WHAT TO DO WITH LIBRARY BUILDING STONES?

Juanita (Standish) Gosse Answers The Challenge

Juanita Gosse is the daughter of H. E. Standish, the Industrial Arts teacher at Madison. He and his wife (Edythe) came to Madison in 1922 and were here until 1937. Juanita was born here at Madison Hospital.

She shares in the great heartache at the loss of the stone buildings.

Juanita's dad supervised the construction of the stone buildings on campus.

She says it would be wonderful if the Library could be saved, but if that was impossible perhaps another suggestion could be carried out.

Juanita drew a picture for a sign, to be made out of the stones, and suggested that large weather proofed photographs be placed on the sign along with the dates erected and the architect's name.

[If space permitted it would be a pleasure to print all the accomplishments of Mr. Standish, while Madison was his home. But we would like to mention just three of them. (1) He did the archways and stuccoing for the Sanitarium, (2) He made a brick oven for the bakery with a capacity of 200 loaves that held the heat for a week after the fire was removed, (3) and made the slender cement columns with wrought iron frames for the new Campus street lights near the Sanitarium. This was a beautiful addition to

Other Addresses Wanted

Bill Cushman, Frieda (Reinholtz) Rasmussen

GROUNDBREAKING FOR NEW ACADEMY BUILDING

On April 24, 1988, in connection with the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference Constituency Meeting held at the Madison Academy gym. A groundbreaking ceremony was held for the new facility to be built in front of the gymnasium. The new building will house administrative offices, chapel, library and some classrooms. Plans are for the building to be ready August, 1989.

It is always a trauma for Madisonites to see the old college buildings go down one by one.

JUANITA'S DESIGN

Juanita Gosse's father, Horace Standish, was designer and supervisor of many of the campus buildings.

With the archways made of stones from Drullard Library and the weather proofed photos of the buildings we should have a fitting memorial to our college.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Dr. Josephine Edwards, of Milton-Freewater, OR, "favorite story teller," visited the Madison Campus in May and spoke to the Madison Campus Elementary School.

Dr. Edwards was in Tennessee to speak for the Ridgetop SDA Church's 35th homecoming celebration. While here she was staying with Kenneth and Viola Knight.

Among her other talents Dr. Edwards has written 40 books and over one thousand articles. She is a popular speaker at camp-meetings and on other occasions all over the U.S. She taught in the elementary school at Madison at one time, also she and her husband were missionaries to Africa. After he died she taught in the Advanced Training School at Laurelbrook School, Dayton, TN.

- Elder J. Lee Neil of Loma Linda, CA., stopped by Madison on his way to Spring Council at G.C. He has long been interested in self-supporting work having served at one time on the A.S.I. board. He has long had a burden to see the Medical and Ministerial work united.

- Louis H. Martin, senior at Harland Institute, Rapidan, VA, has been fulfilling one of his assignments as student teacher at Laurelbrook Academy. He visited the Survey editor on Sabbath and toured the Heritage House.

- Have you ever heard of the Eller twins, Kay and Fay? They were students at M.C. 1958-9. Fay Eller Jennings visited on our campus recently. She is helping in many ways at Laurelbrook. Her twin, Kay (Eller) Boyd is also helping part time at Laurelbrook and spends some time at Leslie, OK.

Joyce (Jones) Merrifield (N '50), of Morehead, N.C., and Dorothy (Jones) Chandler (Pace '50) of Sanger, CA.

These two ladies came by the Heritage House on May 16, 1988 and left their names on the write-a-note pad.

- No one was at the office at the time. Instructions were in the door as to how to get to the apartment of the editor-secretary three blocks away. How we wish visitors could come if no one is in the office.

MADISON ACADEMY GRADUATION

Madison Academy held its 1988 graduation ceremonies, for 20 seniors on May 13-15.

The Consecration message was given by Marjorie Coon, English teacher at Madison Academy. The Baccalaureate address was given by Sylvia Barns, PH.D. of Oakwood College. It is interesting to note that the class chose two women as speakers.

Elder Dean Hunt gave the Commencement address. Note the esteem the class holds for their Principal, Elder Dean Hunt, by asking him to speak.

Congratulations Seniors!

CORRECTION in listing the relatives who attended the Johnson-Mixon wedding, we mistakenly had the name of Velma Mixon's sister Evelyn as Mrs. Murphy, but name is Evelyn (Stewart) Murray.

- Names of survivors of Coress King were inadvertently left out. Her sister, Doris Clapp, former director of nurses at M.C., lives in Takoma Park, MD. Mrs. King had one daughter, Nancy English and she has two children.

NEW INTEREST IN AGRICULTURE?

