Biography

Erwin R. Gane (b. 1931) was born in Oakleigh, Victoria, Australia, to Edward Roy Gane, an Adventist pastor, and Olive Vesta Gane. At the age of 24, Erwin completed a double-major in History and Education, with a minor in Economics, at the University of Sydney, in Australia. He began his teaching career at the Sydney Seventh-day Adventist High School and at Avondale College. Later, after a year of ministry in the North New South Wales Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, he enrolled at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University and completed a Master of Arts in Religion, a Masters of Divinity, and a Masters of Theology. He earned a PhD at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Gane served as a professor at Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska, and Pacific Union College in Angwin, California. He also worked in the White Estate at the General Conference before serving as pastor at the Trenton Adventist Church in New Jersey. From 1986 to 1995, he worked in the General Conference Sabbath School Department as the Editor for the Adult Sabbath School Quarterly.

He authored several books including Heaven's Open Door (1989), The Battle for Freedom (1990), This We Believe (1993), Enlightened by the Spirit (1995), You Ask, God Answers (1998), Jesus Only: Paul's Letter to the Romans (2005), An Examination of Desmond Ford's Book, Right with God Right Now (2009), Trumpet After Trumpet (2012), and Christ Reveals Himself and the Future (2014).

On January 7, 1953, Erwin married Winsome Lillian Baron. Erwin and Winsome had two children, Roy and Calvin. Roy Gane became a professor of Old Testament Studies at the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. Winsome passed away in 2017 and Erwin passed away in 2021 while living in Colorado.

Scope and Content

The Gane collection has personal documents, which consist of biographical information, family history, letters, and photographs about his life and family, friends, and family correspondence. Following this, the collection contains his series of Bible studies, his radio talk series, his alphabetized sermons, other miscellaneous talks and Bible studies, his scholarly writings, a general collection of research materials and notes, and materials written by his son, Roy.

Arrangement

See the following listings for more information. The bulk of the collection is in the "Writings" series. Gane developed extensive quantities of Bible studies and radio scripts. These are in their own sub-series within the "Writings" series. In the Bible Studies sub-series and in the "Topical Files" series Gane employed some abbreviations for the topics. This is not difficult to decipher and has been left as he called it. The sermons and talks are alphabetical by title within their separate sub-series. There is also extensive family correspondence, 1960-2006.

The Roy Gane documents are alphabetical by title. These are likely papers Roy shared with his father.

Provenance

The collection was donated to the Center for Adventist Research in January 2018 by Erwin Gane and delivered to the Center by his son, Roy. In 2023, additional material came from Roy. The collection was completely revised at that time.

Extent

12 Record Center Boxes [15 linear feet].

Use

All users of this collection are required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and to observe the regulation specified in the "Patron Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct."
