Roland E. Loasby Lecture Notes (Collection 11)

Biographical Information

Roland E. Loasby (February 8, 1890 to May 5, 1974) was a Seventh-day Adventist educator, evangelist, and missionary. Born in Northhamptonshire, England, he came to the United States when he was 18. From 1910 to 1912 he was a missionary in Bermuda. He married Bernice Manuel in 1913 and was graduated in the first graduating class of Washington Missionary College in 1915.

Roland and Bernice Loasby spent 23 years in evangelistic and educational work in India. In 1936 Roland became chairman of the New Testament Department of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, holding that positions until 1960. For nine more years he taught part-time at the Seminary. He died in Loma Linda, California, in 1974.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of an extensive collection of lecture notes covering most of the Pauline epistles, the book of Hebrews, and the two books of Peter, plus a number of related topics. See the Inventory for a complete list.

Arrangement

The Adventist Heritage Center arranged the collection during processing. Additional information concerning the arrangement of the collection may be had via a perusal of the Inventory which follows this page.

Provenance

The Roland E. Loasby Lecture Notes were given to the Andrews University Adventist Heritage Center on December 11, 1974, by Mrs. Roland E. Loasby.
