HOMECOMING'93

Make Your Plans

by Jim Culpepper

Plans for our Madison College Alumni Homecoming for 1993 are coming along well.

Activities begin Friday evening, June 18 with our special guest alumni speaker Irene Osborne, Irene has been involved with the youth all her adult life--Pathfinders, church Youth Activities, etc. Her home has always been open 24 hours a day 7 days a week to meet the needs of young people.

Following Irene Osborne we plan to honor Dorothy Mathews for her 41 years of elementary teaching.

Sabbath school is in process at this time and will possibly feature Harry and Joyce Mayden again this year. They have spent a year in Russia developing an educational program for that new Union Conference.

Pastor Jim Herman will be our speaker for the 11 o'clock hour on Sabbath. He too, has spent his life in youth pastoral work at Colledge-dale.

Jim is a product of Madison as his mother is Charmain (Manzano), and his father, Jim, taught at Madison College.

Honor classes for the June 1993 homecoming are: 70 years, 1923, 60 years, 1933, 50 years, 1943, 40 years, 1953, 30 years, 1963, and the years 1926, 1927, 1936, 1937, 1946, 1947, 1956, 1957, 1966 and 1967.

We consider everyone who went, to Madison College or NANI, even for 1 course, to be an alumnus.

DOROTHY MATHEWS

To Be Honored

by Jim Culpepper

Dorothy Mathews taught in Adventist elementary schools from 1937-1978, 41 years. She taught more years at the Madison College Elementary School than any other place.

Her list of students is long, almost 700 in all. There were several second generation students as you can imagine.

At the conclusion of our Friday evening service, Dorothy will be honored with a few tokens of our appreciation.

The greatest recognition this Friday evening on June 18 will be those from her former students who are present to bring a special feeling to the occasion.

My two sisters Elaine Cantrell (615) 452-6712, and Becca Rosenboom (615) 865-5340 have consented to help coordinate this recognition evening. Both were her students and both had at least one of their children in Dorothy Mathews' classroom.

Please feel free to call Becca or Elaine with your ideas for this evening, and to let them know you will be there. Also, tell others you know, who were in Dorothy's classes, to come Friday evening. If you have questions about someone being in her classroom, they both have a full list of all students.

Please come and help us make this a very special occasion.

They didn't have the money to put up the buildings, to get the equipment. They didn't have the faculty, they couldn't get the faculty and it'd be impossible for them to do it. And every time when I would tell her all of that wisdom I had gained during my medical course, and all the things I thought that I knew about what it meant to stay in the association, she would just come back and say "The Lord has shown me that the college of Medical Evangelists is going to be one of the first colleges in the land and that the product of Continued page 5 Col. 1.

there will be a potluck. Those coming from a distance may wish to send in money ($5 per person per meal) rather than to bring enough food for 25 people.

Two motels close by Madison campus are the Madison Motel phone 1-800-227-8760, and the Madison Square Motel phone 1-800-227-8760.

this institution would stand the highest and that it would go, and the result of this work would go all over the world." Well then I would get my breath, I'd meet her then the next day, and I'd try to tell her something new, try to go over the same thing that I did with a more impressive way, but I never got anywhere. I stayed there one whole month and she ended up just the way she started, that this institution was going, that the Lord had planted it and that the Lord would see that it was one of the strong institutions in the world. So I went back to Magan and I said "Magan, Sister White talked exactly the same about Loma Linda going through as she did about the Madison School starting. You and I didn't think it was possible, now it's ten years since then and we see it is. And she says that the College of Medical Evangelists is going to go." Well, he said, "I'm not going." But that we'd had sort of a survey made by the General Conference in March and they sealed up the verdict and they were going to open it at the fall council and the fall council was held here at Loma Linda. Magan's children by his first wife were over here in California and the time had come where he had to bring them back to Madison, he was married again.

And so it was agreed by the institution that Magan should come over here, and his wife, and get the verdict of that survey and bring the children back. So he came over. Dr. Evans made them their guests and Magan attended the meeting and one of the great problems that was up at that fall council, was this, can we continue the College of Medical Evangelists. There were three problems. One thought that it shouldn't be continued, they ought to close it, it was impossible. I belonged to that party, you know, at one time. And so I'm not surprised that many of them felt the same. Then there was another party who were in favor of two years college and finishing in some institution that could be affiliated with. Then the third, was in favor of a four year full fledged college with all the trimmings and everything that would go with it. Now there were very few that belonged to that third class. They even had great faith that it could be done. Now it came, they discussed it back and forth, they came to the time when they had to close the discussion and the chairman said, "now we're gonna vote tonight," and at a certain time they had to take the vote. Now Magan, as they reached the point where they were going to vote, was moved by the Lord to get up on his feet, and I understand that he made a most wonderful, eloquent plea for the college to exist and be continued as a four year college. How many of you ever heard Dr. Magan speak, raise your hand, how many of you have ever met him, raise your hand. How many have ever heard of him, raise your hand. Well that's fine. Well he was a wonderful man and if anybody in Ireland had ever kissed the Blarney Stone, Magan had kissed it twice, you understand. And he could tell it two ways. And he was one of the best Christian politicians and diplomats that I ever met. Isn't that right brother Price? He was an expert and when he saw how close this institution was to being closed up, the Spirit of the Lord moved upon him and he got up and he let everything out that he could put out to show that it would be practically impossible at least impractical to try to educate trained doctors by the method that they would have to pursue if they didn't have their own college, and he won. And when the vote was taken there was no opposing vote and it was voted that they should have a four year college. Now when he went home that night to Dr. Evans, Dr. Evans, you know him very well, he just sat right down in front of Percy, and Newton said, "now Percy," he had been trying to get Percy to come over, he said "now Percy you saved the college tonight and you've got to come over here and help run it."

