Howard B. Weeks Collection: Adventist Evangelism in the 20th Century

Collection 18

I. Biographical Information

Howard B. Weeks became an Adventist minister in Michigan in 1946. Later he was called to the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist, Department of Communication. Afterwards he served as vice president for public relations at Loma Linda University until he retired because of health problems.

Scope

The Howard B. Weeks Collection was given to the Adventist Heritage Center, James White Library, Andrews University in 1967 by Howard B. Weeks. These papers were collected when Dr. Weeks was working on his dissertation entitled "A Historical Study of Public Evangelism in the Seventh-day Adventist Church: 1900-1966." They contain evangelistic sermons, letters, teaching material, questionnaires, articles, visual aids, advertising brochures, and scrapbooks.

Arrangement

The folders are referred to as "fld" and they are numbered on the basis of their alphabetical order. To call for items in the collection use "C 18" with the box and folder number as indicated in the following inventory. Citations to the collection or item in the collection should include the following: Howard B. Weeks Collection, Adventist Heritage Center, James White Library, Andrews University.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the Application To Use Unpublished Records, and observe the regulations specified in the Patron's Agreement and Researcher's Code of Conduct. All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