We have learned of a committee on agriculture appointed by the Board of Higher Education of the G.C.

Also we have learned of an evaluation team of four who have been evaluating the land of Tut-tles, including the Stone Cave property. George Snyder, of Watkinsville, GA, John Knowles, of Little Creek of Knoxville, TN, Howard Kendall of Uchee Pines, Seale, AL, and Fred Webb of the LaSierra Campus of L.L.U.

CROSS — JEWETT

Jenny Lee Cross and Dr. David Jewett were married April 10, 1988 in the Madison Boulevard Church, with the 4 children of bride and groom participating. Tracy Cross, daughter of bride acted as Jr. Bridesmaid. Jonathan Jewett, son of groom acted as Jr. Groomsman. Violinist — Timothy Jewett, son of groom. Pianist — Deena Jewett, daughter of groom.

Dr. J. Price Pearson, president of Faith Academy in Birmingham, AL, wrote that they need a black female elementary school teacher for September 1988. His mailing address and phone number is: 2233-A Arlington Avenue, South, Birmingham, AL. 35205. Ph: (205) 933-8126

(On Dr. Pearson's letterhead, this line appears after Faith Academy: An Institution for the Development in Academic, Religious, and Agricultural Training.)

ALUMNI NEWS

From Marion Simmons' Christmas Letter

Marion Simmons left North Carolina the last of October 1987 for her eventual destination of Thailand, her fifth S.O.S. call since retirement. On her way she was able to visit her sister Ruth in California, before she passed away, in January, 1988.

She has a very pleasant apartment on campus in Bangkok, where she is house mother to 107 student nurses at Bangkok Adventist Hospital.

DR. & MRS. CARL DENT

Dr. Carl Dent and his wife Lavelle (Lucas) N & BS '59, returned to Nashville from a tour of volunteer duty in Africa in May, 1987.

Even though the Dent's are retired, Dr. Dent has gone back to relieve a doctor, for three months.

When at home Dr. Dent makes some house calls and enjoys playing with the computer.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Dr. & Mrs. Elmer Bottsford

Dr. Elmer E. and Mrs. Grace Paulson (N'61) Bottsford, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1987. They were married in Los Angeles in 1937 and spent several years there where Dr. Bottsford graduated in 1942 from C.M.E., now Loma Linda University.

In 1943 they went as medical Missionaries to South America, and for 12 years ministered on that continent in various locations. Mrs. Bottsford assisted her husband and taught their two children at home. An infant son was buried in Peru in 1946.

The Bottsfords were back in South America from 1966 to 1968 and have also served a three-month stint in Africa.

Dr. & Mrs. C. E. Randolph Wed 60 Years

Dr. and Mrs. Elden Randolph have moved back to Madison from Loma Linda and relocated at the Maybelle Carter Retirement Home on W. Due West Ave.

They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in May. Their daughter Beverly and her husband Dr. Paul Cutler of Canada came for the occasion.

Patricia (Culpepper) Young (M.R. '62) Collegedale, TN

My husband Eddie and I moved to Collegedale in 1984 to place our daughter Kristin (age 9) in church school. I am employed by Jan Rushing of Alta Corporation. Eddie is employed by Mills and Lupton of Chattanooga, TN. We are active in the Ooltewah Seventh-day Adventist Church. We moved into our new home in 1985 and are enjoying living in the Collegedale area.

- Elder David Osborne, formerly connected with Atlantic Union College as pastor and faculty member, is now at Riverside, CA, where he wears two hats at LLU. He is vice-president of student affairs on the Loma Linda Campus and academic dean of the LaSierra campus. He is the eldest son of Wes and Irene Osborne of Avon Park, FL, and was a student in the elementary school at Madison.

Ivan and Martha '53 Peacock Return from Third Volunteer Trip

Ivan and Martha Peacock are retired but recently they went to Phuket, Thailand Adventist Hospital for 11 months so Ivan could help set up a Physical Therapy department and help train a Thai person to keep it going. Ivan was well qualified for the job with 36 years credit in the physical therapy field.

Martha not only worked as a volunteer in the hospital but also taught English in the S.D.A. English school English was taught by telling parables from the gospels and by producing a program on the birth of Jesus.

Ivan and Martha went to Phuket as part of a volunteer program of the G.C.

This was the third overseas trip for the Peacocks, who previously spent 10 years in Iran and did volunteer service in Honduras.

(Madison College can be proud of many graduates who have helped fulfill God's original plan for His school.)

Hazel (McConnell) Faudi
Waco, TX

Hazel and Marvin are retired from the V.A. Hospital in Waco, TX. She wrote: "Even though retired we remain busy with church, farm, and other duties. Our son Rooney works in diagnostic imagery in Dayton, TN. He has four children.

