Vincent M. Elmore Papers (Collection 008)

Biography

Colonel Vincent Martin Elmore (1876-1956), U. S. Army (retired), served as an officer in the Spanish American War. Later, he served in the Philippines, and during World War I, he served as inspector of the 5th Army Corps in France. He earned the silver star for gallantry in France and the distinguished service medal in WWI.

In the year 1922, Elmore retired from military service and the following year, was baptized and became a member of the Montgomery Seventh-day Adventist Church, along with his wife, Winona Elmore, his son, Vincent M. Elmore, III, and his two daughters, Winona Elmore Havey and Langdon Elmore.

Scope

The Vincent M. Elmore Papers (Collection 008) contains Elmore's correspondence from 1919 to 1961, as well as those of his wife, Winona B. Elmore's, correspondence from 1943 to 1961 and her research notebooks (#1-12). A significant portion of the collection contains writings from various authors, religious and topical studies, periodicals, and article clippings.
