the Madison Survey.

The history of our world can be placed on the face of a clock. From each number to the next represents 500 years. One minute is 100 years. As the important events are placed on the clock we find time is almost ended. There is a time beyond which God will not wait longer.

SABBATH AFTERNOON. Many toured the Heritage House Sabbath afternoon. Then there were reports from the Honor Classes, which will have to be held over to the September SURVEY.

SATURDAY NIGHT VESPERS. A musical program was given by Billy Burks, accordion; Herbert Hewitt and son Fred, one with a sliding trombone and one with a valve trombone. Also a solo by Joan Malmede France.

Wilbur Atwood, president of Wildwood, was the vespers speaker.

BUSINESS MEETING

At the business meeting Saturday night Dr. Billy Burks was elected president of the M.C.A.A. for next year, Carolyn Heer, vice-president, Viola Knight, secretary treasurer; Glenda Clark, assistant secretary-treasurer. Robert Sutherland remains on the board as past president, and Mable H. Towery as executive secretary. All the other members of the executive committee remain the same, with the addition of George Brashears.

It was voted to proceed with erecting a marker near the location where the Morning Star boat stopped for repairs on the Cumberland River.

Discussion Sunday Morning at Homecoming Starting a Madison Type School Again

On Sunday morning at Homecoming there was a lively discussion for several hours regarding the idea of starting a Madison type school again. A year ago at Homecoming the idea caught fire and a Madison Institute board was elected. A farm of over 600 acres with buildings in good shape was found — Parish Patch Farm and Inn. Several on the Madison Institute board visited the place and were very enthusiastic. Bob Sutherland, then president of M.C.A.A., sent out a letter asking for funds. The price of over a million was too big and no miracle happened.

Since then there was growing interest in the "Stonecave" property owned by Wildwood where an academy had been operating, but closed down for lack of students. (The name was changed from Stone Cave Institute to Sequatchie Valley Institute.) It is located near Dunlap, TN, 45 minutes away from Wildwood. This is a debt-free farm of 350 acres, good soil, and seven buildings, a shop and two sheds.

Negotiations begun with the Stonecave-Sequatchie board, Wilbur Atwood, chairman, regarding the idea of a joint venture of using this site for "the new Madison." The thought was that Wildwood would have the medical and health training, and the farm would have the agriculture and vocational training.

On Sunday morning, Robert Sutherland ably chaired the meeting and taped the talks. Among those who spoke were Joe Bischoff, James Trivett, Ed Reid, James Zeigler, and Dr. David Ruggles, in addition to Wilbur Atwood and the new manager of Sequatchie Valley Farm School, Loland Moutray.

● At the end it was moved that the M.C. Alumni Association join with the Sequatchie Valley board in supporting the project, the two boards to work out the details. The Madison Institute board is also concerned. Several people are on both boards. Charles Gallimore is chairman of the Madison Institute board.

● Since Homecoming word has come that Robert Sutherland was elected a member of the Sequatchie Valley Farm School board.

● We wish we could include more of what was said at the Sunday morning discussion, but this and other items will have to be omitted or carried over to the next issue of the SURVEY. We have not had the usual help in transcribing the tapes.

We regret not including more on Henry Scoggins (Friday night talk) and Ed Reid (Sabbath morning sermon) but tapes are available. Also Mavis Sutherland at Sabbath School, Honor Class reports Sabbath afternoon and Wilbur Atwood at vespers, will be in next SURVEY.

Sequatchie Valley Farm School

An article on the Sequatchie Institution appeared in the Self Supporting Worker for June, 1987 (p. 6). In this the new manager Loland Moutray, spoke of need for people skilled in buildings trades and other workers to help get buildings in shape and assist in various ways. If available, call or write him — Sequatchie Valley Farm School, Mr. Loland Moutray, Rt. 3, Box 350, Dunlap, TN 37327. Tel. (615) 949-2678 or 949-4355.

Directions to Sequatchie (from Nashville): Take I-24 to Jasper, TN, turn left on Highway 28. Five miles to Dunlap. Look for Sequatchie signs.

● Ed Reid is much interested in another Madison type school and particularly the Sequatchie site. He said he didn't have time to include something on that in his sermon. He suggested reading Testimonies, Vol. 6, pages 140 and 141.

● It was suggested that those who contributed liberally to the new Madison Institute be asked how they feel about the new plan to combine forces with the former Stone Cave Institute. In the money collected there were eight donations of $1000 or more. We'd like those people to write and tell us.

My Reunion Weekend at Madison (An unsolicited interesting report.)

By Nita (Lanham) Rea (N '62)

On Friday night Henry Scoggins (61) spoke on the importance of having a plan before you begin your work. He mentioned how important this is in anything we do. Henry has been very busy climbing the ladder of success. Marjorie has been there to help all the way. He is away up there now as executive vice-president of LLU Medical Center. But believe me he's the same Henry that we went to school with a long time ago. . . .

I thought we would hear the same type of sermon on Sabbath a.m. as usual. Was I ever in for a surprise and a treat. First Ed Reid passed out a paper with the face of a clock but no hands. We were told that he had graduated from Madison Academy, then to SMC, and received a degree in Theology, Doctor of Divinity from Andrews; then more "learning" as he studied law. And if that wasn't enough he continued to study until he got a degree in Business.

The title to his sermon was "The End of An Era." What he said is, "Hey, guys, it's time to wake up! Our generation will see Jesus. Yes, I know that everybody has been saying this for the past hundred years." But listen to what else he said. "Many people will be disappointed and lost. Five groups will be saved:

1. People who know and trust Jesus.
2. Those who are filled with the Holy Spirit.
3. Those who are sharing the gospel with others.
4. Those who are liberal with God's cause and are self sacrificing.
5. Their lives will testify that this earth is not their home.

Then this striking statement was made: "We are not waiting for Jesus, He is waiting for us."

Also "Ed" reported that the Roman Catholic Church is planning to "Evangelise the world" from 1990-2000. The cost of this project will take one BILLION dollars. If the S.D.A. Church would raise this same amount it would take the 'average budget' for one year times 1000 years. Yes, that is what he said, one thousand years. The Catholics have a distinct plan. They plan to ask each member to give $1.25. I just wish that everyone had heard that sermon. Now you can order the tape and listen to what Ed said.

After the sermon we found our way downstairs to the Fellowship Hall for a very delicious dinner provided by the local people.

Mable Towery and her associates had spent many hours getting things ready for the weekend. It was too soon over. They did a fine job. On Friday night Miss Mable told us that she is "getting tired." She told us she has reached the ripe age of 87 years and begged for help to carry on the Madison tradition. She has done a tremendous job over the years and has a wealth of knowledge on the history of Madison College....

Honor Class Reports

Sabbath evening we had a vesper program of vocal or instrumental music. Wilbur Atwood, president of Wildwood Sanitarium, was the speaker.

The only disappointment was that not more of our classmates came. For the class of 1963 (next year's class), I would suggest that you begin now to make plans to attend. Some of our classmates (1962) are trying to get our class to once again attend next year. . . . I would like to hear from anyone who will write or call me. My address as follows.

Keep true to Jesus, tell your family how much you love them. Write or call me. God loves you and so do we, Tom and Nita Rea, 221 Free-mont Ave. #6, Hutchinson, MN 66350. Phone (612) 587-4826.

Letter of Appreciation on Restoration of Sutherland House

(The following letter by Connie (Rimmer) Tiffany to Mrs. Elsie Buck, chairperson of the committee for the restoration of the Sutherland House on the Andrews University campus, pretty well sums up the feelings of those who attended.)

Dear Elsie: I deeply appreciated the depth of understanding you and the committee put into the planning and implementation of the weekend of celebration at the recent opening of the Sutherland house.

During the festivities I saw the accomplishment of three goals. First, was the honoring of the memory of a great and good man whose influence upon the educational system of the Seventh-day Adventist church, and thus upon the mission of the church in the world, is undoubtedly without equal. Certainly the housing of the Institute of World Mission in the historic house is a fitting memorial to its builder.

The second goal which was accomplished during the weekend was the enlightenment of at least a segment of the Adventist community concerning the educational issues and trends which were of importance to our church in days gone by. The presentations gave listeners an idea of how the past has laid the foundation for the present and of the continuing importance of certain core educational concerns to the church at large.

Third, the festivities of the weekend warmed many hearts, including mine. Mavis and Shaen Sutherland were my childhood friends and beloved schoolmates. I was prepared, but not fully so, for the warmth that spending time with them and with others familiar to my childhood would bring to me. So let me thank you, and all the many others who helped to make it possible for the weekend of celebration. May God bless us and our church and may the mission of the Mission Institute be fulfilled.

New Historical, Pictorial Book

Sales were brisk for the new Madison book at Homecoming, and orders came in almost every day since. This is one of a kind book, perhaps never to be printed again. Have you ordered yours? It has taken much time to wrap, address, and mail the books. If you ordered and paid for one and did not get it, be sure to let us know. Also if you may have received more than one that you did not order, let us know.

• George Smotherman, who works in the accounting department at Washington Adventist Hospital, came by before Homecoming and bought three books — one for self, one for parents in Paris, TN, and one for his brother Eddy in Florida. Later at Homecoming he paid for another book to be left at the alumni office wherein people could write names under the unidentified and write corrections. We plan to list these in a future issue of the SURVEY in the form of an insert to be placed in the back of the new book. It is possible if some wanted additional pictures to add that this could be done if those who sent them could be willing to share the cost.

PAUL STUYVESANT HAS 90TH BIRTHDAY

Paul Stuyvesant's children, Carolyn, Elisabeth Heiding, and Dr. Wilfred Stuyvesant arranged a party to celebrate their father's 90th birthday in June 21, 1987, in Loma Linda, CA. Mother Stuyvesant died a few years ago and father Stuyvesant remained alone at the same house on San Mateo Street by his own choice. Paul is one of the oldest living graduates of Madison College still with us. He is listed in the class of 1947.

Update on Bralliar Family

An attempt was made by this editor to get in touch with some members of the Bralliar family to see if any of them could attend the Sutherland House celebrations. I talked with Dr. Floyd Bralliar, M.D., son of Floyd Burton Bralliar, Ph.D., who lives in Wickenburg, AZ, and found him in poor health unable to go. After several phone calls I reached Floyd B. Bralliar III who has been in the Denver area for some time. He was formerly on the staff of Porter Memorial Hospital, but presently with the Spalding Rehab Hospital in Denver. The Bralliars have three children Diane, a nurse and husband, Dr. Mark Johnson live in Cherry Valley, CA. Son Richard lives in Akron, Ohio.

• Dr. Max Bralliar, youngest son of Floyd B. Bralliar, Ph.D., served for a time as surgeon general of U.S. Air Force, but recently retired.

Emil and Elsie Tetz — 60 Years Together

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Tetz were happy to have all their six children with them on their 60th wedding anniversary at their home in Madison. The Tetz couple taught in denominational church schools for 42 years before retiring.

Son Everett is treasurer of the British Columbia Conference in Canada. Son Charles is administrator of Barston Clinical Lab and X-ray, Inc. in California. Of their three daughters, Clarisse Connors is an accountant at a firm in Washington, D.C.; Margaret Neal is a professor at the University of Baltimore; and May, at home, has been employed at Madison Hospital for several years.

Turner — Johnson

TURNER - JOHNSON. Mildred Turner and Dr. Reuben Johnson were married on May 7, 1987, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Huff in Portland, TN. Present were his two daughters, Barbara Allen and Caroline Shilling and their families; also her children, Dorothy Classer, Virginia Huff, and Chuck Turner, and a number of guests.

STEENSMA — FRAZEE

On March 25, 1987, Elder W. D. Frazee and Mae Steensma were married by Elder J. Lee Neil in the home of Pauline Frazee near Georgetown, GA.

It Did Happen! The True-Life Story of Julia Muir Grow

In his biography of his grandmother, Julia Muir Grow, Charles Roy DeArk II relates her life and the events that led to her founding Cave Springs Home-School for the Handicapped, located at Pegram, Tennessee.

Charles vividly depicts how Mrs. Grow, inspired by events in her own family, realized the need for a school like Cave Springs Home-School, where handicapped youth could study in a Christian atmosphere.

After her conversion to Adventism and her return late in life to Madison College to obtain a training fitting her to head the school of her dreams, the Cave Springs School became a reality. For many years the school carried out the philosophy expressed in the arch built at the entrance to the school, which says, "The Home That Love Built."

