Roger Coon Collection (Collection 286)

Biography

Roger Coon was born on April 2, 1928 in United States and died on June 1, 2011. In 1948, he was married to E. Irene Strom who was a certified public accountant. She became the first woman to head the auditor position at the General Conference in 1978. The couple had two children: Susan (a graduate registered nurse whose husband, Kevin McDaniel was a minister in the Michigan Conference), and Donald (an electronics engineer).

Roger Coon earned his BA in History and Religion from La Sierra University in 1948. He went on to pursue an M.A. in Religion at Andrews University, which he successfully completed in 1959. He then continued his academic journey with a Ph.D. in Speech- Rhetoric and Public Address at Michigan State University, earning his degree in 1969.

After Coon completed his BA studies, he entered the ministry on June 11, 1948 and was formally ordained to the ministry on June 21, 1952. He served as a minister, evangelist, author, foreign missionary, and a seminary professor. Most of his years in ministry were spent in the classroom, where he served as Adjunct Professor in "Prophetic Guidance" at the Theological Seminary, Andrews University 1952–1964: He served in Nigeria as a pastor, evangelist, hospital chaplain and a foreign missionary. He co-founded the Adventist Seminary of West Africa at Ilishan-Remo while teaching during its first four years.

1964-1967: He likely transited from missionary work to teaching in the US.

1967-1978: He taught religion at Pacific Union College, CA.

1981-200? : He served as Associate Secretary of the Ellen G. White Estate, Silver Spring, MD.

While serving as an associate secretary of Ellen G. White Estates, Coon defended the prophetic ministry of Ellen G. White, and conducted lectures on her life and ministry. He wrote many articles and papers clarifying misconceptions and criticisms about her work. Coon's writings have been translated into at least ten different languages. His articles were often published through Adventist Review, Signs of the Times, Ministry, Mission, Journal of Adventist Education, Adventist Heritage, and Dialogue. While he did not published many books, his lecture manuscripts, papers, recordings and perspectives were embraced by many Adventist scholars and educators. Coon's teachings helped shaped the thinking of many seminary students, pastors, and the church membership at large. Through his defense of Ellen White, he helped reinforced Adventist believers' confidence in the Spirit of Prophecy during the 1980s and 1990s. Coon was known for his engaging style, his sharp sense of humor and his ability to simplify complex theological and historical issues.

Scope and Content

The Roger Coon Collection spans from the 1940s to the 2000s and includes a wide array of personal documents and both personal and official correspondences. It features a rich assortment of sermons—evangelistic, revival, and Bible study series—delivered by Coon over the years on a variety of topics. The collection also contains theological research on a broad range of subjects, including doctrine, church history, health, morality, and lifestyle. The general files cover an even wider scope, addressing issues related to ministry, mission, theology, education, leadership, health, and culture. A significant portion of Coon’s research draws from the White Estate and includes extensive materials by Ellen G. White. Additionally, the collection holds teaching resources such as lecture notes, research papers, writings, and syllabi, most of which are original and unpublished.

Arrangement

The collection has been organized into five series, or sections. The first section contains personal documents, including personal photographs, service records, and other important personal materials. The second section consists of correspondence between Roger Coon and others, arranged alphabetically. The third section includes sermons, both typed and handwritten, by Coon and by others, also arranged alphabetically. The fourth section contains research files, comprising research writings on a variety of topics by Coon and by others, organized alphabetically by subject. The fifth section includes teaching materials, consisting of resources on various important topical areas such as Adventist Institutions, eschatology, hermeneutics, pastoral leadership training, and etc. These topics are arranged alphabetically.

Extent

42.5 linear feet (34 records cartons)

Provenance

The collection arrived at the Center for Adventist Research before 2018. A couple of people worked on this collection and brought it to completion in 2025. While not certain, we expect the source to be the Roger Coon family.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the “Application to Use Unpublished Records,” and observe the regulation specified in the “Patron’s Agreement” and “Researcher’s Code of Conduct.” All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