When we were at Madison for Homecoming we walked about the campus and it was difficult to know where things used to be. We found what was left of North Hall and got our bearings from there. We have so many fond memories of the Madison that used to be.

In July we celebrated our 50th Wedding Anniversary with a reception at the Federation of Women's Clubs in Waco, TX. It was hosted by our children and grandchildren.

We have appreciated your wonderful work, Mable Towery, through the years and we wanted to send you a very special thanks for such a nice Homecoming. We know it took a lot of planning and work for you folks and we appreciated it so much.

Mary and Cecil Shrock
Leslie, Ark.

Mary (Capman) Shrock wrote and said she attended Madison College 1938-1939. She met her husband Cecil A. Shrock at M.C. and they learned the self supporting ideals and have many fond memories of Madison.

Mary says to please send her a sample copy of the SURVEY, that she and Cecil used to fold the SURVEY after it was printed and have not seen a copy for sometime.

I would like to know what is to be done at the site of Stone Cave Academy, that some of their children went there to school.

Andrew W. Saphiloff
H Spt NAT PK, AR 71913

Andrew wrote, after reading and then re-subscribing to the SURVEY it is a real privilege to renew acquaintances.

I became Credit Manager of the Madison Sanitarium and Hospital in 1951. I was hired right out of Southern Missionary College's senior class of business administration by Messars Amundson and Clough. Inwardly I often wished I could spend the rest of my life on that campus. Mable, where I only wished, you have succeeded in giving your life to the cause of Madison.

You have been a wonderful, loving servant for the cause which I am sure you love. You must have thousands of friends, seen and unseen and I am sure you give God all the glory. I'm sure you won't resign altogether because yours has been a work of love and it is my prayer that your days and usefulness increase until Jesus comes.

It was an inspiration to be in the "work" and to be with christian young people at Madison preparing for work in His vineyard. I was sponsor of the "Young People's Missionary Volunteer Society", a real privilege.

After three years I left Madison to obtain a Masters Degree in Hospital Administration, 1955. After serving in hospitals in Kentucky, Virginia, and Southern California I retired in 1972, from the profession I loved since academy days at S.V.A., when the 1929 class prophesy listed Hospital Manager after my name.

From the September SURVEY, it appears that Madison's vision of practical christian education may once again be revived at Stone Cave, Dunlap, TN. May God richly bless those who for unselfish and dedicated reasons wish to tackle a difficult and so expensive undertaking.

Walper Update

Leslie and Ann Walper live in Lancaster, TN. They are both RN's and work in ICU, Leslie at McFarland Hospital in Lebanon, TN and Ann at Smith County Memorial Hospital in Carthage, TN, the same hospital as Gerald Payne, (X-Ray '66).

Leslie is the son of George and Lois (Almskog) N & BS '60. George Walper was personnel director at Madison Hospital from 1957 to 1965 and also played the organ for church and choir, which his brother Robert led. Since retiring, George and Lois enjoy traveling around in their motor home.

Robert Walper and wife Irene live in Louisville, KY. Irene is the administrator of Friendship Manor Nursing Home in Pewee Valley, KY. She has just completed two consecutive terms of three years each on the KY-TN Conference Committee.

Dr. Harold Graves, Bangor, CA

The article in a recent SURVEY by Dr. Arthur Pearson prompted me to write of my experiences at Madison.

It was the depression years and I was very poor so I hitchhiked to Madison. Miss DeGraw saw me, said I could stay and I was put to work on the farm milking cows at 4 a.m., then attending classes with more work in the afternoon. I recall most vividly the Bible study group headed by R. B. King where we went out and held home Bible studies. The Cricket Club was part of the student activities. The chapel talks by Dr. Sutherland were inspiring, especially after we could get out and work in carpentry with Elder Straw.

Toward the end of my three years of premed, Mr. Standish gave me a contract to lay a cement sidewalk at two cents a square foot and I was able to pay off my school debt.

Dr. Sutherland said we should get an education quickly and go into the self-supporting work which I knew well because my mother and father (Ed Graves) lived and helped the unit at Sand Mountain from 1910-1918.

Miss DeGraw gave a lot of us premed fellows an I.Q. test on all medical subjects and I didn't do so well, but she gave me some encouragement by saying, "Well, go ahead to Loma Linda and do the best you can. Sometimes the doctors who have a struggle out there make the best missionaries in the end."

Dr. Sutherland, Dr. Brailliar, Mr. Standish, Elder Straw along with the inspiration from Miss DeGraw and the Spanish that Mrs. King taught me had a very decided influence on my life.