In this book, Julia Grow's experiences of a lifetime are presented by her own grandson, Charles Roy DeArk II. At this school "Grandma" Grow is giving her life in loving service to handicapped and retarded youth.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Many out-of-town Madisonites visited the Heritage House and alumni office before and during the recent Homecoming. Among visitors at other times were Belle O'Neil, former student of M.C., now located at Portland, OR; the Albert Nielsen family of Savannah, TN; and Gladys Rabuka, of Canada who was visiting her daughter Madelin Fuqua of Nashville. Mrs. Rabuka gave us her new address at Silver Hills Institute, Lumby, B.C., Canada.

• While visiting his grandson here Donald Lee of Loma Linda called at our office to see if we could supply a picture of Josephine Gotzian.

• Cloey (James) Walls and her sister Arabelle (James) Williams enjoyed seeing the Heritage House while on their way to the Retirees Convention at Collegedale. Their parents, Dr. & Mrs. Arthur James, spent some time at Madison where he was teaching. Mrs. Walls resides in Bloomfield, Indiana, and Mrs. Williams in Riverside, CA. The latter, wife of the late W. H. Williams, former undertreasurer of the G.C., is very active for her age (91). In 1982 she was included in Ripley's "Believe It or Not" for being the oldest woman skier in the U.S.

• From the Mission Projects Newsletter we have the good news that Darald Edwards, administrator of LaLoma Luz Hospital, is back at his post after a serious health problem that struck him while on a trip in the U.S. While away two months his son Richie and his wife Debbie of Clinica Bella Vista, Mexico, were borrowed to help the hospital in Belize.

1954. It was a pleasure, after 20 years silence, to hear from DR. ROY C. WILKIN '54, who is now a practicing dentist in Blythe, CA. After leaving Madison he earned his Bachelor's degree at P.U.C., in 1958. In 1964 he finished dental school at U.T. Memphis. He also took Anesthesia in Chicago and did anesthesia two years, but his chief work has been in dentistry. Dr. Wilkin has several sons and an adopted girl Judy. He attended Judy's wedding (now Mrs. Rosinfeld) in Arizona where he served as best man.

Gladys and Doc Custer Celebrate 50th

GLADYS (Klein) CUSTER (N '33) sent pictures of self and husband "Doc" at time of marriage in 1937 and at time of 50th wedding anniversary in 1987. She wrote "children and grandchildren are giving Doc and me a church renewal vows for our 50th wedding anniversary. Pastor Joe Melashanko will hear our vows and sing . . . Letter from Elizabeth Steen

Elizabeth Steen of Ehrenberg, AZ., has written several times giving suggestions about the "New Madison."

In one letter she spoke of a retirement home in connection with the school. In another letter she asked if the school could not be located in a place other than Tennessee. She spoke of the possibility of obtaining developed country properties far below the original cost with existing buildings and bearing orchards. (7T, 102)

In her latest letter Elizabeth sent a clipping from the magazine Country, with title, "Secluded Mountaintop Estate" for sale at Marble Hill, MO. Several buildings on the place, 214 acres, price $325,000. . . . She asked how many buildings are left at Madison College and how much land. "Could it be purchased, leased, or rented?"

In the SURVEY in 1983 we read that 208 acres were left at the Madison school; 100 at hospital. Forty acres of tillable land were left belonging to the academy. (We were alarmed to hear recently of a plan by the conference to sell some of this land. What a shame!)

- We received a card from someone in Washington State with no name signed, stating that Ben Morgan had died a year ago. After his wife, Dorothy Province died in 1984 he moved from Georgia to Washington state.

- OTHER DEATHS which have been reported, but we have insufficient information on, or too recent are: Dr. Byron Steele who died of a heart attack; Dr. Russell Herman who died in April, 1987; Elder Alvin Stewart who died July 2; Dr. Roscoe Ownby who died recently on Sand Mountain, and Mrs. Ruth Christman who died April 20 at Newbury Park, CA.

We hope to get further information on all these names to report in the next issue.

- James W. Blair died July 14 at Nashville Memorial Hospital. We received obituary material from his son "Buddy" Blair and Herbert Hewitt, who participated in the funeral but it was too near publication time, so we decided to hold it over to next issue, and give more space to a quiet, unassuming man who was loved and respected as farm manager, teacher, and treasurer at Madison.

Buddy wrote that his mother, Mrs. Betty Blair went to live with his sister Beverly (Mrs. Billy Wilson) at 1255 Wilkinson Street, Orlando, FL 32803.