ALUMNI

Walter Hass, BS'35, Alexandria, VA--I thought the SURVEY was dead. Fortunately I was wrong! It has been a long time since I received a copy. We all have great memories of Madison. Time erases the unpleasant episodes. My check to help the SURVEY continue is enclosed.

For the last half dozen years I have dreamed and planned on retiring in Thailand. We just returned from a 3 week visit there and realize I have to make the move soon. I'm still working full time with much of my work for Goddard Space Flight Center, but under the present administration that is being severely cut back so on my 80th birthday in mid-June, I'll hang it up.

The availability of good beach front property within 150 miles of Bangkok is shrinking and prices are quadrupling. I have a Thai wife who is many years my junior but we plan to adopt her 10 year old niece who will be my buddy for sailing, fishing, swimming, diving, and other water activities.

Each copy of the SURVEY brings news of our dwindling numbers so I'm going to enjoy the activities that I enjoy most as long as I can.

Best wishes for many more years of the SURVEY.

Ruth (Perry) Illingworth, MR'65--I enjoy the SURVEY very much. Enclosed is my check to keep the SURVEY coming.

Ruth Lingham, S'25 & '52 Inverness, FL--Viola, I am glad you are keeping the Madison College Alumni Association going! And, so that the Madison SURVEY is still published, and circulating--enclosed are my dues and extra.

My health seems good at 92, and I thank the Lord for His leading. I am having a better diet than ever before, even though I had followed the most healthful diet I knew, leaving off sugar because of glaucoma, has saved my sight to a large degree, and I discovered I am immune to colds and probably other diseases.

Because of a sinus condition, eliminating all dairy products, including all cheeses, I have my hearing restored (no more mucus, or scarcely which caused loss of hearing). I am relishing my food without these things. Then I discovered the words "Vinegar Eel," under Vinegar in the dictionary, and advise all to do without vinegar, in anything. Evidently any food undergoing fermentation is to be banned.

Howard Nix, M.D., N'42, BS'47, Galesburg, IL--Dear Viola, May God bless in your good work. We all enjoy reading the SURVEY, it is very informative, and thank you for all your hard work. Enclosed is my check, so that the SURVEY can be continued.

Roland Parker, N'51, Centerville, MI--Though "retired" I continue to fill in as interim pastor wherever the Michigan or Indiana conference needs me.

Genevieve had foot surgery this past year and has just graduated from the wheel chair. She is using a walker at present and will soon graduate to a cane, and my arm.

Our kindest regards to all our Madison friends.

Louise (Ritchie) Russell, N'38, College Place, WA--I just finished reading "Madison God's Beautiful Farm." I really enjoyed it. Enclosed is my check to help the SURVEY to keep being printed. Wish I could come this year to Homecoming, but that is impossible.

Cecil C. Shrock, S'40 Marshall, AR--It was pleasure to see a front page column devoted to a branch of the natural healing arts; this time, Herbs. Encouraged by the article and other items in the SURVEY I intend to make an earnest effort to attend Homecoming this year.

It is important that we do not forget the very work for which Madison was established. It was not that we did not already have schools and colleges already established, that an attempt was made to establish a different kind of school in the South.

During the years of its greatest service and influence, Madison College emphasized a combined physical and spiritual ministry. Every unit that started was to have a farm, a school, a sanitarium, and a church. In the sanitarium people were to be cared for by using the simple methods Sister White so often urged. These were to take the place of drug medication. These natural methods worked. They still will. This is the work God has given the church.

We have a regular clinic here in Marshall, and wherever I have opportunity I teach hands-on training in hydrotherapy and massage and general health principles. I was glad to see the article in the SURVEY. Let's have more of the same on all aspects of medical missionary ministry.

Mae (Keith) Warren, N'33, Elk City, OK--My hubby passed away 7 years ago. I have one son, 2 granddaughters, and 4 great grandchildren. I am 84 years old and cat and I live alone. I did private duty, public health, Red Cross, Army, and enjoyed my nursing career.

LETTERS

Lillian (Gray) McKinney, Collegedale, TN--Several weeks ago we had a wonderful gathering of Madisonites. There were quite a few more I could have invited, but I could not accommodate more than 30 in my house.

We had a wonderful time sharing different things about Madison and what Madison did for each of us.

Those who came were John, S'64 & Helen Durichek, Goldie (Shaffer) Durichek, BSN'50, Lloyd & Ann (Holland) Cantrell, Jim, BSN'35 & Freida, N'48 Zeigler, Bill & Ann (Marchant) Giles, Charles, S'51 & Betty (Phelps), N'48 Edwards, Mickey, Lab'54, X-Ray'56 & Gena Rabuka, Charles & Juanita (Coon) Steffens, Ethel, S'47 & Glen, S'49-51 Coon, Robert & Vlema (Stewart), N'52 Smith, Dewitt & Josie (Newlon) Bowen, and Mac, s'47-49 & Lillian (Gray) McKinney. There were others who did not sign the guest book. Dr. & Mrs. Cothren were sick and unable to come.

Mrs. Harold Schroeder, Cambridge, WI--I've never gone to Madison, but we are well acquainted with Madison and we enjoy reading the MADISON SURVEY. Please continue sending it to me. Our check is enclosed.

Helen (Bush) van Boer, Ph.D., Fletcher, NC--This year some real changes have occurred in our lives. We returned to the Southland to live after a four decade sojourn in California. It seems most homelike and meeting some Madisonians in Fletcher has been a welcome surprise. Everett and Ruth Marley, Dr. Jean Slate, and Dr. Burt and Dottie Keppler, sister of Roland Parker.

Madison has been influential in the growth and development of Fletcher Sanitarium, now Park Ridge Hospital. The Academy and Church function well, and the Senior Retirement Center is a beautiful place. When I visit those grounds, I am reminded of the summer I visited there when my father, Captain Bush, was Chief Officer of the Medical Cadet Corps program held 50 years ago.

Now we are finding it a wonderful place to retire. Bertil is involved in musical activities, and he has been selected as composer-of-the year for the Swannanoa Festival. He is giving flute recitals and also completing his season as Conductor of the Paradise Symphony Orchestra in California. For me, the Life Long Learning Centers in Asheville and in Hendersonville offer exciting and interesting studies. I am also researching my North Carolina ancestors.

We are always glad to receive the MADISON SURVEY and we look forward to hearing of the Homecoming plans for May.

MABEL SCHLENKER A shock wave went through the Madison community at the news of Mabel (Plum) Schlenker's death. Mabel a member of the Madison College Alumni board. Mabel will be sorely missed. If you knew Mabel Schlenker you knew a practicing Christian.

Bernard Bowen has written an obituary for Mabel along with his memories, he writes: Mabel Schlenker born June 17, 1916 in Batavia, IA, and was reared in that part of the U.S. She came here to Madison about 1940 or so and in Sept. 1941 married Elator Schlenker.

Elator came from North Dakota where he had grown up with Ben Brost and Otto Konegisfield. My sister, DeLayne, and I were here at that time. We worked on the farm here and milked a large herd of cows by hand. We got up at 2:30 in the morning to milk a string of cows, so they could get out in the pasture by daylight. The story is that Elator milked 30 cows twice a day. I never could do more than about a dozen at one time.

Elator went off to WWII in England, France & Germany and then came home and taught school in Harvey, ND and in Minnesota. Mabel was raising their three children at this time. She told me that before she got married that she and my sister, DeLayne, roomed together at Madison College. They were in Nurses training together. My sister graduated in 1941, so our families go back over 50 years.

Mabel was a devoted companion to Mable Towery who was the Executive Secretary to the College Alumni, and as Towery got more miles on her meter, she needed help to travel. Mabel and Lois Clark used to travel with Towery. I met them once in Lincoln NE where they were attending a convention of retired Adventist.

Mabel's children told me that Mabel already had her ticket to attend this year's convention at Pacific Union College in California.

Mabel loved her family very much, and her friends, and was always doing something for someone.

The last 4 years or so of her life Mabel lived in the Cumberland Towers on the Cumberland River. Even there she has taken every opportunity to be a friend and helper to all who knew her.

PICTURE

I've never heard anyone say anything except good about Mabel in the years since they returned here to Madison. She loved the Lord and looked forward to his soon return. Now she will wait his coming here in Madison along with a host of her friends. Bernard Bowen

Mabel is survived by 2 daughters: Lois Howell and Geraldine Yates who both attended Madison College; and a son, Tom who graduated from Madison Academy in 1971.

The children said of Mabel, their mother: "She was a loving Mom to us. She was the best friend we had or could have had. If there was anything we needed or wanted she would find a way for us to have it. She never considered herself OLD at 76."

Her greatest concern was her love for the Lord. She always made sure she sent money to all the charities for homeless and missions, and for the finishing of the work in this world so Jesus could come soon. Mother had many friends and we especially wanted to mention Lois Clark. She was like a sister to her. Thank you, Mrs. Clark.

LILLIAN STEELE, BS'38, wife of Byron Steele, has passed away. Her husband Byron Steel preceded her in death in 1987. It was just in January of this year that Lillian sent in a $50 memorial gift in her husbands memory.
