Kenneth A. Strand Collection 192

Scope and Content

Kenneth Strand (1927-1997) was a long-time professor of Church History at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. His specialty was in the area of the Reformation period. He also had interest in the Biblical book of Revelation. He began teaching at Andrews University in the late 1950s and stayed until his death. He earned his doctorate at the University of Michigan in the area of Reformation studies.

This collection reflects that of an active teacher and scholar with correspondence, notes, writings, and a wide range of classroom materials.

Arrangement

See the register for more information.

Provenance

This collection via provisions of Dr. Strand's will when he died unexpectedly in late 1997.