Dale Putnam, Arthur Pearson, L. Ellenberger, David Johnson, myself, and others started out for Loma Linda. I was sick with malaria and corneal ulcer of the right eye so I was feeling miserable on that trip.

After Rosa Lee (Gunderson) R.N. and I were married we started 22 years of self-supporting medical missionary work in Guatemala, Central America.

About 1954, I was diagnosed as having cancer which was controlled by diet and home remedies. I learned much at the University of Brazil about the natural methods for the cure and prevention of cancer. At age 80, I thank God I am still able to garden and raise lots of fruits and vegetables to eat. Some wise man said: "Raise what you eat and eat what you raise. Your food is your medicine and your medicine should be your food."

NEW INTEREST IN AGRICULTURE?

We have learned of a committee on agriculture appointed by the Board of Higher Education of the G.C.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS ISSUE

Copy for this issue of the Madison Survey has been written under difficult conditions due to the editors' cataract surgery in the left eye, and also chief helper, Annette Payne, fell and injured her right ankle which impeded her progress. Other "Girls Friday" rallied round the editor -- Dorothy Mathews, Lois Clark, Naomi Gowan and Mabel Schlenker. They helped run errands, read to me, get mail and groceries and etc.

REGARDING THE SUPPLEMENT

- We regret that it was necessary to have the inclusion of the many miscellaneous pictures that have been sent in, but Bernard Bowen came through with the idea we had talked about. Out of his vast collections of slides he selected 29 pictures of his classes of nurse-anesthetists that he had taught (See 4 page supplement) which can be slipped out of the Survey and place in the new M.C. book. He not only did all the leg work but agreed to pay the printing cost.

- We plan to include the other pictures as a second Supplement in the September SURVEY. A long list of corrections and identification of names are in this issue. A crew of several people have listed 39 items, with pages in the new historical pictorial book, Madison College - A School of Divine Origin. The idea originated with George Smotherman, Jr. while he was here at Homecoming a year ago. If you have other items, let us know.

We at WDNX radio do not advocate celebrating Halloween, but because of the danger involved during this time, we recently completed our annual Halloween Safety Coloring contest.

The contest is designed to direct attention to safe practices for Halloween fun and each coloring sheet carries safety rules and simple precautions that prevent accidents. We distribute coloring sheets to all county school children in Kindergarten through sixth grades and judge the entries with winners from three age groups. This event has gained us quite a bit of good publicity. . . .

This week the stained glass windows were installed in the new Harbert Hills Academy Chapel. This chapel is a part of the new administration building.

Best wishes to all at Madison.

Broadcast Leadership Seminar for Three Radio Stations in South

The Southern Union Department of Communication sponsored the seventh Broadcast Station Leadership Seminar at Southern College. The three broadcast entities present were WDNX headed by Albert Nielsen of Harbert Hills Academy, WOCG, Oakwood College, and WSMC, Southern College.

Jerry Mathis, son of Helen Mathis N '38, spoke on regulations, and David Rose, son-in-law of Robert Sutherland, director of Earth Station Development for Three Angels' Broadcasting Network, gave information concerning UHF / low power television.

DID YOU KNOW?

• January 7, 1921 the electric lights were turned on for the first time at the Madison Sanitarium. (History of Madison College by Dr. William C. Sandborn page 170.)

• Sister White stood on what is, the school campus and pointed, in a westerly direction, to a spot covered with trees and underbrush, and stated that there was the place for the location of the Sanitarium. She insisted that they get a team and plow from the barn and turn the soil on that location as a beginning. (History of MADISON COLLEGE by Dr. William C. Sandborn page 109)

• In 1930 Dorothy and Della Brown set out six thousand Bermuda onion plants, which, when harvested, yielded at the rate of 300 bushels an acre. Ernest Biggs planted five acres of corn and harvested $249 worth of roasting ears and Melvin Lohman and Roger Goodge had a project of Irish potatoes. Sister White wrote in 1903 in the study of agriculture, let pupils be given not only theory, but practice. (History of Madison College by Dr. William C. Sandborn page 136.)

OBITUARIES

FLORA D. VALLOW

Flora Vallow was born Dec. 18, 1905 and passed away at her home in Knox, Indiana on April 5, 1988.

Mrs. Vallow went to Madison Academy from 1929-1933 and helped to start the Family Exchange (Dorcas) at Madison. She was prominent in Community Service work for 38 years at the Knox, IN church.

Survivors include one son; David Winter of Somerset, KY; two step sons, Charles Winter of Ill; Andrew Winter of Jensen Beach, FL; two step-daughters, Margaret Sapp of CO; Mary Blood of Stone Park, Ill.

