Donald Mansell Collection: Armageddon and the King of the North

(Collection 198)

Scope and Content:

Donald Ernest Mansell (1923- ) has served as a pastor, missionary, associate book editor at the Review and Herald Publishing Association, and assistant secretary of the Ellen G. White Estate. He has taught a popular end-time seminars in churches and has spent many years studying and collecting materials on Armageddon and the King of the North question, as well as compiling Spirit of Prophecy counsels for the last days.

This collection represent his life-long collection of materials on Armageddon and the King of the North with sources dating from 1642 to 1971. They are derived from Protestant, Millerite, and Seventh-day Adventist sources. Mansell's primary interest was to do a historical study on the development of the Seventh-day Adventist teaching and interpretation on Armageddon and the King of the North.

The collection is divided in the following categories: 1) correspondence, 2) compilation of Millerite and Seventh-day Adventist quotations, plus published and unpublished materials on Armageddon and the King of the North, and 3) published and unpublished writings by Mansell on the subject of Armageddon and the King of the North. There is a mix of originals and photocopies.

Arrangement:

In most parts, the present arrangement of the collection was done by Mansell. The correspondence is arranged alphabetically. The sources are arranged chronologically in order to keep the original purpose of the collection. Some items lack a date. The arrangement is as Mansell had it when received at the Center. Some materials not arranged by Mansell were placed at the end of the source collection. The nine index card boxes are placed at the very end of the inventory for convenience reasons due to their physical size. At the end of the register is an alphabetical list of the articles and papers of the collection to maximize accessibility to the materials.

Provenance:

The collection was donated in April 1999 to the Adventist Heritage Center by Donald Mansell.

Use:

All users of this collection will be required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Record," and to observe the regulation specified in the "Patron's Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Citation for this collection:
