(Collection 269)

Scope and Content

Wayne Earle Willey (1944-2003) was a pastor, lawyer, writer for religious periodicals. He studied theology at Atlantic Union College graduating in 1968. He studied theology at Andrews University (no degree) and he also earned a law degree. He served as a Seventh-day Adventist pastor in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Arkansas before leaving church employment. In his last years he served various churches on a non-denominational basis.

This collection contains mainly theological papers collected by Willey. Topics includes mostly issues on righteousness by faith, Christology, Ellen G. White, and religious liberty.

Arrangement

This collection was arranged by Andrews University Center for Adventist Research.

Provenance

This collection was donated to James White Library by the family of Wayne Willey in Nov or Dec 2007.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and observe the regulation specified in the "Patron's Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