LA VANNE HAZELTON

LaVanne Hazelton passed away in Nashville Memorial Hospital, April 20, 1988, at the age of 81. She lived with her parents on Hyde Street, behind the old Southern Publishing Assn. on 24th Ave. Her father was a colporteur.

LaVanne attended Nashville Jr. Academy on 24th Avenue North. After her father died, by careful management and much sacrifice her mother sent her to Southern Junior College. But scarcely into the 2nd year of secretarial training she elected to go and work full time at the nearby publishing house.

W. A. Harvey, the superintendent, quickly recognized her ability and potential and hired her as his secretary. She served faithfully and efficiently under W. A. Harvey, also managers N. C. Nelsen, Noble Vining, Fran Meyers, and Lloyd Barber.

In 1969 her mother died. For a few years LaVanne continued to live alone in the Hazelton house on Hyde Street. Then she bought a house on Coggan Pass in Madison.

LaVanne was master of the old tracker Pipe Organ in the Fatherland Street Church and the Consonnata purchased by the A. J. Franks when the Nashville First Church was built. She continued to bless the church with her musical talent. She played for the church each Sabbath, and on special occasions played for evangelistic meetings, weddings, etc.

She retired in 1975 after more than 40 years in denominational service.

She was buried beside her mother in Springhill Cemetery.

NAME and ADDRESS _____

News Note or Remarks:

Carol C. Randall, who attended Madison College at two different times, (summer 1931, and school year 1932 to 1933), died March 8, 1988, age 80, at Aurora, Colorado. His career included almost thirty years of teaching, mostly music in public and church school. His hobby was unpublished research in musicology.

His survivors include his wife, Eleanor, and his brother, Winslow, who taught economics at Madison in the fall of 1932.

(Carol's first wife, Myrtle Reinmuth, preceded him in death.)

Carol Randall and his wife Eleanor came by the Alumni Office in 1980 and we had a good visit. He was so enthusiastic about Madison. M.H.T.

JAMES THOMAS WENTWORTH

James Thomas Wentworth was born in Ashland, KS, June 14, 1925. He attended the Ashland public schools, graduating with honors from high school. He worked at a variety of positions in Ashland and Denver, CO. In 1948 he decided to continue his education and went to Madison College where he completed the P.A.C.E. course in accounting. After graduation he coached himself in preparation for his CPA exam, which he passed successfully in 1961.

He began his employment when he arrived in Madison as a grounds caretaker. As his capabilities were noted, he was appointed business manager of the college and later was advanced to the position of hospital business manager.

In 1949 he was united in marriage to Mary Helen Bottoms. In 1952 James and Mary with their infant son Jon moved to Battle Creek, MI, where he worked as a cost accountant at Post Cereals, a division of General Foods. While they were in Battle Creek, a daughter, Nancy Carol, joined the family in 1954. A year later the family returned to Tennessee, and Jim joined the Knight and Davidson accounting firm in Springfield. They bought a home in Ridgetop, where two more children were welcomed into the family — James Gary in 1957 and Beth in 1961. In 1981 Jim became a senior partner with Knight and Davidson and was joined by his son Jon.

At an early age Jim joined the Seventh-day Adventist church and was a loyal and faithful member, serving in a variety of church offices, including local elder. He was a long-time member of the Springfield Rotary Club, and was club president in 1962 to 63. He was also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Jim was a devoted husband and father. He enjoyed working in his garden and sharing produce with neighbors and friends. He loved the out-of-doors and going on trips to parks with his family.

Besides his beloved wife and four children, he is survived by three grandchildren: Jennifer, and twins, Tommy and Traci; and three sisters.

RUSSELL BAILES

After a long illness, Russell Bailes, 68, passed away April 26, 1988, in Alderson, WV.

Russell graduated from Madison in 1947. He was always so faithful to send in his dues. He was an Army Veteran of World War II and a member of the DAV. He was retired from the U.S. Postal Department, Washington, D.C.

Survivors are a sister, Rhoda Bowling of Tuscaloosa, AL and several nieces and nephews, including a niece, Margaret Corriher, executrix, to whom we are indebted for notice of death.

(I met Russell at a Madison reunion some years ago in Takoma Park. He was always interested in Madison. His niece wrote: "Madison College held a special place in his heart." After he retired to Turnwood, WV, several years ago because of disability, his health worsened. He got diabetes went into a nearby nursing home, became blind, and later went into a VA hospital where his leg was amputated. He wrote over and over that he wanted to come to "see" Madison. We are sorry we were unable to help fulfill that request. (M.H.T.)
